AGENT'S OFFICE,
ANNAPOLIS.

THE officers and soldiers of the late Maryland line of the continental army, are hereby informed, that the subscriber is authorised to pay them the balance of pay due in the years 1782 and 1783. Upon application by such claimants for payment, it will be necessary to produce a regular discharge, or a certificate from some reputable officer who served in the Maryland line, or from a magistrate of the county in which the claimant resides. In cases where application for payment shall be made by other persons than the claimants, a power of attorney from them, or their legal representatives, will, in addition to proper proofs of the identity of the claimant, be necessary.

THO. HARWOOD, Agent for the late Maryland line of the continental army.

Upper-Marlborough, June 29, 1792.

COMMITTED to my custody, as a runaway, negro WILL, who says he is the property of Benjamin Burgess, of Calvert county. His master is desired to pay charges and take him away by the 20th day of July next, or he will in ten days thereafter be sold for his fees of imprisonment and other charges.

WILLIAM D. BEALL, Sheriff of Prince-George's county.

June 22, 1792.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a negro boy named GEORGE, says he belongs to Matthias Hardy, of Prince-George's county. The owner of said negro is desired to come, pay charges, and take him away.

HENRY HUNTT, Sheriff of Calvert county.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public in general, and his friends in particular, that he is removed to the house formerly occupied by Robert Madden, Esquire, opposite Messieurs RIDGELY and ANS's Store, Church-street, where he carries on the HAT MANUFACTORY in all its various forms. Merchants may be supplied with any quantity of Hats, on reasonable notice, upon moderate terms. Ladies and Gentlemen may have Hats made upon the shortest information, pursuant to their directions. Said subscriber hopes, by special attention to his business, to merit the favours of all who think him worthy their employ.

JOHN LONG.

N. B. The subscriber further begs leave to inform the public, that he keeps an ELECTRIFYING MACHINE, of which all persons may receive the benefit on the lowest terms. 6 w have for SALE at their STORE in ANNAPOLIS.

A LARGE and general assortment of GOODS, suitable to the present and approaching season, which they will dispose off, on the very lowest terms for CASH, Bills of EXCHANGE, or COUNTRY PRODUCE.

March 20, 1792.

Sixteen Dollars Reward.

RAN away about the 28th of April last, a negro man named PHILL, commonly called Phill Meredith, by some Phill Hooper, about 39 years old, five feet six or seven inches high, well made and extremely active, by trade a carpenter; he can work at the cooper's and shoe-maker's business; has a thick upper lip, speaks quick, and fond of playing on the violin; he has three remarkable scars, one above one of his eye-brows, one on his upper lip, and the third on one of his feet; had on, and carried with him when he went away, a short negro cotton jacket and trowsers, one-brown jeans Russian coat and breeches, a black satinet jacket, nankeen coloured jacket bordered with red, one pair of striped Holland trousers, a pair of cotton and thread do. two pair of boots, one pair of shoes split up the foot and a piece put in, two cotton and thread shirts, two linen do. and one osnabrig shirt, and sundry other cloathing. He is well acquainted with the negroes at Mr. John R. Key's and Mr. Bruce's, in Frederick county, at Mr. Watts's, in Anne-Arundel county, and Mr. Heath's on the eastern shore; it is therefore not unlikely he may attempt to go to one of the above places, particularly to Mr. Key's and Mr. Bruce's, he having a brother and sister living with them. All persons are cautioned against employing or concealing the above described slave, or carrying him out of the state; and whoever will deliver him to the subscriber, commit him to the gaol in Annapolis, or send him to Mr. Samuel Bond, near Piscataway, shall receive the above reward.

RICHARD BOND.

JUST PUBLISHED, and to be sold at the Printing-Office,

The LAWS OF MARYLAND,

Passed at the last Session of assembly,

ALSO,—THE

VOTES and PROCEEDINGS OF BOTH HOUSES.

THERE is at the plantation of RICHARD RAWLINGS, on the Head of South river, taken up as a stray, a bay MARE, about ten years old, thirteen hands high, has a blaze in her face, hanging mane and switch tail, branded on the near buttock W. M. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges.

NOTICE is hereby given,

THAT I intend to petition the general assembly of Maryland, at their next session, to be held at the city of Annapolis, for a discharge from my debts, which I am unable to pay.

JOSIAH RILEY.

Kent county, May 17, 1792.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber will apply to St. Mary's county August court next, for a commission to mark and bound his part of a tract of land called BASHFORD MANOR, lying in St. Mary's county, agreeable to an act, entitled, An act for marking and bounding lands.

GEORGE CARPENTER.

St. Mary's county, May 13th, 1792.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a negro man named BEN, about 23 years of age, says he belongs to William Holmes, of Montgomery county. The owner of said negro is desired to come, pay charges, and take him away.

St. Mary's county, May 22, 1792.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of ATHANASIUS FORD, late of this county, deceased, are requested to bring them in properly authenticated on or before the first day of August next, that a dividend may then be made.

JOHN SMITH, [Patuxent.]

Twelve Dollars Reward.

PEE, a dark mulatto, about 23 years of age, short and well set, quitted my service about the 10th of April last, on pretence of petitioning for his freedom in the general court, and has been seen in Annapolis: had on a blue short coat, striped jacket, cotton overalls, shoes and stockings, but probably may change his dress, and endeavour to pass as a free man by the name of Butler, Shorter or Pemproke. I will give eight dollars for securing him in any gaol so that I may get him again, or the above reward if brought home.

HENRY ROZER.

Notley Hall, Prince-George's county, June 14, 1792.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias from the general court to me directed, will be EXPOSED to PUBLIC SALE, on Friday the 27th day of July, if fair, if not the first fair day, Sunday excepted, for CASH, or any kind of CERTIFICATES at their passing value,

PART of two tracts of LAND adjoining, the one called DEEP CREEK, and the other called FLUSHING, containing about 200 acres; this property is situated about three and an half miles from Annapolis, between Severn and Magothy rivers, a considerable part extends along a creek of the latter; the improvements are, a small dwelling house and a few other convenient buildings, and a most excellent orchard of very choice fruits, and a considerable part well wooded; taken as the property of captain JOHN STEUART and sold to satisfy a debt due to JAMES STEUART, assignee of the state of Maryland. The sale to be at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, on the premises.

WILLIAM GOLDSMITH, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county.

June 26, 1792.

For SALE,

THE plantation whereon the subscriber now dwells, containing 800 acres of valuable level land, lying on the mouth of St. Clement's Bay, in St. Mary's county; this plantation has several never failing springs of excellent water, has a plenty of timber and other wood, the situation is pleasant and healthy, and well improved, the buildings are, a good dwelling house of brick, with all other necessary out houses; this land is enclosed with one short line of fencing, it lies in a good neighbourhood, and for situation, fertility of soil, and other advantages attending this land, it is looked upon as one of the first seats in the county. The terms of sale may be known by applying to
