MANAGERS,

essieurs John Davidson, James Shaw, John Ran- of Annapolis; colonel Uriah Forrest, colonel liam Deakins, of George-town; colonel Peter ille, captain Levin Handy, of Worcester; Gus- s Scott, Alexander Douglass, William S. Bond, ires, of Dorchester; Samuel Chamberlaine, Wil- Hindman, Esquires, of Talbot; colonel William hardson, Peter Edmonson, Esquires, of Caroline; James Hollyday, Esquire, of Queen-Anne's.

The above property in Dorchester county, has been ded to the subscribers by Clement Hollyday, for purpose of redeeming certain notes of hand passed him to sundry persons, in small sums, to the ount of about £.100. As a sale by lottery is the st probable mode of disposing of it to advantage, of acquiring ready money for it, Mr. Hollyday esirous that we should proceed to that method, and t we should receive, and retain in our hands, the ney arising on the sale of the tickets, for the pur- e above mentioned, and also to satisfy sundry of creditors, some of whom have liens on that pro- ty, and who, therefore, no doubt, will acquiesce his mode of disposing of it. The property is d at a moderate valuation. Proper deeds will be uted to those who may be entitled to them after drawing of the lottery, and the cash prizes paid demand. It is intended that the drawing shall mence in the city of Annapolis, on the 22d day October next. Notice will be given of the time, a list of the fortunate numbers published im- diately after drawing.

Wanted,

A HEALTHY active NEGRO WOMAN, who has been accustomed to be employed as a laundress, and can be well recommended; for whom a good price may be had on application to

J. MURRAY.

Annapolis, July 25, 1792. 2 tf

James Robardet,

RETURNS his most grateful sense of gratitude to those ladies and gentlemen who have patronised his DANCING-SCHOOL. He respectfully informs them and the public in general, that a second quarter commenced on Monday the 8th of July. He solicits the patronage of the citizens of this city and adjacent towns, and he shall endeavour by strict attention to his pupils, to give general satisfaction. As it is derogatory to the instruction of his pupils to admit spectators on the school days, he shall, with pleasure, appoint Saturday, every other week, where the parents of his pupils will be gratefully admitted, and no other without an invitation from the master.

If any gentlemen of good deportment are desirous to dance the above-mentioned days, they will be admitted with a lady, and dance, if a sufficient number, after the performance of the scholars, by paying half a dollar to the door-keeper, for the entertainment of the music, &c. Nothing will be provided from the master but the music and light.

His terms will be made known at his school room—He is to be heard of at Mrs. BREWER's. 3X

Port-Tobacco, July 19, 1792.

Agreeable to an order of the orphan's court of Charles county, will be sold, to the highest bidder, at Port-Tobacco, in Charles county, on Saturday the 15th day of September next,

A QUANTITY of TOBACCO, from fifty to one hundred hogsheads, belonging to the estate of WILLIAM SMALLWOOD, Esquire, deceased.

——ALSO,——

Will be sold, in like manner, agreeable to a further order of the said court, at the late dwelling plantation of the said William Smallwood, Esquire, deceased, on Mattawoman, on Tuesday the 20th day of November next, the whole of the personal estate of the said William Smallwood, Esquire, in Maryland, consisting of sundry valuable negroes, men, women and children; stock of horses, black cattle, sheep and hogs; house and kitchen furniture, of every kind; among which are two elegant side-tables, on the most fashionable construction, for the reception of plate, &c. a set of mahogany dining-tables and chairs; a quantity of the most fashionable solid and French plate; an elegant coach, new, with harness for four horses; some corn and wheat, and plantation utensils of different kinds, with several other articles. Both the above sales to be for ready money, and if the days appointed should prove bad, will be postponed to the next fair days succeeding.

WILLIAM CRAIK, Attorney in fact
FOR PRISCELLA HEBBERT SMALLWOOD,
Administratrix of William Smallwood, Esquire, deceased.

THE subscriber wants to purchase a considerable quantity of merchantable RYE, for which he will give a generous price when delivered at the Indian-Landing; or he will receive it in considerable quantities at any good landing on the waters of Magothy, Severn, or South-River.

HENRY H. DORSEY.

Indian-Landing, 20th July, 1792. 2

Annapolis, July 17, 1792.

ALL persons who are indebted to the estate of ROBERT COUDEN, Esq; late of this city, are desired to make payment to the subscriber, and those who have claims against the said estate, if any there be, are requested to exhibit them for payment.

3 J. H. STONE, Administrator.

TAKEN up a drift by the subscriber, on the 25th of June, 1792, between Rock-Point and the Bodkin in Patapsco-river, a BATTEAU, twenty-four feet long, five feet eight inches wide. The owner is requested to come, prove his property, pay charges, and take her away.

3X WILLIAM PENINGTON.

Eight Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 12th inst. a negro man named WILL, about 23 years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high; had on, when he went away, a round felt hat, osnabrig shirt and trousers, and a coarse cloth over jacket, short and round, he had other cloaths with him, which cannot well be described, he is likely, of a very dark complexion, full faced, and has a remarkable fine set of teeth, he is slow of speech, and rather awkward in his manners, is a tolerable good blacksmith, but has never worked as foreman of a shop; he was formerly the property of Henry May, late of this county, blacksmith. This fellow was taken out of gaol at Alexandria, in Virginia, about eight days ago, but has since made his escape; when he was apprehended he had a forged pass in his possession, and it is expected he may have procured another. Whoever takes up the said negro and brings him to me, or secures him in any gaol so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

6 RICHARD BEARD.

N. B. It is probable this fellow may endeavour to pass for a free man, as there are many free blacks passing about the country; when he went to Alexandria his intention was to have made his escape by water, I therefore forewarn all masters of vessels, and others, from harbouring or concealing him at their peril, if they should they may expect to be dealt with agreeably to law.

R. B.

Anne-Arundel county, June 20, 1792.
