His Majesty's Ship Royal Oak — Saturday 25th June 1814

Bermuda S. 84° W. 1819 Miles

Knots	Fathoms	Courses	Winds	Remarks and Occurrences	Signals A.M.	Signals P.M.	Signals No.	By what Ship	To what Ship
6	..	WSW	S.E.
5	6		NNE.
5	6
5	..
4	4
3	4
3	2
4	..		bble
2	..	NbW	SbW
1	4	WbN	bble	A. M. Moderate and Cloudy weather
1	6	West		At Noon Royal Oak Squadron and Convoy in Company
1	2			P. M. Moderate breezes & fine weather	5	..	..	.. 154 S.E.	Admiral Pactolus
				At 3. 30 Pactolus saw two sail supposed to be the Menelaus & Pomona	"	..	"	" 154 SE	— " — Primrose
				Pactolus took Devastation in tow	8	30	..	.. Recall	— " — General
				At 12 Mod: with small rain	8	50	..	.. Convoy	Make more Sail & close
					9	..	..	.. Ranger & Britannia	P. to Tack

Diet	Lat. in	Long. in
M. 88	Obs. 34.35 N	Alt. 29.28 Chron. 29.40 W

His Majesty's Ship Royal Oak — Sunday 26th June 1814

Bermuda S. 85-37 W. 1740 Miles

Knots	Fathoms	Courses	Winds	Remarks and Occurrences	Signals A.M.	Signals P.M.	Signals No.	By what Ship	To what Ship
4	4	WSW	ANE.
5	2
4	..
4	..
4	4
5	..
4	2
3	4
3	2
1	4			A. M. Moderate with heavy rain at times.
1	..			At 8. 30 Sent a Boat to the Transport No. 472.
				At Noon Royal Oak Squadron and Convoy in Company	7	15	..	.. 213 —	Admiral Rover
				P. M. Light breezes & fine Wr.		12	50	Long. 29.30	Dictator Admiral
				At 5 hove to on the Larboard Tack		4	40	83 —	Admiral General
				At 6.40 bore up & made Sail
				Pactolus & Primrose parted Company for Bermuda
				At 9. 30 in Larboard Studding Sails
				At 12 Mod: & fine weather

Diet	Lat. in	Long. in
M. 88	Obs. 34.35 N	Alt. 29.28 Chron. 29.40 W