BY-LAW.

An Ordinance for the division of the City of Annapolis into four equal Wards, for the City Constables.

Passed April 11, 1831.

BE it established and ordained by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Annapolis, That the City of Annapolis be divided into the following four wards, to wit—The first ward to comprise all that part of the City from Prince George's street, including the said street and the College lot, and all to the North East of the said street. The second ward, that space between the said Prince George's street and up, and including Church street and North West street intersecting the Church circle. The third ward to commence on the West side of the Church circle, running down Doctor's street to the head of Acton's creek, following the course of said creek to commencement of Church street at the dock. And the fourth ward to include West street, and the remainder of said city and precincts to the westward limits thereof.

SEC. 2. And be it established and ordained by the authority aforesaid, That each of the said wards shall be attended to and visited by one of the City Constables, as hereinafter directed, that is to say, that Alexander Todd shall visit and attend to the first ward; Richard Williams shall visit and attend to the second ward; Thomas Gardiner shall visit and attend to the third ward; and that John Lark shall visit and attend to the fourth ward: Provided always, That if, on any special emergency, any inhabitant shall have occasion to send for, or it comes to the knowledge of any or either of the said Constables, that any tumult or riot is existing, and requires his attention, it shall be his duty immediately to attend for the purpose of quelling such tumult or riot, and to keep the peace, although it may not be within his or their ward at the time, according to the allotment directed as aforesaid.

D. CLAUDE, Mayor.

CHANCERY SALE.

BY virtue of a decree of the court of chancery the subscriber will expose to Public sale, on Tuesday the 21st day of June next, if fair, if not the next fair day thereafter, at McCawley's Tavern, Elk Ridge landing.

The Real Estate of Tobias Reynolds deceased, consisting of a tract or parcel of land called Caple's Fancy, and part of Walker's Inheritance, containing about 130 acres; also a other tract called, "Poplar Spring Garden," containing about 82½ acres; and part of a tract called Walker's Inheritance, containing about [illegible] acres, lying near Elk Ridge Landing, on Ellicott's Furnace. There is on these lands a number of choice fruit trees, and a great quantity of fine young timber, with good springs and streams of water.

TERMS OF SALE.

One half of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, or the ratification thereof, and the other half to be paid within 12 months from the day of sale, with interest, to be secured by bond with approved security. On the ratification of the sale, and payment of the purchase money, the subscriber is authorised to execute a deed. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock. LOUIS GASSAWAY, Trustee.

$50 REWARD

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, in the Holydays, Negro man without any provocation whatever. He is tolerably black, 22 or 23 years of age, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, very square built, limps a little in his walk, (occasioned, as he states, by the bite of a snake,) hesitates a little before a reply when spoken to, also turning his head a little to one side, and then talks quick, looking generally towards the ground. His clothing cannot be correctly described, but believe he wore away a black suit, with a black fur hat. Daz is an uncommon artful fellow, and is good at making out a good tale to excuse himself from charge.

He was bought of the late Chancellor John [illegible]'s estate in 1825, who had purchased him from the estate of Mr. Higgins, of Anne-Arundel county. He has a very general acquaintance, especially in and about Annapolis and Baltimore; has a brother named Sam, living with Mr. Oliver on Elk Ridge; at some of those places he will likely call on his way probably to Pennsylvania. I have reason to believe that he has obtained a forged pass of some sort, or has carried with him either carpenter's or shoemaker's tools as a passport, he being a pretty good rough workman he will likely attempt to make himself off as free and a mechanic.

The above reward will be given if taken over twenty-five miles from my residence, or twenty-five dollars for that distance or under, and secured in any jail so that I get him again.

BASIL D MULLIKIN,

☞ The Editors of the American, Baltimore; National Intelligencer, Washington; Citizen, Hagerstown, York Intelligencer, Pa. to publish the above Staw3w and forward their accounts to me through the Good Luck Post Office, Prince-George's county. B. D. MULLIKIN.

IN CHANCERY,
May 23d, 1831.

ORDERED, That the sale of the real estate of Edward Baldwin, made and reported by the trustee, Grafton B. Duvall, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause be shewn to the contrary before the 23d day of July next, provided a copy of this order be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the newspaper, before the 23d day of June next. The report states the amount of sales to be $660 00.
