Forty Dollars Reward,

Ranaway from the farm of the subscriber, on South river, in Anne Arundel county, about the 21st of April last, a negro woman named Milly, of a dark complexion, about five feet six or seven inches high, stout and strong in her make, has large and thick lips, slow in speech, and mild and placid in her manner of conversing. She is 38 or 39 years of age. She has a brother by the name of Josh, formerly the property of Judge Chase, and at present I am informed in the possession of Mr. Philip Thomas, living on Thomas's point near Annapolis, by whom I have reasons to believe she is either harboured, or has been furnished with a pass having understood that Josh can read and write. She has also near relations belonging to the estate of the late Daniel Clarke, of Prince Georges county. I will give the above reward if the said woman be apprehended in Anne-Arundel or Prince George's county, and $50 if elsewhere, so that I get her again,

Chancery Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the chancery court of Maryland, passed in the cause of Absalom Ridgely and Sarah Woodfield against George W. Higgins, will be exposed to public sale, at the residence of said Higgins, on Monday the 19th day of February next,

A tract or parcel of land called Dorvall's Range, containing 281 acres more or less, lying and being in Anne-Arundel county. It is deemed unnecessary to give a further description of the said land, as it is presumed those who wish to purchase will view the same previous to the sale. Also will be sold at the same time a number of sheep and cattle, and two valuable negro men, one a carpenter and joiner, the other a cooper and sawyer.

Terms of Sale.

The purchaser of the land to give bond, with good security, to the trustee, for payment of the purchase money within twelve months from the day of sale, with interest thereon. The purchaser of the personal property to pay cash on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof by the chancellor. On payment of the whole purchase money, the subscriber is authorised to give a deed for the same. Sale to commence at 12 o'clock.
