MINISTER HIMSELF GOT DIVORCE

Rev. Martin Corrects False Impression In Recent Article In Afro-American

Washington, D. C., Aug. 26.—In a letter to the Afro-American, Rev. J. Luther Martin, formerly pastor of Summit Point, W. Va. A. M. E. Church labels as false the recent article in The AFro-Americ declaring that he got a divorce from his wife because she "was tired of preachers."

"That had nothing to do with it" declares Rev. Martin, "and I feel assured out of simple justice to her this may be known. In the denomination there was not a word spoken with reference to any profession, nor does my decree state such.

GOD HAS NO COLOR

Minister Says Supreme Being Is Neither White Nor Colored

New York City, Aug. 26.—Rev. E. Daniels told his congregation of St. Philips P. E. Church, last Sunday that God has no color.

"There is an absurdity in thinking God as black and Jesus as a Negro. God has no color and Jesus was historically a Jew. We are only making ourselves ridiculous when we think of them as anything else."

Rev. Daniels said he disagreed with Marcus Garvey and others who declared, "We are going to have democracy in this country, if we have to kill every white man in it."

IN MEMORIAM

BROOKS—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son Robert H. Brooks who departed this life one year ago August 27, 1919.

Keep him Jesus in thy keeping
Till I reach the shining shore
Then oh Master let me have him
Love and keep him as before
Thy face my mind will ever seen
Forgotten thou shall never be.
BY HIS LOVING MOTHER

BANKS—In loving but sad remembrance of our dear beloved husband and father Mason Banks, who departed this life one year ago, August 18, 1920.

One sad year with all it changes
Since death suddenly bade us part
But dear father all the changes
Cannot take you from our hearts.

In silence he suffered, in patience he bore
Until God called him home to suffer no more
And while he lies in peaceful sleep
His sacred memory we shall always keep.
Sadly missed

To lose the one so true and dear

You was so much needed here
You left us a charge to keep

You slumber so peaceful
We will let you sleep on
