Daily Line of Stages to ANNAPOLIS.

The subscriber thankful for that share of support which he has received from his friends and the community at large, in the line of his profession, and wishing to render his establishment more generally useful, has determined to run a daily line of Stages to and from Annapolis.

The carriages which will be employed in this attempt are his light elegant Coaches, which from their compactness will render those of his fellow-citizens who may incline to favour his attempt unusually comfortable.

The Coaches will start from the Shakespeare Tavern, Baltimore, at half past eight o'clock, EVERY MORNING, and calling at Towson's Tavern, Sign of General Washington, Gay-street, & Barney's Fountain Inn, Light-street, arrive at Brewer's Tavern, Annapolis, to dine—returning, leave Brewer's Tavern, Annapolis, EVERY MORNING, at half past eight o'clock, and calling at Mrs. Robinson's Boarding house, arrive in Baltimore to dine.

Seats for Annapolis to be taken at the Shakespeare Tavern, corner of East and Lemmon-sts opposite the New Theatre—and in Annapolis, for Baltimore, at the Post Office, near Brewer's Tavern.

FARE THREE DOLLARS.

TAVERN.

REZIN D. BALDWIN,

Respectfully informs the public, that he has opened a Tavern and Boarding-House, at that well known stand occupied for many years by Capt. James Thomas. Its vicinity to the State-House will at all times render it the most convenient resort to strangers having business to transact in any of the public offices. Those who may be inclined to patronize the establishment are assured that the best accommodations are provided, and the most unremitting attention shall be paid to his guests. This establishment having been always the resort of gentlemen from the Eastern Shore, it is hoped that they will continue to frequent it; and so far as attention, good fare, and moderate rates can support the character of an establishment so well known, he pledges himself they shall not be wanting Boarders taken by the day, week, month or year, and horses taken at livery.

N. B. Private parties can be accommodated with Terrapins or Oysters at the shortest notice.

Dec. 25.

20 Dollars Reward.

The above reward will be paid for lodging in gaol, or bringing home negro Sophia, a bright mulatto woman, about eighteen years old, well grown, she has large grey eyes, and her hair rather light. The above woman ran away from Col. Waring of Mount-Pleasant, about the 15th June, (of whom I purchased her.) She has been heard of in the neighbourhood of Mr. William Tillard's near Pig-Point, where it is supposed she has been waiting to get a passage in the packet to Baltimore She has acquaintances in Baltimore, Washington, Annapolis, and Norfolk. Her cloathing not recollected, excepting a green stuff frock.

Annapolis, Jan. 8.

JAMES PRICE,

Attorney at Law, has just published A Familiar Explanation of the Law of Wills and Codicils, and of the Law of Executors and Administrators, with the Rules whereby estates both real and personal descend, and are to be distributed in case no will be made, and instructions to every man to make his own will, the necessary form for that purpose, and the forms of other instruments relative to the estates of deceased persons. The whole written as much as possible without the use of hard words or terms.

The original work, whence this compilation is derived, was written and published chiefly intended for the benefit of those who are unacquainted either with the doctrines or the forms of law, and who wish to be instructed how to act without subjecting themselves to the necessity of communicating the knowledge of their private concerns to any other person. This, among other considerations, has induced the author to compile this treatise, that a book may be always at hand, to which immediate application may be had in those cases of emergency, when every moment is precious; and by means whereof many at least of those mistakes and omissions now daily committed may be avoided, law suits prevented, and the peace of families thereby secured. The compiler has in connexion with the original work, and in order to render the present system the more complete, incorporated therein that portion of the law of this state which is applicable to the estates of deceased persons, and subjoined thereto a digest of the testamentary laws.

This work may be had at this office, at Mr. George Shaw's book store in this city, and at the book store of Mr. Coale, Baltimore.

The editors of the American & Federal Gazette are requested to insert the above in their respective papers once a week for the space of six weeks.

Annapolis, Oct. 16. tf.

By His Excellency Charles Ridgely, of Hampton, Esquire, Governor of Maryland,

A PROCLAMATION.

The innumerable mercies with which it hath pleased Almighty God to crown our beloved Country, during the past year, cannot fail to excite the liveliest emotions of thankfulness in every heart. At no period have the inexhaustible riches of Divine Benevolence been more signally displayed; Peace, and in her attendant train, all that can advance the prosperity of our Country, strengthen and inviolably maintain our free institutions, & elevate to the loftiest height the glory of our National Character; Plenty, liberally rewarding the toils of Industry, from the horn of her abundance; Science and the Arts directing genius, to whatever can improve and ameliorate the condition of mankind; Religion extending her mild and peaceful sway throughout the borders of the land, and shedding her benignant influence upon the public morals & manners; these are chief among the blessings which demand a People's gratitude to the Divine and munificent Author of them.

In these mercies the good People of the State of Maryland have abundantly participated; the wounds inflicted upon her prosperity by the ravages of war, are already healed; Agriculture repays with rich abundance the honest industry of her sons; her Commerce whitens every sea, and renders the remotest quarters of the globe tributary to her wealth & power; while her Manufactures carry her forward to the proudest anticipations of real independence. In the full and unrestrained enjoyment of these, and other blessings, it is meet that we remember with grateful hearts, the divine source from whence they all proceed, that we offer unto the Lord, thanksgiving and praise for all his mercies towards us, acknowledge our dependence on his bounty, implore pardon for our unworthiness, and pay our vows of renewed love and obedience

Actuated by these sentiments, and confidently relying on the general concurrence of the good People of the State of Maryland, I have thought fit to issue this Proclamation, recommending Thursday the 12th day of February next, to be observed and kept as a day of Public Thanksgiving and Prayer, for all the blessings vouchsafed unto us by the beneficent Lord and Governor of the Universe.

Given under my hand, and the seal of the State of Maryland, this fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

C. RIDGELY, of Hampton.

By His Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

Ordered, That the aforegoing Proclamation be published daily in all the newspapers in this State.
