remanded to the said Commissioner, to afford the said defendant an opportunity to take further testimony. That the said defendant has not caused any proceeding to be taken under the said order before said Commissioner, but has altogether neglected to avail himself of the benefit of said order, and has thereby greatly delayed the said Cause to the great injury of this Complainant. That according to the provision of the Act of Assembly in such case made & provided, this Complainant, by her solicitor, at the November Term of said County Court, in the year 1839. filed a suggestion in writing, desiring the said Cause to be removed to the High Court of Chancery; & that the said Cause has been accordingly removed.

Your petitioner, the said Complainant, therefore prays your Honor that the said Cause may be set down for final hearing at the next Term of this Court.

J. D. Jones, Solicitor,

for Complainant,

In Chancery 31 March 1840

On the foregoing application made and filed during the setting of this present term, it is Ordered that the said cause ~~[illegible]~~ stand for hearing at the next entering term as prayed; of which the said defendants are required to take notice.

Theodorick Bland Jr