called Greenwood, which was after due notice sold by said Sheriff unto your Oratrix for the sum of Ten dollars as by a Copy of the Deed of Conveyance from the said Sheriff unto your Oratrix to be marked Exhibit A and filed as part of this Bill will appear.

And your Oratrix further shews that she has sued out a second writ of Fieri Facias for the purpose of enforcing payment of the residue of the monies decreed to her as aforesaid which writ is at this time in the hands of the Sheriff of Baltimore County. But neither the said Sheriff nor your Oratrix hath been able to discover any property or effects upon which said writ may be levied and your Oratrix verily believes that the said Hatch hath no property nor interest or estate in any property other than in a moiety of the proceeds of sale of the aforesaid real estate made under authority of a Decree of Baltimore County Court as a Court of Equity and certain negro slaves and other personal property which are at this moment in the custody and possession of one Samuel Fenby, of Baltimore County who pretends title thereto under color of certain Bills of sale from the said Hatch to the said Fenby as will be hereinafter particularly mentioned. Your Oratrix is about to file a petition in Baltimore County Court claiming the aforesaid share of the proceeds of said sale as purchaser of the interest of said Hatch in said Land as aforesaid and insisting that of her title as purchaser is not recognized she ought to have said share applied to the payment of money yet due her on her aforesaid Decree. But if the said Court should direct payment of the aforesaid share to her to be applied in payment of the sum of money yet due on said Decree and after such application is really made there will remain a large balance due her for which she will have no remedy unless this Court shall be pleased to interpose for her relief as against said negroes and other property, their increase and profits.

And your Oratrix further shewes that the said Samuel Fenby pretends title to said negroes and other personal property and resists the levy of her writ of Fieri Facias thereon under color of a certain Bill of sale from the said Johna
