Be it known to all men that I John Lee Webster of Spesutia in Harford County being desirous to make some alterations in my will by way of a Codicil hereby and hereto annexed to my said will bearing date the 1st day of March in the present year one thousand seven hundred and ninety five I therefore do hereby make and declare this said Codicil to be a part of this my said will and every thing therein contained to be of as much virtue and effect as altho the same had been or was contained in the body of said will any thing to the contrary notwithstanding. Whereas the devise heretofore given to my son Isaac Lee Webster (being very material short in value to the estate given to his brother John provided they should both live to arrive to age and enjoy the same. I therefore hereby give and devise in addition to the former devise the principle sum still remaining due of a bond from Collonel William Fitzhugh and Col. George Plater the sum being about one thousand pounds sterling) to be paid him when he arrives to age. The interest arising on said bond untill that time to belong to my estate. I also give to my two little Nephews John Sewell and Thomas Sewell when they or either of them may be discharged out of their apprenticeship by their master Joshua Husband the sum of one hundred dollars each or in case of either of them death to the survivor of them his said one hundred dollars to him or them their heirs and assigns forever. Also I give to my tender sister Elizabeth Robertson as a small token of my love and acknowledgment for her tender kindness to me the annual sum of five pounds current money during her life. Whereas in the foregoing will provision has not been made authorising my executors to make over and convey any of my lands heretofore sold. I do therefore hereby authorize and empower my son John Skinner Webster heir at law and one of the executors of this my said will when reasonably called or required thereto after. after due Council had to make over and convey by good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance in fee any estate or lands heretofore sold by me whatsoever agreeable to the authenticated writings which may legally require the same on receiving the full consideration of said sales or the balances of the remaining unpaid agreeable to the time (meaning of such said writings as also full power to make over by deed any lands that may be sold by my executors by virtue of the authority given them in the body of my will on receiving full consideration as aforesaid and in all things both in law and justice to make over and transfer agreeable to the authority meant and intended to be given by this my will as I could or would do were I personally present and requested thereto anything to the contrary notwithstanding. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal to this said Codicil being part of my last will

The following nuncupative will of John Lee Webster late of Harford County deceased declared by word of mouth on the eighth day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety five being then sick of the sickness whereof he died in the presence of us the subscribers who signed our names as witnesses thereof which words so spoken were as follows or to that substance

First that his will was that his negro girl Becky might be given to her mother. That there is an account open for Johnny (meaning) his son intended to see what his expences would be in Baltimore for a year but I do not intend it should stand against him separately but that the charges be paid and charged to plantation account. That he desired fifty pounds might be given to his brother Isaac to buy him a horse and any open account that he had against said brother might be given him. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this twelfth day of June Anno domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety five
