Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the ſubſcriber, living near the mouth of Patapſco, on the 2d day of December, a negro man named ISAAC, about twenty-three years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, very well set; had on when he went away, a pair of new ſeſey breeches, an old elaſtic cloth coat, a pair of ſtockings and ſhoes, and a coarſe felt hat; but it is likely he will change his cloaths, as he is an artful fellow; it is ſuppoſed that he will make his eſcape by water, as he was brought up to it. Whoever takes up and ſecures the ſaid fellow, ſo that the owner gets him again, ſhall receive, if within the county, eight dollars, if out of the county ſixteen dollars, and if twenty miles out, the above reward, with reaſonable charges if brought home, paid by

THE creditors of the eſtate of the late general WILLIAM SMALLWOOD, deceaſed, are informed that the twentieth day of February next is appointed for a dividend, at Port-Tobacco, of the money ariſing from the ſale of the perſonal property of the ſaid eſtate, before which day all claims are requeſted to be preſented, properly authenticated, to the ſubſcriber, in Port-Tobacco, who is legally authoriſed to receive the ſame and pay their reſpective proportions.

I HEREBY forewarn all perſons whatever from hunting with either dog or gun on any part of the land whereon I now live, as I am determined to proſecute all ſuch offenders as the law directs.

BRICE J. WORTHINGTON.

January 15, 1793. 2

THE ſubſcriber propoſes, in the enſuing ſpring, to have a number of STAVES, of different kinds, made on his land, ſituated about eight miles from George-town, and five from Bridge-town, at the head of Cheſter, Kent county, in this ſtate, and about eight miles from Duck-creek, in the ſtate of Delaware. He wiſhes to put the buſineſs into the hands of a careful and experienced perſon, who is to procure ſuch workmen under him as may be neceſſary, can give good ſecurity, if required, for any engagements he may enter into, and will prepare the STAVES for whatever market they are intended for, at his own expence. He would prefer paying the perſon he contracts with a certain proportion of the net profits ariſing from the ſale of the ſtaves, to giving a fixed price. As ſome parts of the timber will not anſwer for ſtaves, but may ſuit for ſhip-building, he means to have ſuch parts prepared for that purpoſe. Any perſon inclined to undertake the buſineſs, is requeſted to make known his propoſals, in writing, between this and the 10th day of March next.

He will alſo diſpoſe of a number of TREES, ſtanding, if a generous offer is made.
