THE NEW-YORKER.
UNDER this title, a new Literary Journal, of the largest imperial size, was issued by the subscribers on Saturday, the 22d of March. Its leading features are as follows:
"THE NEW YORKER" is equal in size and execution to any of the literary weeklies of this city, and at the same time afforded at a much lower rate than the cheapest of them.—It will combine more completely than any of its immediate rivals the distinguishing characteristics of a literary journal with those of a regular and systematic chronicle of passing events. In short, it is designed to commend itself as a general newspaper, alike acceptable to the lover of literature, the devotee of business, and the gleaner of intelligence. It will contain—
I. LITERATURE OF THE DAY—embracing Reviews of New Publications, Original Tales, Essays, Poems, &c. with selections from the whole range of English and American periodical literature.
II. GENERAL INTELLIGENCE—comprising the current news of the day, foreign and domestic, whether civil or political—carefully avoiding, however, the least semblance of partisan bias in politics and confining strictly to the presentation of a general and impartial account of the movements of all parties wherever, without discrimination and without the exertion of personal preference.
Should this journal receive the approbation and the support of the public, the undersigned pledge themselves to spare no exertions nor expense to render its literary character and general interest at least equal to those of its contemporaries; and, whatever may be the measure of their encouragement, they confidently assert that it shall be excelled by few in quantity of matter, or in the variety and originality of its contents.
H. GREELEY & CO.
New York, March 22, 1834.
 The New Yorker has no connection whatever with an ephemeral sheet with the same title, which was published last season; but, in order to free our good name from all opprobrium, we hereby agree to send our paper GRATUITOUSLY to all the patrons of that concern for the whole term for which they have paid the publisher thereof.
Office 114 Fulton street.

CONDITIONS.
THE NEW YORKER is published every Saturday morning, on a large imperial sheet containing twenty four wide and closely printed columns, and forwarded to its patrons, wherever in the city or country, at the rate of TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. When payment is delayed till the end of the second quarter, fifty cents will be added.
Any person procuring us six subscribers in the country and forwarding $10 free of postage, will be entitled to the remainder for his trouble, and in the same proportion for a larger number. Companies uniting in a remittance will be supplied on the same terms.
Postmasters, Booksellers, and General Agents for the circulation of periodicals are respectfully solicited to interest themselves in our behalf, and are hereby assured that they shall in all cases receive the highest remuneration which the low price of our paper will enable us to give.

The following is the Advertisement of the London Publisher:
UNIFORM IN SIZE WITH DR. LARDNER'S CYCLOPÆDIA, THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, &c.
PRICE ONLY THREE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE.
On the 1st of January, 1834, will be published Vol. I. of a Series of the Standard Theological Works of England, under the general title of
THE SACRED CLASSICS,
OR, CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY:
With an original introductory Essay to each Author.
EDITED BY
THE REV. RICH'D. CATTERMOLE, B. D.
AND
THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.
NO other country is so rich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines, in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation; while her Divines have been distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.
The soundness of character thus given to our standard Theology of England has, through a variety of circumstances, been its only preservative from degenerating into the lifelessness of scholasticism; and thus the whole tone of our 'Sacred Classics,' is a well of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as the most learned student.
It is intended to comprise in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labours have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the temporal interests of individuals or to the order and well being of society. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morality, and Evidences of Christianity, which have received the permanent stamp of general approbation; select Sermons of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography; and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed each other in the order which may be judged most conducive to the benefit and gratification of the reader.
To the productions of each author, or to such separate production, as the case may require, will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, pointing out their characteristic excellencies; and in some instances, comprehending a biographical sketch of the Author, with remarks on the state of religion in his times.
It is the design of the Proprietors, in undertaking the CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY, to present it, from time to time, to the public at such a price, that to whom it purchases at present the cheapest of ephemeral productions, may, for the same money, possess himself of works which cannot fail to afford him guidance and support in the most great exigencies of his being.
The work will be handsomely printed in Foolscap 8vo. on good paper, well pressed, neatly bound in Morocco Cloth, lettered; and published (in Volumes of about 400 pages each) on the first day of every month.
PRICE, FIVE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE:
Forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.
The following names of Authors whose works are intended for publication is submitted in evidence of the impartiality of the selection:—
Jeremy Taylor, Barrow, Boyle, Baxter, Owen, Cudworth, Thomas à Kempis, Burnet, Howe, Butler, Wesley, Bunyan, Fleetwood, Doddridge, South, Bull, Hammond, Barrow, Tillotson, Sherlock, Jortin, Farindon, Horsley, Hall, Stillingfleet, Porteus, Locke, Leighton, Cave, Cockburn, Hale, Jewel, Jackson, Flavel, Charnock, Wesley, Skelton, Watts, Lowth, Jennine, Waterland, Whitefield, Bogue, Parson, Ken, Newton, Stanhope, Walker, Hammond, Burkett, Herbert, Donne, Merrick, &c. &c.
Vol. I. (to be published on the 1st of January,) will contain
THE LIBERTY OF PROPHESYING by Jeremy Taylor—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Richard Cottermole, B. D.
Vol. II. (to be published on the 1st of February) will contain
