PROPOSALS,

For Printing by Subscription,

BY

ISAAC COLLINS,

IN TRENTON,

THE

HOLY BIBLE,

CONTAINING

The OLD and NEW TESTAMENT;

WITH THE

Apocrypha and Marginal Notes.

CONDITIONS.

I. This work, to be contained in one large volume, Quarto, of nine hundred and eighty-four pages, will be reprinted page for page with the Oxford edition, on a beautiful new type, and good paper. An index will be added; and also the Scripture measures, weights and coins.

II. The price to subscribers, for the volume, well bound, four Spanish dollars; one dollar to be paid at the time of subscribing, the remainder on delivery of the book.

III. The work to be put to press as soon as three thousand copies shall be subscribed for, and to be finished without delay.

The Editor has been encouraged, by a number of respectable characters, to offer the above proposals to the public, under a conviction that a handsome American edition of the Bible, in Quarto, will, at this time, be both seasonable and acceptable, as no part of the money will go out of the country.

This consideration, it is hoped, will be an inducement to subscribe, and of course promote the more frequent reading of this most invaluable book in private families. He therefore wishes to attract the attention, and obtain the countenance of people of all denominations; not doubting but that, in the execution of the work, he will be able to give ample satisfaction, both as to its accuracy and neatness.

Subscriptions will be received by Hugh Gaine and Edmund Prior, New-York; by Joseph Crukshank and William Young, Philadelphia; by Townsend and Patton, Baltimore; and by the editor in Trenton.

It is requested, that the leading characters of all the different denominations of Christians in the United States, who may feel disposed to promote this undertaking, will, as early as may be, grant their assistance in procuring subscriptions—and that the several printers of news-papers in the union will be pleased to insert the above proposals in their papers.

To all whom it may concern.

☞ Mr. Isaac Collins has, for many years last past, been, and still is, printer to the state of New-Jersey: Having by this means had the more frequent opportunities to see his work, I have had abundant proof of the accuracy and correctness of his publications, as well as of his remarkable attention to business.

WIL. LIVINGSTON.

Trenton, 11th September, 1788.

Kent Island, January 28, 1789.

L O S T,

FROM Broad Creek, which it is supposed was carried off by the ice, the wind being then at north-east, on Monday morning, the 26th instant, a SCOW, nearly new, about twenty feet long, and eight or nine feet wide, her sides are gum. From the wind being at north-east, it is imagined she drifted down towards Talley's or Thomas's Point. FOUR DOLLARS REWARD will be given for bringing her to Broad Creek, Kent-Island, or TWO DOLLARS if delivered at Annapolis, in care of Mr. John Sands, jun.

14 JAMES O'BRYON.

To be LEASED,

SEVERAL LOTS OF GROUND in this city, on the Church circle, and the streets called Tabernacle-street, opposite Mr. James Ringgold's, and Lawyers-street, opposite Mr. John Callahan's. The terms may be known by applying to the subscriber.

JAMES STEWART.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber requests all persons indebted to the estate of HENRY MAY, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, upon bond, note, or open account, to come in and pay their respective balances; also, that all persons having claims against said deceased, will bring them in legally attested, to 9X RICHARD BEARD, jun. Executor.

May 9, 1789.

ON the application of the trustees of ROBERT CRAIG, the 1st day of January next is limitted and appointed by the chancellor for the creditors of the said Robert Craig, to bring in and declare their respective claims to the said trustees, that the same may be on that day liquidated and adjusted; due notice thereof to be published in Mr. Green's and Mr. Goddard's news-papers.

Test. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,

w6 2 Reg. Cur. Can.

RAN away from the subscriber, a young NEGRO MAN, called DAVY, on the 23rd of March, 1789; his dress is an osnabrig shirt, and cotton waistcoat and breeches; it is probable he will change his dress as he has other cloaths; he is an artful, deceiving fellow, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, and stole a large sum of money two or three days before he went off: it is thought he is gone off with his brother, ROBERT JACKSON, who is gone away with Joshua Pearce's wife. Whoever takes up and secures the said negro, shall be entitled to EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.

tf ELIZABETH RAWLINGS.

The beautiful HORSE

R O E B U C K,

WILL cover mares this season at the subscriber's plantation in Charles county, at the low price of five pounds currency per mare, and one dollar to the groom, but if the money is paid when the mare is taken away, three pounds, and one dollar to the groom, will be taken in lieu of the five pounds. It is useless to insert his pedigree as it is well known, but it may be seen at his stable. ROEBUCK's stock is remarkable, both for the turf and saddle, I believe equal to any in the state. Good pasturage is provided for mares that come a distance, at two and six-pence per week, and great care will be taken of them; but I will not be answerable for escapes or accidents. 8w

Charles county, March 26, 1789. 6

VENETIAN,

WILL stand for MARES this season at FRANCIS TOLSON, Esquire's plantation, in Prince-George's county, 5 miles from the ferry opposite Alexandria, at five guineas each mare, and a dollar the groom, or three guineas each mare, and three and nine-pence to the groom, if paid by the first of August, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes.—Good grass for mares at half a dollar per week. Venetian is a fine bay, fifteen hands and an half high, with length and bone in proportion; he was bred by Sir James Pennyman, bart. of Yorkshire, and got by Doge, his dam by Jenniston Shaftoe Snap, sire of Goldfinder, Gnawpost, Dasey and other good runners, his grand-dam by old Fox; Doge was got by Regulus, son of the Godolphin Arabian, his dam by Grab, his grand dam by Dyer's Dimple, which was got by Leed's Arabian. Venetian, at five years old, won the king's plate at Newcastle, and the fifty pounds for all ages, the same week beating Mr. Fenwick's famous mare Spider Brusher, and several others, fifteen days after he won the king's plate at Carlisle, beating lord Surry's famous horse Bon-Mot, and run second to High Flyer at York.

Signed JOHN KIRKTON, Venetian's Jockey.

Thirsk, November 26, 1787. 7

ROMULUS,

A BRIGHT bay, nearly sixteen hands high, remarkably strong, handsome and active, will stand this season at Mount Stewart, near South river church, and cover mares at three pounds, and five shillings to the groom. ROMULUS was got by Sweeper, his dam by the imported Ranger, his grand-dam by Ariel, his great-grand-dam by Othello, out of an imported mare. Good pasturage will be provided for mares at 3/6 per week, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes. WHEAT, CORN, OATS or TOBACCO, will be taken instead of the cash at the present market prices. w4 4X

Charles county, April 6, 1789.

ALL persons having any claims against the estate of JOHN EDEN, senior, Esquire, late of St. Mary's county, deceased, are hereby requested to exhibit the same, that they may be paid; suits will be commenced against all persons indebted to the estate whether on protested bills of exchange, bond, note, open account or otherwise, neglecting and withholding payment, after six weeks notice in the Baltimore and Annapolis papers. 6w

6X WALTER STONE, Admr. de bonis non, of JOHN EDEN, Senior, Esquire.

NORTHERN ECLIPSE,

WILL stand for mares this season at Londontown, near Annapolis, at two guineas each mare, and a dollar to the groom; the money to be sent with the mares. Pasturage for mares at half a dollar per week, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes. This horse is a chestnut, fifteen hands and an inch high, not handsome, but he has some of the best English running blood in his veins, with bone and action. 6w JOHN CRAGGS.

NORTHERN ECLIPSE was got by O'Kelly's famous Eclipse, and out of Ameryllis. Ameryllis was got by Adolphus, son of Regulus, and out of Lodge's roan mare, which was got by Partner (the first and most famous stallion then in England) her dam by Baboon, which was got by Badger, her grand-dam by old Traveller, which was sire to the duke of Cleveland's Dainty Davy, which won successively five gold cups at Richmond in Yorkshire, her great-grand-dam by Snake, then the most capital stallion of his day. This is a true pedigree, as witness my hand.

W. NEWBURN, the Breeder, Cleveland, Yorkshire.

FRIENDSHIP,

A HANDSOME full bred horse, stands this season at the subscriber's plantation, in Prince-George's county, about seven miles from Bladensburg, and the same distance from Snowden's works, and will cover mares at six dollars each; he is a good sorrel, full fifteen hands high, with length and bone in proportion, and is six years old; he was bred by William Mitchel, Esquire, of Virginia, and was got by Apollo, the property of colonel Henry Lee, out of an imported full bred mare. Apollo was got by general Spotswood's noted Apollo. FRIENDSHIP has run two matches, and won both easy. Few horses in this state are equal to him in beauty and form. He covers at half price, owing to the scarcity of cash. tf

CHARLES DUVALL.

N. B. Thirty-five shillings will be received if the money be paid by the first day of September next.

Charles county, April 11, 1789.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of captain JOHN JORDAN, late of Charles county, deceased, are desired to bring the same in to the subscriber legally authenticated, and all persons indebted to said estate are desired to make immediate payment, to 3 JOHN THOMAS, Administrator.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away, from the subscriber's quarter in Loudon county, early in last month, a negro man named GEORGE, he is about 20 years of age, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, his nostrils are remarkably wide; he sometimes complains of a sweat on the bottom of one of his feet, which makes him a little lame; he is a likely sensible fellow: He had on a green jacket and overalls, osnabrig shirt, an old hat, shoes and stockings, and took with him a Dutch blanket, a blue broad cloth coat and breeches, a blue jacket without sleeves, and sundry other cloaths—He has been seen near this town since he ran away. Whoever will apprehend the aforesaid negro, and deliver him to the subscriber, or secure him in any gaol, so that he may be got again, shall receive the above reward, and if taken out of this state and brought home, all charges paid.

Alexandria, Sept. 30, 1788. 24

Annapolis, February 18, 1789.

For SALE,

A PLANTATION, on the north side of Severn river, containing about 400 acres, under good fencing, bounding on the river Severn, about five miles distant from Annapolis, with a very good framed dwelling house, with brick ends and cellar, and very convenient out houses thereon, an orchard of excellent young fruit trees.

A description of the soil, wood, timber and situation, are thought unnecessary, as no person would purchase who would not examine the premises. This property will be sold for any state or continental securities, good assigned bonds, or six years credit on bond with security, upon the regular payment of interest at five per cent. per annum. Apply to 13 JAMES RINGGOLD.

A VENDUE STORE,

IN the house formerly occupied by the late Mr. JOHN JOHNSON, the subscriber to sell by auction (on a low commission) takes in STORE and HOUSEHOLD GOODS of every description. As the situation of the house is in every respect calculated for the business, which, together with his utmost exertions to render every satisfaction on his part, by his punctuality, secrecy, and that dispatch which circumstances will admit of, he hopes to merit the approbation of a discerning public. tf

Who am their's,

Much devoted to please,

3 MICHAEL SHANNON.

N. B. The days of sale will be on Wednesdays and Saturdays, and goods taken in at any time.

Annapolis, May 4, 1789.

THERE is at the plantation of NEHEMIAH MOXLY, living near Crow's mill, in Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a stray, a dark bay HORSE, about eight years old, trots and gallops, shod all round, has a small star in his forehead, not branded, about fifteen hands high, rather low in flesh, and appears to have been foundered. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges. 2

April 30, 1789.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias to me directed by the general court of the western shore of the state of Maryland, will be EXPOSED to SALE, on Saturday the 30th day of May next, at 11 o'clock, forenoon, for cash only,

THE PLANTATION whereon BENJAMIN HOWARD, former collector of one of the districts of Anne-Arundel county, now dwells, containing about 380 acres. The above property taken for the use of the state, by ts
