for $50. The highest price offered. Negro William is a boy afflicted and bed ridden, and appears to have an incurable disease and must be an expense to the purchaser and I could not sell him without putting him with some one of the other negroes. This is all the personal property I could find. When the deed was there was a negro man named Robert was part of the personal property. But he run away and never come into my possession. The whole amount of sales is $675.00 All of which is respectfully submitted
