SUB-DEPARTMENT
SUPERVISORS OF CITY CHARITIES,
CITY HALL.

Baltimore. November 22,1905.

Hon. W. Cabell Bruce,
City Solicitor,
Baltimore.

Dear Sir:-

Recently a man named Freburger was committed to Bayview for two months on his own application. I enclose copy of the commitment. He was refused admission at our office on the ground that he had relatives able to take care of him. His son, George Freburger, now asks that he be released, stating that he (the son) is able to take care of his father.

2960

Will you kindly advise me whether we have a right to release such a case before the term of the commitment expires, or whether we can take any steps by which the man may be freed? There is no reason why he should stay at Bayview. His release would save the expense of boarding him.

We have cases of this character coming up from time to time, and would be glad to find some way by which committed cases can be let out before their term expires.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) John M. Glenn,
President.
