GEO. BRUCE & CO.

New York, March 22, 1834.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
Annapolis, March 15, 1834.

ORDERED, That the Clerk of the Council cause to be published in two Newspapers in the city of Baltimore, in two Newspapers in the city of Annapolis, in two Newspapers in each county where there are two papers published and in one paper in each county where but one paper is published, the act, entitled, "An act in aid of a act, entitled, "An act in aid of a description of property under certain circumstances."

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
Annapolis, March 20th, 1834.

IN compliance with the foregoing order, I request the editors of the following Newspapers, viz: the Republican and Gazette, at Annapolis; the Patriot and Chronicle, in Baltimore; the Examiner and Herald, at Frederick; the Union Light and Herald, at Hagerstown; the Cavalier and Advocate, at Cumberland; the Journal and Free Press, at Rockville; the Citizen and Republican, at Bel-Air; the Banner, at Upper Marlborough; the Republican, at Easton; the Courier, at Port Deposit; the Eagle, at Chestertown; the Times, at Centreville; the Gazette and Whig, at Easton; the Chronicle, at Cambridge; the Herald, at Princess Anne; and the Messenger, at Snow Hill; to publish the act designated in said order, once a week for three weeks.

THOS. CULBRETH, Clk.
Of the Council.

ACT.

An act, entitled, an act making it penal to sell a certain description of property, under certain circumstances.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That whenever an action of replevin shall be brought in this State, and the property in dispute shall be any mulatto, negro, or negro slave, it shall not be lawful for either plaintiff or defendant, or any other person, in whose possession such mulatto, negro, or negro slave shall be, to sell such mulatto, negro, or negro slave, until such action of replevin shall first have been determined: and any sale thus made shall be void, unless upon order of the Court authorising such sale be first said and obtained.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That every person, his, or her counsellors, aiders, or abettors, who shall be duly convicted of selling or transporting such mulatto, negro, or negro slave, beyond the limits of this State, before the final decision of said action of replevin, or without an order of the Court as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of felony and shall be sentenced to undergo a confinement in the Penitentiary for a period of time not less than two nor more than ten years, to be treated as the law directs; Provided nevertheless, this second section shall not extend to any person or persons, who by the finding of the jury in such action of replevin, shall be determined to be the rightful owner or owners of such mulatto, negro, or negro slave.

THE SACRED CLASSICS.

THE subscriber has made arrangements to republish as fast as they are received from England, Series of the standard Theological works of England, under the general title of

THE SACRED CLASSICS,
OR
CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY.

With an original introductory essay to each author. Edited by RICHARD COTTERMOLE, B. D. and the Rev. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

The following is the Advertisement of the London Publisher:

UNIFORM IN SIZE WITH DR. LARDNER'S CYCLOPÆDIA, THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, &c.

PRICE ONLY THREE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE.

On the 1st of January, 1834, will be published Vol. I. of a Series of the Standard Theological Works of England, under the general title of

THE SACRED CLASSICS,
OR, CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY:

With an original Introductory Essay to each Author.

EDITED BY
THE Rev. RICH'D. CATTERMOLE, B. D.
AND
THE Rev. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

"Our country is so rich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Ports and Pulpits have shared with her Divines, in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation: while her Divines have been distinguished also by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

The soundness of character thus given to the standard Theology of England has, thro' a variety of circumstances, been happily prevented from degenerating into the harshness of scholasticism; and thus the whole series of our "Sacred Classics" is a well of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as to the most learned student.

It is intended to comprise in this collection the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose efforts have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the immortal interests of individuals, or to the order and well being of society. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morality, and Evidences of Christianity, which have received the permanent stamp of general approbation; select Sermons of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography; and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed each other in the order which may be judged most conducive to the benefit and gratification of the reader.

To the productions of each author, or to such separate production, as the case may seem to require, will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, pointing out their characteristic excellencies; and, in some instances, containing a biographical sketch of the Author, with remarks on the state of religion in his times.

It is the desire of the Proprietors, in undertaking THE CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY, to present the collection to the public at such a price, that he who purchases at present the cheapest of ephemeral publications, may, for the same money, possess himself of works which cannot fail to afford him guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life.

The work will be handsomely printed in Foolscap 8 vo. on good paper, cold pressed, neatly bound in Morocco Cloth, lettered; and published (in Volumes of about 400 pages each) on the first day of every month.

Price, Three Shillings and Sixpence:
Forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.

The following names of Authors whose works are intended for publication is submitted in evidence of the impartiality of the selection:—

Jeremy Taylor, Bates, Boyle, Baxter, Owen, Cudworth, Thomas A Kempis, Burnet, Howe, Butler, Wilson, Bunyan, Fenelon, Doddridge, South, Bull, Hammond, Barrow, Tillotson, Sherlock, Jortin, Farindon, Horsley, Hales, Stillingfleet, Porteus, Locke, Leighton, Cave, Cudworth, Hall, Jewel, Jackson, Flavel, Charnock, Wesley, Skelton, Watts, Lowth, Romaine, Waterland, Whichcote, Balguy, Parsons, Ken, Newton, Stanhope, Whitby, Hammond, Burkitt, Herbert, Doune, Merrick, &c. &c.

Vol. I. (to be published on the 1st of January,) will contain

THE LIBERTY OF PROPHESYING, by Jeremy Taylor—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Richard Cottermole, B. D.

Vol. II. (to be published on the 1st of February) will contain

CAVE'S LIVES OF THE APOSTLES—with Notes, and an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Henry Stebbing, M. A.

Vol. III. (to be published on the 1st of March) will contain

BATES'S SPIRITUAL PERFECTION, UNFOLDED AND ENFORCED—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. John Pye Smith, D. D.

LONDON: John Hatchard and Son; Piccadilly. Whittaker & Co. Ave Maria Lane, Simpkin & Marshall, Stationers' Court; D. A. Talboys, Oxford; J. & J. Deighton, Cambridge; Oliver & Boyd, Edinburgh; and J. Cumming, Dublin.

And to be had of every Bookseller throughout the Kingdom. March 4th, 1834.

The English copy will cost, in England, about ten dollars. We propose to issue the American edition, under the superintendence of a learned American clergyman, in weekly numbers, on a single sheet of superfine paper, giving ninety-six large 12 mo. pages, to be folded and stitched, and covered with strong envelope paper, at the rate of five dollars per annum.

PROSPECTUS
OF A
NEW GAZETTEER
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

CONTAINING A COPIOUS DESCRIPTION OF THE States, Territories, Counties, Parishes, Districts, Cities and Towns—Mountains, Lakes, Rivers and Canals—Commerce, Manufactures, Agriculture, and the arts generally, of the United States.

EMBRACING ALSO

The extent, Boundaries, and Natural productions of the principal subdivisions, the Latitude and Longitude of Cities and Towns, with their bearing and distance from important places—and including other interesting and valuable Geographical, Historical, Political, and Statistical information—with the census of 1830, and the Post Offices, from the latest Official List.

BY WILLIAM DARBY, ESQ.
OF MARYLAND.
AUTHOR OF A VIEW OF THE UNITED STATES, &c. &c.
AND
THEODORE DWIGHT, JR. ESQ.
OF NEW YORK.

The importance to the citizens of the United States, of a copious and accurate Gazetteer of our country, will not, is believed, for a single moment be questioned. Whatever be a man's station in life, whether public or private, he frequently, almost daily, feels the convenience and necessity of such a book of reference. Of similar works, embracing the Universe, it may with truth be said of the most voluminous of them, that they are necessarily brief, and greatly deficient in reference to our own country. This is undeniable—nor could it be otherwise in a work, which in the compass of 800 or 1000 pages, comprises a whole world.

No such work, exclusively devoted to the United States, is now extant. None has ever been projected—and the only one of a similar kind ever issued from the press, was a duodecimo volume of less than three hundred pages; nor has that been reprinted in ten years. Within that period, important changes in the country, which it is the object of a Gazetteer to embrace, have taken place: new States have been formed—new counties erected—new townships laid out—new villages sprung up. In a word, the political, moral, geographical and statistical condition of the country has undergone many and great changes, which are not to be found recorded in any single volume.

The undersigned, the compilers of the proposed Gazetteer, have undertaken to supply this deficiency. And in presenting it to the public for their patronage, the publisher feels confident that it will be found as correct—as complete—and as accurate—as the nature of the case will admit. The names of the respectable gentlemen who have undertaken its compilation—one of whom is already well known as the author of several valuable geographical works—and, it is believed, be a sufficient guaranty of the fidelity and accuracy of the proposed volume. The labor of more than two years has already been bestowed upon it; and it is presumed that access by it had, to every publication which could in any degree enhance the value of the work. These facts, together with the high commendations bestowed upon the first edition of the work and the rapidity of its sale—(it having been entirely disposed of within four months from the day of its publication)—induces the publisher to undertake a second and improved edition. A Map of the United States, (not contained in the former) will be added to the work; and the publisher confidently believes, that such measures have been taken to secure a careful revision of the first, as will ensure the accuracy of the forthcoming edition. With these facts in mind, he trusts that the proposed volume will be found more rich in every kind of information proper to be stored in such a work—in historical, geographical, political, literary, and statistical information—and presenting a larger amount of facts relative to our country, its institutions, and resources, that can be found in any other volume.

CONDITIONS.

The paper will be of a fine quality, and the type new and handsome.

The volume will be of a royal octavo size, and will contain 600 or more printed pages; a well executed Map of the United States, 15 by 20 inches, and neatly coloured, will also be comprised in the work. It will be well bound, in sheep, and in a neat, appropriate and substantial manner. The price to subscribers will be four dollars, payable on delivery of the work.

THE NEW-YORKER.

UNDER this title, a new Literary Journal, of the largest imperial size, was issued to the subscribers on Saturday, the 22d of March. Its leading features are as follows:

"THE NEW YORKER" is equal in size and execution to any of the literary weeklies of this city, and at the same time afforded at a much lower rate than the cheapest of them—It will combine more completely than any of its compeers rivals the distinguishing characteristics of a literary journal with those of a regular and systematic chronicle of passing events. In short, it is designed to commend itself as a general newspaper, alike acceptable to the lover of literature, the devotee of business, and the gleaner of intelligence. It will contain—

I. LITERATURE OF THE DAY—embracing Reviews of New Publications, Original Tales, Essays, Poems, &c. with selections from the whole range of English and American periodical literature.

II GENERAL INTELLIGENCE—comprising the current news of the day, foreign and domestic, whether civil or political—carefully avoiding, however, the least semblance of partisanship in politics, and confined strictly to the presentation of a general and impartial account of the movements of all parties whatever without discrimination and without the exhibition of personal preference.

Should this journal receive the approbation and the support of the public, the undersigned pledge themselves to spare neither exertions nor expense to render its literary character and general interest at least equal to those of its cotemporaries; and, whatever may be the measure of their encouragement, they confidently assert that it shall be excelled by few in quantity of matter, or in the variety and originality of its contents.

H GREELEY & CO.

 The New Yorker has no connection whatever with an ephemeral affair with the same title, which was published last season; but, in order to free our good name from all opprobium, we hereby agree to send our paper GRATUITOUSLY to all the patrons of that concern for the whole term for which they have paid the publisher thereof.

Office 114 Fulton street.

CONDITIONS.

THE NEW YORKER is published every Saturday morning, on a large imperial sheet, containing twenty four wide and closely printed columns, and forwarded to its patrons, whether in the city or country, at the rate of TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. When payment is delayed till the end of the second quarter, fifty cents will be added.

Any person procuring us six subscribers in the country, and forwarding $10 free of postage, will be entitled to the remainder for his trouble, and in the same proportion for a larger number. Companies uniting in a remittance will be supplied on the same terms.

Postmasters, Booksellers, and General Agents for the circulation of periodicals are respectfully solicited to interest themselves in our behalf, and are hereby assured that they shall in all cases receive the highest remuneration which the low price of our paper will enable us to give.

WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

NOTICE.—For the sake of combining the old and new series, and making the first volume correspond both in date and matter, the subscriber has concluded to print fifteen additional numbers to the second volume of the first or old series. These numbers will be furnished gratuitously to those who commenced with No. 1 and No. 6, and who have paid their subscription, or who shall have paid it before the 26th No. of Volume 2 is issued. Those whose subscriptions remain unsettled at the publication of that No. will be struck off the list, and charged six dollars, as they have been announced.

To those who have really patronized the "Circulating Library," by prompt payment of their subscription, very sincere acknowledgements are tendered, and a continuance of their patronage respectfully requested.

ADAM WALDIE.

WILLIAM BRYAN, MERCHANT TAILOR,

TAKES this method of returning his sincere thanks to his friends, and the public in general for the liberal patronage they have heretofore bestowed upon him, and begs leave to inform them, that he has been compelled, from the heavy calamity which befell him on the 20th October, to remove his stock to the brick building owned by Washington G. Ford, Esq. one door below the Store of Messrs. Hall & Franklin, and nearly opposite the residence of Dr. Dennis Claude, where he intends carrying on his business in his usual manner, and where he will be happy to accommodate his friends in the line of his profession. He hopes, by the aid of his fellow-citizens, enabled in the morning of the above calamity, to save a portion of his Stock in hand, and hopes, in a short time, to be enabled to replenish his stock. He therefore confidently solicits a continuance of the former patronage of his friends, together with that of the public at large.

Anne-Arundel County, Sct.

ON application to the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Orphans Court of said county, by petition, in writing, of John T. Larmer of said county, stating that he is now in custody for debt he is unable to pay, praying for the benefit of the act of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at November session 1803, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed thereto, and the said John T. Larmer having satisfied me that he has resided two years within this state of Maryland preceding the time of his application, and the said John T. Larmer having taken the oath for laying up his property as stated in his schedule, and having given security for his appearance at court, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said John T. Larmer be discharged from custody, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette once a week for three months before the fourth Monday in October next, to appear before the county court for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause, if any they have, why the said John T. Larmer should not have the benefit of said act and supplements, as prayed. Given under my hand this 14th day of March 1834.

From the above it will be seen that the undersigned has been compelled to resort to the provisions of the Insolvent Laws of this state, and in order to prevent misrepresentation, he will state the cause which led him to adopt this disagreeable alternative. He became security for an individual at Anne-Arundel county court for a considerable sum of money, at which time the individual alluded to left the state of Maryland, and the person to whom the debt was due has sued for and obtained judgement against him. The undersigned, therefore, feeling himself totally unable to pay the debt, has been compelled to resort to the above.

HYMN OF THE MORAVIAN NUN

At the Consecration of Pulaski's Banner.

The standard of Count Pulaski, the n
Pole, who fell in the attack on Savanah
ing the American Revolution, was of silk, embroidered by the Moravian Nun
Bethlehem, Pennsylvania.

When the dying flame of day
Through the chancel shot its ray,
Far the quivering tapers shed
Their light on the enabled head;
And the consecrated banner, which with prayer,
Had been consecrated there:
And the nun's sweet hymn was heard the w
Softly in the deep mysterious aisles.

"Take thy banner. May it wave
Proudly o'er the good and brave,
When the battle's distant wail
Breaks on the still evening gale;
When the clarion's music thrills
The hearts of those who fill
Their places in conflict shaken,
And the strong lance shivering breaks.

"Take thy banner, and beneath
Thy folds shall the encircling wreath
Of a holier victory be won,
Guarded—God will prosper thee!
In the battle-shock of strife,
In the rushing turbid river,
Through the clash of steels and men,
Hang on him! I will shield thee then.

"Take thy banner. But when night
Closes round the ghastly fight,
If the vanquished warrior bow,
Faithless to his holy vow,
Bring it back, and in my tears,
In the memory that endears,
Wrap him in the cold grave-sheet,
Spare him as thou would'st be spared.

"Take thy banner; and if ever
Through the storm of battle, the soldier's thigh,
And the mustering drum should beat
Thee to death and mournful feet,
Then, the crimson flag shall be
Mine a cloak and shroud for thee.
And the warrior took that banner proud,
And it was his martial cloak and shroud.
