CORRESPONDENCE.

File No. 3787.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

SUB-DEPARTMENT CITY COLLECTOR'S OFFICE,

BALTIMORE, MD.

Baltimore. November 21, 1905.

W. Cabell Bruce, Esq.,

City Solicitor.

Dear Sir:-

2950 I have received a notice, of which I enclose you a copy, relating to some real estate that is advertised for sale to enforce the collection of taxes due on the same. It seems to me that this does not give sufficient notice to justify my withdrawing the property from the sale. Please look into the matter and instruct me as to what shall be done about it; shall I discontinue the advertisement of the sale, or go on with it?

Yours truly,

(Signed) Henry Williams,

Collector.

File No. 3787.

LEVIN & HARTOGENSIS,

Baltimore. Nov. 21, 1905.

Henry Williams, Esq.,

City Collector.

Dear Sir:-

Please take notice that by law, the properties Nos. 414 and 416 Falls Street advertised for sale for arrears in taxes, cannot be sold 2951 as they are in litigation (see Prince George's County vs. Clarke, 36 Md. 206).

There are moreover infant defendants in the case which is entitled, Mary Brady, next friend, &c., of Coffray vs. Bridget Dudley, Trustee, etc., in Circuit Court of Baltimore City. I represent the reversionary owner, of which fact take notice. Please advise me that the property has been withdrawn from sale.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) E. H. Hartogensis,

Attorney for Hebrew Education Society.
