B. T. Fendall, Esq.,
City Engineer.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to your letter of the 22nd inst., with reference to a 2983 bill for paving a footway sent to Mr. Hugh Caperton, I beg leave to say that in my judgment the bill should be sent to the leaseholder.

Truly yours,
(Signed) W. Cabell Bruce,
City Solicitor.

City Solicitor,
Baltimore.

Dear Sir:-

On the 19th of December 1904, among other lots that were sold for 2984 the non-payment of taxes, was a lot described in the advertisement as No. 3761, and described in the Collector's report of sale herewith sent to you. I file with this letter a plat of the property taken from the books in the Appeal Tax Court. The property sold, on the plat mentioned, extends from C to D, and property 233 on the plat appears to extend from A to C, but the space between A and B is a part of the bed of the
