In CHANCERY, Oct. 26, 1790.

Abraham Larsch, vs. John Basey, son and heir of John Basey, late of Baltimore county, deceased.

THE complainant, ABRAHAM LARSCH, having filed a bill in this court against the defendant, JOHN BASEY, for foreclosing a mortgage on a tract of land, situate in Baltimore county, called BUCK'S PURCHASE, containing one hundred acres, which mortgage is in the said bill alleged to have been made by John Basey, deceased, the father of the defendant, to Valentine Larsch, deceased, father of the complainant, for the sum of sixty-one pounds ten shillings sterling; and the complainant having further alleged in his bill, to which is amened his affidavit of the truth thereof, that the defendant had removed from this state to the state of Virginia, in which he has resided ever since, as the complainant is informed, and believes; and a subpœna, which issued on the said bill, having been returned "non est" by the sheriff of Baltimore county; and legal proof being this day properly certified to this court, that the complainant has caused to be inserted, for twelve weeks successively, in the public news-papers of the state of Virginia, an advertisement for the purpose of giving notice to the defendant of the said bill, and calling upon him to answer the same—it is hereby adjudged and ordered by the chancellor, That the said John Basey, as defendant aforesaid, appear in this court on Tuesday the twenty-first day of December next, for the purpose of answering the said bill, and that a copy of this order be inserted four weeks successively in the Maryland Gazette.

And it is hereby further adjudged and ordered, That if the said defendant shall not, within nine months from the date hereof, appear in this court and answer to the bill aforesaid, the same shall be taken pro confesso, and thereupon such proceeding and decree shall be had and made as the chancellor shall judge proper.

TWENTY DOLLARS Reward.

BROKE out of gaol, in Prince-George's county, the sixth instant, two negro men, supposed to be between 25 and 30 years old each—One of those fellows is well cloathed, about five feet nine or ten inches high, is very black, and writes a reputable hand; he says his name is ISAAC WHITLO, that he is the property of Mrs. Chapman, of Charles county, from whom he absconded about the 20th of September last, with an intention of going to some one of the northern states, where he should be entitled to his freedom.

The other fellow calls himself IGNATIUS SHORTER, says he was claimed by a Mr. Fenwick, of St. Mary's county, but that he is by birth entitled to his freedom; this fellow is, I suppose, about five feet seven or eight inches high, a very dark mulatto, and tolerable well made. Whoever secures the above two fellows in any gaol, or brings them to the subscriber, shall be entitled to the above reward, including what the law allows, and all reasonable charges paid, and in proportion for apprehending either.

EDWARD LLOYD WAILES, Sheriff of Prince-George's county. 1
