His Majesty's Ship Newcastle – Wednesday 7th May 1817

Days of the Week	Mo days	Winds	Run of the Ship at Noon	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals Made	Made	No	By what Ship	To what Ship
Wednesday	7th	S.E.		A.M. Fresh breezes & Cloudy. The Recovery Whaler sailed for England At Noon do weather P.M. do do The Griffon anchored At 12 do weather.
Thursday	8th	S.E		A.M. Fresh breezes & Squally with rain The Leveret anchored. At Noon Squally with rain P.M. do weather At 12 do weather
Friday	9th	S.E	Newcastle Bay off Island	A.M. Fresh breezes & Squally with rain At Noon Mod: breezes & Cloudy At 12 Moderate breezes & Squally with rain
Saturday	10th	S.E		A.M. Moderate breezes & Squally with rain At Noon do weather P.M. do do At 12 do do
Sunday	11th	S.E.		A.M. Moderate breezes and squally with rain At Noon do weather P.M. The Griffon sailed At 12 Fresh breezes & squally
Monday	12th	E.S.E.		A.M. Moderate breezes & rainy At Noon Fresh breezes & squally P.M. do weather The Leveret sailed. At 12 Mod: & rainy weather
Tuesday	13th			A.M. Moderate & Cloudy Noon do weather, with rain at times P.M. do weather At 12 Light Airs.					