In Chancery

To the Honorable William Hilly
Chancellor of Maryland

The Petition, of the Defendant John Deale of Anne Arundel County, and of James Deale of Baltimore County, respectfully represents, that, such proceedings have been had in this Cause, that your Honor with the Consent of your Petitioner John Deale, on the 18.th April last, decreed an immediate Sale of the property in the said proceedings mentioned for the payment of the Mortgage debt due to the Complainant — and Henry M Murray Esquire was appointed a Trustee to make the said Sale —

Your Petitioners state further, that your Petitioner John Deale, on the 9.th day of March last, for a valuable consideration, sold and conveyed to your Petitioner James Deale certain personal property, and among other, the property aforesaid heretofore mortgaged to the Complainant's Intestate — And your Petitioner James Deale in virtue of the Deed of your Petitioner John Deale, heretofore, to wit, on the 3.d day of May last, filed with the proceedings, claims, and is advised he is entitled in this Court to, the nett proceeds of the Sale so decreed to be made, which shall remain after satisfying the said Mortgage debt and also any property mentioned, in the Mortgage, and deed aforesaid and which may not be sold for that purpose —
