General Clairfayt has revenged this check, and completely defeated a large body of the French, taking 24 pieces of cannon, and killed 2000 on the spot. The prince Saxe Cobourg invested Maubeuge. This is a hasty sketch of perusal of the Gazette, the number killed, &c. is accurate, having taking them down from the return.

July 16. We have authentic accounts that the books and papers of the London corresponding societies have been siezed by the ministry; that several of the principal characters have been under examination, and that Mr. Horne Tooke has been arrested. Reports by the way of Lisbon and the West-Indies say that Mr. Fox and some members of parliament are arrested and committed to the Tower. It is probable this event will prove true, as it is necessary for government to try its strength with the reformists. The violence and oppressions of the British government have for a long time been raising an opposition, and their late proceedings in cases of libels cannot fail to bring that opposition to a crisis.

ANNAPOLIS, July 17.

Captain Low, of the ship George, arrived at Baltimore in 49 days from Liverpool, informs, that a few days before he sailed the French fleet, which sailed some time since from the Chesapeake, had safe arrived in France, with the loss of two or three sail which were missing, and no positive accounts given of them; that the French were every where successful; that two or three days previous to his sailing news had reached England of the American embargo; that there were great apprehensions of an embargo being laid there, and that he consequently hasted away with all possible speed.

THE subscriber would dispose of, upon moderate terms, for READY CASH, a small TRACT of LAND, in Charles county, and in the neighbourhood of Newport and Chaptico, about six miles from each place, containing about one hundred and fifty-five acres, the greatest part of which is cleared and under good fence: The buildings and other improvements are good and convenient, and the water salubrious and pleasant. He deems it unnecessary to be farther particular, as it is to be presumed that any person inclining to purchase would wish to view the premises, where they may be informed of the terms, and other interesting circumstances, by their ready and obedient servant,

HATCH DENT, clk.

Charles county, July 5, 1794.

N. B. Should the above land be not sold privately before the first day of September next, it will then be offered to the highest bidder, at public sale, with some stock of various kinds, and a few articles of good houshold furniture. H. D.

We flatter ourselves that, from serving a regular apprenticeship to the different branches of business, and working in different shops in the United States, we are perfect masters of our business. Any commands from the country will be thankfully received and punctually attended to, by the public's humble servants,

One Guinea Reward.

STEPHEN, (who sometimes is by his connexions called STEPHEN BRADLEY) a black man about five feet seven inches high, and appears to be about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, a likely plausible fellow, rather of a shining black, ran away from the subscriber, on the nineteenth June last, who has been informed that Stephen has a father, who is a preacher, and lives with Mr. HUMPHREY BELT, near Upper-Marlborough, and that Stephen, also, sometimes preaches. He was brought into Virginia by colonel Mercer, who had him from Mr. Richard Sprigg, near Annapolis, where it is likely he may now be, unless he should be in the neighbourhood of Marlborough, amongst his relations. The above reward will be paid by the subscriber, to any person who secures said fellow, and gives immediate information, so that he may be got again, and all reasonable charges paid, if brought home.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subsciber, living at the mouth of Magothy, about three weeks ago, a negro man named ISAAC, about twenty years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, well made and very active, talks boldly, unless when sharply interrogated, for then he is apt to hesitate and seem embarrassed; he had on and took with him a short jacket and pair of breeches made of kersey, a pair of cotton stockings, and new shoes, a high crowned hat, with a small rent in it, two German linen shirts, and a pair of striped trousers; has lately been seen lurking about between Magothy and Severn, and will probably endeavour to steal a boat and cross the bay. I will give the above reward to any person who will apprehend and bring home the said negro man.

JOHN GIBSON, jun.

Anne-Arundel county, July 12, 1794.

RAN away from the subscriber, living at the lower ferry of Patapsco, some time in June past, a bright mulatto man named GEORGE, about twenty years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, with long bushy wool, he is very fond of strong drink, and when in liquor is very talkative; his cloathing is unknown; he has rowed in the ferry boat at the lower ferry of Patapsco these five or six years, and is known by a great number of people that have crossed that ferry. Whoever takes up said runaway, and secures him in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive SIX DOLLARS REWARD, and if brought home all reasonable charges, by

THE Printers earnestly requests all persons indebted to them to pay off their respective balances as speedily as possible; this being absolutely necessary to enable them to prosecute their business, a neglect will compel them to pursue disagreeable measures.

The subscriber purposes to attend Saint Mary's county court at the next term, and begs those indebted in that county to be prepared to pay up their arrears at that time; the accounts against all who do not comply, will be put into the hands of a collector, with directions to compel payment in every instance, without respect. Attendance will also be given at Port-Tobacco, during the next court for Charles county, and it is hoped all sums due the Printers in that county will be paid by that time to Mr. J. C. Dixon, who is authorised to receive them, or directions will be given as above. 2

RAN AWAY, on Wednesday the 26th of March, from the subscriber, living at Allen's Fresh, a bright mulatto slave named PHILL CARTER, about twenty-four or twenty-five years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, has a small scar on his forehead, a round face, full of pimples, his ankles crack very much when he walks, he has been accustomed to attend on horses, and waiting about a house; had on and took with him a new parson's gray cloth coat, with three buttons on each of the sleeves and pockets, a striped waistcoat, and satinet breeches, mixt stockings, new coarse shoes, and a round hat, also a striped coat, buff casimer jacket and breeches; he stole before he went off a large sum of money, and on the 18th of April he came to my plantation and stole a small sorrel mare, big with foal, branded on her left thigh thus, W. about twelve hands high. I am informed he has passed as a free man, and has sold goods, and said that he traded to Alexandria, George-town, and Annapolis; it is very possible that he is gone to Baltimore, as his father is living there on Howard's Hill, and is a drayman, his name is JAMES CARTER. Whoever apprehends the said negro and mare, so that I get them again, shall receive the above reward. SIXTEEN DOLLARS will be given for the negro, and, if brought home, all reasonable charges paid.
