Seventeen hundred and ninety three pay and satisfy the aforesaid Sum of Money with Interest as aforesaid to the said Robert Ferguson, Rat then the said Robert Ferguson agreed to release the said Mortgagor and Bonds and their increase to the said Samuel McLand as by the said Bill of Sale, exhibited by your Orator appear; Your Orator States that no part of the said principal Sum and Interest, hath been discharged, and that the said Samuel McLand hath since the Execution of the Mortgage Aforesaid taken the benefit of an Act of Insolvency, and John Grimm of Frederick County is appointed his Trustee as by reference to the proceedings and records of this Court will appear, which your Orator prays may be taken as part of this his bill —

Your Orator States that some of the said Mortgagors and Bonds (as he has been informed) are dead, and others sold, and but few of them are delivered and Conveyed to the said Trustee, and he believes his debt to be in a precarious situation, and from the uncertainty and perishable Nature of the property mortgaged, becomes every day more hazardous, and to the Intent that the said property may be redeemed by payment of the Principal and Interest due, or the Equity of redemption of the property therein mentioned be for ever barred and foreclosed; and the property sold for the payment and Interest due to your Orator, and that the said John Grimm and Samuel McLand, and each of them on oath set forth and discover & exhibit how is not the original Bill of Sale executed by the said McLand to your Orator? and of the Sum of Money therein mentioned, or how much thereof was not justly due to your Orator? — and that they, and each of them set forth what hath become of all and each of the said Mortgagors and their increase, whether any and which of them are dead sold, or run away, or in Whose Power, Possession, or Custody all and each of them are, and to whom sold, if any of them are sold — And whether the said Mortgagors or any of them are dead, or sold, and to whom, and in Whose Possession they are; and that they, and each of them set forth what Sums of Money have been paid on Account of said Mortgage, to whom, and when, and how much remains due thereon —