His Majesty's Ship Newcastle - Monday 17th June 1816

Hours	Knots	Fathoms	Course	Winds	When the Ship at Noon	Remarks and Occurrences	Signals Abt	Pt	No	By What Ship	To What Ship
1	5	4	E. N. E.	S. E. by S.
2	5	6	N. E. by E. p. E.	S. E.
3	5	"
4	3	-	N. E. p. E.	S. E. by E.
5	5	4	-
6	6	4	-
7	7		Head N. E. to E.
8	8
9						A. M. Moderate & Cloudy W.
10						At 4 St Helena E. by N. p. N.
11						4 or 5 Leagues -
12						At 8 Light Airs inclinable to Calm - Tacked occasionally working up under the lee of the Island -
						At Noon Light breezes &
						equally at times - Prontes in Co.
						P. M. At 2 Saluted Admiral Lockburn with 17 Guns which was returned by the Northum
						-berland. At 4 shortened sail & anchored in 23 fms. off
						James Town - At 4 - 30 Sorton
						Ladder hill saluted with 15 Guns on my going on shore, which was returned by the Newcastle

Bowls	Dist	Latitude	Longitude

His Majesty's Ship Newcastle Tuesday 18th June 1816

Week days	Mo. days	Winds	Place of the Ship at Noon	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals Abt	Pt	No	By What Ship	To What Ship
Tuesday -	18th	S. E.	James Valley	A. M. Mod: breezes & fine At 9 Landed with the Austrian Russian and French Commissioners - under a Salute of 13 Guns. At Noon Mod: & Clear. P. M. 4 made signal for Prontes to take the Guard At 12 Mod: & Cloudy -
Wednesday	19th	S. E.	Newcastle moored off James Valley	A. M. Mod & fine W. At 9 Prontes weighed & anchored off Lemon Valley. At 10 Northumberland weighed - 11 Admiral Cockburn embarked on board her under a Salute of 17 Guns from Ladder Hill At Noon Mod: breezes and Cloudy. P. M. At 1 weighed & warped farther in & anchored in 10 fms. veered away and moored					