And again

To the end therefore that the said Joshua Hatch William Hatch and Samuel Fenley may answer the several matters and things herein contained and that the aforesaid Bill of sale and the aforesaid Decree thereon pronounced may be set aside vacated and annulled as fraudulent and void as against your Orators as aforesaid and that the said Samuel Fenley may account for the negroes and other property received by him under color of said Bill of sale and the increase thereof and the profits gains emoluments and advantages from the use employment sale and conversion thereof by himself or others with his consent privity or connivance or which might have been derived therefrom but for his default and that the negroes and other property aforesaid yet in existence with the increase thereof may be sold for payment of your Orators claim as aforesaid. Or if it shall be adjudged that the said Fenley is entitled to the benefit of the aforesaid securities then that an account may be decreed as aforesaid and that the property as aforesaid with its increase may be sold under the authority of this Court