POETRY.

MY FATHER.

The following beautiful lines were written by Brigadier General HENRY R. JACKSON, of Georgia, who was recently operating in the Confederate Army, below Richmond:

As die the embers on the hearth,
And o'er the hearth the shadows fall,
And creeps the chirping cricket forth,
And ticks the death-watch in the wall,
I see a form in yonder chair,
That grows beneath the waning light;
There are the wan, sad features—there
The pallid brow, and locks of white.

My father! when they laid thee down
And heaped the clay upon thy breast,
And left thee sleeping all alone
Upon thy narrow couch of rest,
I knew not why, I could not weep—
The soothing drops refused to roll:
And oh! that grief is wild and deep,
Which settles tearless on the soul.

But when I saw thy vacant chair,
Thine idle hat upon the wall,
The book—the penciled passage where
Thy eye had rested last of all—
The tree beneath whose friendly shade
Thy trembling feet had wandered forth—
The very prints those feet had made,
When last they feebly trod the earth.

And thought while countless ages fled,
Thy vacant seat would vacant stand—
Unworn the hat—thy book unread—
Effaced thy footsteps from the sand—
And widowed in this cheerless world
The heart that gave its love to thee—
Torn like the vine whose tendrils curled
More closely round the falling tree—

O, father! then for her and thee
Gushed madly forth the scorching tears;
And oft and long, and bitterly
Those tears have gushed in later years;
For as the world grows cold around,
And things assume their real hue,
'Tis sad to find that love is found
Alone above the stars with you.

A GREAT SHOT.—The public is informed by a Western hunter that he and his brother spent the year 1840 in and about the Rocky Mountains. They had two rifles, one bullet, and one keg of powder. With these he says they killed on an average twenty-seven head of buffaloes a day. The fact that they did all this with one bullet, led to the following cross-question: "How did you kill all these buffaloes with only one bullet?" "Listen and I'll explain, Monsieur. We shot a buffalo—I stood on one side and my brother on the other—brother fired—the ball passed through into the barrel of my rifle. The next time, I fired, and brother caught my ball in his rifle. We kept up the hunt for twelve months, killing nearly two hundred buffaloes per week, and yet brought home the same ball we started with!"

WHAT A CONTRABAND CAN DO.—A lady of this city, desiring to procure "help," made application at the headquarters of the "Contrabands" on Capitol Hill, when the following colloquy ensued between herself and a female contraband who escaped from "service" in Virginia:

Lady—Well, Dinah, you say you want a place. What can you do? Can you cook?

Contraband—No, m'm; mammy, she always cooked.

Lady—Are you a good chambermaid?

Contraband—Sister Salley, she always did the chambers.

Lady—Can you wait in the dining-room and attend the door?

Contraband—La, no m'm; Jim, that was his work.

Lady—Can you wash and iron?

Contraband—Well, you see m'm, aunt Becky, she allays washed.

Lady—Can you sew?

Contraband—Charity, she allays sew'd.

Lady.—Then, what in the world did you do?

Contraband—Why I allays kept de flies off missus.—National Intelligencer.

WELL PUT.—The Boston Journal hits the nail on the head when it says:

"Not a tenth part of all the local news which transpires in the county town finds its way into the city newspapers, and he who takes the latter to the exclusion of his own town or county paper, does not fulfil his duty as a citizen. Such a person is unworthy to fill a local office, for he most certainly lacks local pride."

True, every word of it!

—"Jeems, my lad, keep away from the gals. Ven you see one coming, dodge. Just such a critter as that young 'un cleaning the door step on 'tother side of the street, fooled yer dad, Jimmy. If it hadn't been for her, you and yer dad might have been in California hunting dimes, my son."

—An Irishman being asked whether he did not frequently converse with a friend in Irish, replied: "No, Indeed; Jemmy often speaks to me in Irish, but I always answer him in English." "Why so?" "Because, you see, I don't want Jammy to know that I understand Irish."

A QUERY.—We find the following in an exchange: Two gentlemen have each a daughter. Each marries the daughter of the other. Supposing them both to have children by marriage, what will be the relation of the children to each other?

SPADES.—In the game before Richmond, McClellan held a strong hand in spades, but clubs turned up trumps, and his adversary made his point.

—Model wives formerly took a "stitch in time," but now, with the aid of a sewing-machine, they take one in no time.

—The mind is like a trunk. If well packed, it holds almost everything, if ill packed, next to nothing.

—When does a man die for love? When he dyes his red whiskers brown.

WOODWORTH'S

COMPOUND TOILET & WASHING SOAP

Patented March 13th, 1860.

THE subscriber having purchased of Mr. Woodworth the Patent Right for Montgomery county, Md., for his IMPROVED SOAP, now offers for sale

Family Rights.

Also, SOAPS of every description manufactured by his process.

The subscriber has tested this soap thoroughly, and can, with confidence, recommend it to the citizens of Montgomery county. It is decidedly the

Cheapest and Best Soap

that has ever been made, and at the same time the mode of manufacturing the simplest that has ever been discovered. It can be made in TEN MINUTES. Any one can heat over the fire a quantity of water, and turn the same into the best Toilet or Washing Soap. It is made without any offensive smell. There is no lye or grease used, being made entirely from chemicals. It has been analyzed by some of the best chemists, and found to contain nothing that will injure the most delicate fibre, or the skin.

This soap has been used by thousands of families for the last six months, and it is universally preferred to any other, wherever it is known, both for its superior quality as a washing and toilet soap, and for the great economy there is in using it, being cheaper by than any other soap known. Every family should possess it, and needs only to be known to be sought after by every household and laundress in the land.

☞ The chemicals for its manufacture can be obtained at any Drug Store, at a very trifling expense.

FAMILY RIGHTS, or any of the Soaps, can be obtained of the subscriber. Any one purchasing a family right, and are dissatisfied after giving the soap a fair trial, can return it. He will, if required by the person purchasing a right, make some of the soap.

PERRY TRAIL,
dec 7—tf Rockville, Md.

ROCKVILLE, Dec. 4th, 1860.

Mr. TRAIL: The specimens of soap you gave me, I caused to be thoroughly tried, and found them to be all you represented. I have never seen any soaps to equal them, both for their superior quality, and for the great economy there is using them. I cheerfully recommend them to the public. A. F. BOSWELL.

Soluble Phosphated Peruvian

GUANO,

The Best, Cheapest and most Permanent

FERTILIZER

Ever Offered to the Agriculturist.

Approved by Prof. Campbell Morfit.

ONE of the most eminent Chemists of America, as the most reliable and efficient combination of Phosphatic and Ammoniated Guanos yet offered in a really soluble form. It is composed of No. 1 PERUVIAN AND SOMBRERO GUANOS, of direct importation from the Chincha and Sombrero Islands, and is warranted free from all impurities.

This Fertilizer has been severely tested, in comparison with Peruvian Guano, by many of the most successful and intelligent farmers of Virginia and Maryland, from whom we have received numerous letters and certificates of approval. We submit the following extract from Prof. Morfit's report upon the Soluble Phosphated Peruvian Guano, viz:

"The above analytical results express a high value for this Fertilizer, and indicate that the formula for its preparation is founded upon sound principles of agricultural economy and efficiency. Though replete with the indispensable elements of a fruitful soil, the relative proportions are so skillfully adjusted as to promote their mutual action, and render it a most profitable manure, adapted for crops generally, without distinction as to kind. CAMPBELL MORFIT.

Copies of the above-named documents, together with Prof. Morfit's Analysis, and other interesting matter, will be found in our pamphlets and circulars, showing that our FERTILIZER is far better adapted to general use than Peruvian Guano alone, besides being

SIXTEEN PER CENT. CHEAPER.

The Sombrero Guano, before its combination with the Peruvian, is rendered immediately soluble by a process recently discovered and peculiarly our own. The value of Peruvian Guano, presented in this modified and improved form, can hardly be overestimated.

We continue to keep on hand our usual supplies of PERUVIAN AND SOMBRERO GUANO, of our own direct importation, which we offer at lowest market rates.

Preparing for Early Publication, uniform with the Maryland Code.

☞ The price will be regulated by the extent of the work, and will be announced in advance of publication.

A SUPPLEMENT
TO THE MARYLAND CODE.

AGREEABLY to the promise made to the public in our Prospectus to the MARYLAND CODE, we now announce the publication, at an early day, of the First Volume of the Supplement to the Code.

It will contain all the GENERAL AND LOCAL LAWS, passed by the Legislature at the Extra Sessions of 1858, and the Regular Session of 1862, arranged under their Proper Titles, to correspond with the Code, to be accompanied with ACCURATE TABLES, showing, at a glance, the Articles and Sections of the Code, Repealed or Amended, with references to the Chapter and Section, by which amended or repealed, to which will be added in an Appendix, the Private Acts & Resolutions of the Extra & Regular Sessions.

The whole to be carefully Indexed.

To render the work still more valuable, we shall give the CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, with its Amendments—with Marginal Notes, referring to the Decisions of the Supreme Court.

Also—THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, with Marginal Notes and References to Acts of the General Assembly and Decisions of the Court of Appeals, and in Appeals and Errors.

We believe we thus offer to the public a work invaluable to every Lawyer, Magistrate, Politician, Business Man, and every citizen of Maryland, and one invaluable to every possessor of the Code.

The importance of the legislation of the late session of the Legislature, affecting, as it does, the interests of every man in the State, renders it a matter of the greatest moment to each individual, to have in a convenient and accessible form, the Acts of Assembly, and it is scarcely less so to have the old, in the same volume, the Important Resolutions which announce the policy of the State in the present crisis, while it will prove a matter of no slight moment to individuals and corporations, thus to have preserved in a permanent form, the Acts on which their rights and interests may depend.

By continuing the publication of the work, as we propose, it is believed that the law of Maryland will have the Statute Law of the State in a form as convenient and accessible as that of any State in the Union.

☞ Such as may desire to secure the Supplement, will do well to order at once, as the extent of the Edition will be regulated by the number of subscribers.

☞ Recently Published, by AUTHORITY of the State of MARYLAND—THE MARYLAND CODE, CONTAINING ALL THE PUBLIC GENERAL AND PUBLIC LOCAL LAWS now in force in the State, compiled by OTHO SCOTT and HIRAM McCATHERAN, Commissioners; adopted by the Legislature of Maryland, January Session, 1860; the Acts of that Session being incorporated, with an INDEX to each ARTICLE and SECTION, by HENRY C. MACKALL, of the Maryland Bar. The Second Edition, in two vol., 8o. law sheep, 900 pages each, only $6. Interleaved, $10. MURPHY & CO.,

The Edinburg Review (Whig.)
3.
The North British Review (F. Church.)
4.
Blackwood's Edinburg Magazine (Tory.)

THE present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news-items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily journal, and the ponderous tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

Subscribers wishing also the Nos. for 1860, will be supplied at the following extremely low rates.
