Miss Herndon In Traffic Court

Tells Judge Staylor She Forgot Registration Card And Left It At Her Home

VENABLE SPEEDING

Coughs Up Ten Dollars For Stepping Too Hard On The "Gas"

All sorts of traffic cases were heard by Judge Staylor in the Central Police Station last week and the Judges "five" and "ten" dollar fines grew almost monotonous. Miss Elizabeth Herndon of 1362 Stricker street forgot her registration card and paid $1 and costs. The Judge soaked Howard Venable for driving his new car beyond the speed limit. Other violations were:

No registration certificate and fictitious markers, Walter Baskerville, 1330 N. Carey, dismissed; Gilles P. Mickey, Sparrows Point, $1 and costs; Alexander Woodard, 403 W. Biddle, $20 and costs; Elizabeth Herndon, 1362 N. Stricker $1.; Howard Courser, 705 W. Franklin; Lewis Williams, Washington, D. C.

Speeding: Charles Hill, 925 Greenwillow, $10 and costs; Haynes Veney, 1929 McCulloh, $10 and costs; Wm. Russell, 406 N. Mount $10 and costs; Howard Venable, 326 N. Gilmor, $10 and costs.

No mirror, lenses, or license or lights: J. W. Dorsey, 2502 Raynor avenue, dismissed; Wm. Russell, 406 N. Mount, $5; Frank Herbert, 1140 Stockton, $5; Charles Smith, 2503 Oak St., $15; Robert Poole, 318 N. Gilmor, $10; Odonmath Sinkfeldz, 917 McCulloh; James Heavrou, 749 Little [illegible].

Failure to stop after collision: John Blake, 128 N. Stricker and costs; Robert Butler, 17[illegible] Culloh.

Failure to give right away and reckless driving: Thomas Murray, 226 N. Mount, dismissed; Frank Herbert, 1140 Stockton, $2; James McCready, 1726 Maryland avenue, $10; William Nelson, 555 W. Preston St.; Milton Howard, 1402 Argyle avenue, $10; George W. Jones, 544 Robert St., dismissed; Harry Gilbert, 1619 Druid Hill avenue; Isaac Ringgold, 329 W. Biddle St.; Joshua Williams, 1428 Mosher St., $5 and costs; Charles Smith, 2503 Oak St., $5.

WENT TO DANCE DID NOT RETURN

So Wife Asks Court to Grant Absolute Divorce.—Divorce Mill Is Busy.

Telling his wife, Mrs. Ida Prigg, of Belair, four years ago that he was going to a dance and might not return, caused her, through her attorney, R. S. Bond, to file a suit in the Circuit Court asking for an absolute divorce from her absent spouse, Joseph S. Banks.

The same attorney also filed bills for absolute divorce for Laura Wright, 1740 Druid Hill avenue, from Charles Wright, of Philadelphia; Pearl E. Jones, of New Windsor, from Ernest Jones; Mrs. Mary McGowan, 1812 N. Mount street, from P. M. McGowan; Mrs. Hester West, 2647 Boone street, from Wm. H. West and Daniel Griffin, 3317 Barclay street, from Mrs. Essie Griffin, Richmond county, Va.

Through Attorneys Davis and Bishop, Theodore Gibson, who was a sergeant in the 351st Field Artillery, has filed a bill asking for an absolute divorce from Josephine Gibson. Abandonment was the cause.

Jazz Band In Maryland

A big jazz orchestra under the direction of John Ridgely and Rivers Chambers is furnishing entertainment nightly in the dining room and Jardin de Danse of the Maryland Theatre. The hook-up consists of John Ridgely, drummer, Rivers Chambers, pianist, Lewis Flagg, cellist, John Tinner, banjoist, Carlos Dowdy, clarinetist, and Alfred Hughes with a moaning saxophone. These young men are handing out a wonderul earful of syncopation and bid fair to outshine any group of artists that have appeared in this place for years past.

Bailey Still At Large

James Bailey, charged with killing his wife in Jasper street some time ago, who was one of four prisoners to escape from the city jail this week is still at large. He is that to be in the neighborhood of Easton, Md.

A SUPRISE PRESENTATION

The Silver Spring Household of Ruth No. 5694 G. U. O. F. tendered a surprise last Monday night to their advisor P. M. N. G. Sister A. B. Turner with a handsome jewel and a purse of $75.00. The presentation speech was made by D. D. G. M. Rev. Hesekiah Brown. Sister Turner responded in accepting the token of appreciation with very fitting and appropriate words. Sister Turner will leave Sunday for New York with the rest of the delegates to attend the B. M. C.

Sister Elizabeth Elliott M. N. G.
Sister Maggie Harris, W. R.

SAXO JAZZ BAND HERE NEXT WEEK

The great Byron Brothers Saxo Jazz Band, the best colored musical act on the American stage, which will be a feature of the burlesque show at the Palace Theatre all next week. This will be an added attraction with Dave Marion's own Show. Mr. Marion, who is the best known burlesque producer, has a brand new show this year. Emil "Jazz" Casper, the well known black-face comedian, who is known as the "Bert Williams of Burlesque" will be the chief funmaker. No one should miss seeing the show. The saxo band is made up of five men and one woman. All are talented performers. When they leave Baltimore they will tour the country. They will appear at all performances next week at the Palace. Ladies' matinee every day.

Will Probated.

The will of the late James H. Shaw, who died recently, has been probated. His widow is named as executor and bond for $2,000 was filed.

Medicos To Meet

The Maryland Medical, Pharmaceutical and Dental Association will hold its first monthly meeting after the summer recess at the Y. M. C. A. next Monday night.

Fernandis Will Probated

Letters of administration have been granted Attorney John Hannibal, white, on the estate of the late Walter Fernandis, for many years barber at Johns Hopkins University.

Trial Of Mrs. Williams

The case of Mrs. Luberta Williams, charged with conducting a rooming house at 1226 Druid Hill avenue without the proper permit, is slated for trial in the Criminal Court next Tuesday.

A CORRECTION

Miss Juanita Williams wishes to announce that she was granted a divorce from her husband on August 25th thru Attorney Roy S. Bond and received papers on August 27. The state in last week's Afro that her husband got the divorce was incorrect.
