[☞ COPY-RIGHT SECURED.]

The COMPLETE HISTORY of the Civil War in Ireland,

By the Rev. JAMES GORDON.

WILL be published in a few days, by S. Butler, and Pechin & Fraley; and the delivery of said work, to subscribers in the city of Baltimore, will commence next week.

It will form two handsome volumes; price to subscribers 175 cents, to non-subscribers the price will be 2 dollars:—Of 1500 copies printing, more than 1250 are now subscribed for.

☞ The Publishers inform that subscribers will not be received after the present week.

ALTHOUGH the professed object of the Rev. J. Gordon, in writing his history, was to give, an impartial and unbiassed account of the unsuccessful attempt of the Irish to emancipate themselves from their degrading thraldom, yet the imperious calls of self security rendered the full attainment of this desirable object impossible. Living under a despotic government, exasperated by the immense loss of blood and treasure expended in the reduction of these brave but unfortunate sons of freedom, he very well knew, that any one attempting to tell the whole truth, would be frowned into silence, and the imprudent and luckless author be doomed to add one more to the long list of Irish martyrs. He, therefore, prescribed to himself certain bounds, beyond which he has not dared to pass;—he has written as impartially as circumstances would permit, but very differently from what he might have done had he penned it in our own free and happy country.

To remedy this defect, and to supply all the deficient narrative of Gordon, has been the unremitted care of the Publishers, and they are happy to assure the public, that their exertions, they flatter themselves, have been crowned with success.

The sources from which they have derived their additional and corrective information, are various. They have made copious extracts from Messrs Hay, Plowden, and Cooper's histories on the subject and from several proscribed pamphlets, the printing and sale of which in Ireland, if discovered, might have been considered treasonable, as they contain many impartially narrated facts, which the government wish to conceal or misrepresent.

As it may be presumed that some readers may not be fully acquainted with the situation of Ireland, we have, to illustrate the work prefixed a short Geographical, Topographical and Historical description thereof.

With these Additions, Corrections and Alterations, the Publishers, will present to their free and enlightened countrymen, GORDON'S HISTORY OF THE IRISH REVOLUTION, as the most impartial, faithful and interesting history on that subject, now extant. In this favoured country only could such an one be printed; as here, the Liberty of the Press, unfettered by the arbitrary hand of power, diffuses the rays of truth and impartial information, throughout our happy land.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN on Monday morning last, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, from the stable of the subscribers, at Woodbury Mills, on Jones's Falls, about four miles from Baltimore a Waggon HORSE. He is a grey Gelding, about 4 years old, in high order, about 15 or 15½ hands high. He is a well turned horse, but not a good hack; trots roughly, has a tolerable long switch tail, and his head more white than his body. The villain who stole him was seen this morning about day light, near Beams's tavern, on the Reister's town turnpike road in company with a black man on a black horse; he then had the blind bridle on the Horse, about half worn, which he took from the stable with the horse, and was riding on a blanket in the place of a saddle. We will give Twenty Dollars for the horse, if delivered to us in Baltimore; or Fifty Dollars for thief and horse, upon conviction.

There is no doubt but the horse is stolen by one of the gang of jockeys who are lurking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horses, to keep a vigilant look-out for these fellows, and endeavor if possible to bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city.

W. MORRIS & W. TYSON,

April 25 d

Thirty Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber, on Monday, the 8th instant, a Mulatto man named WILL. He is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high; his features are coarse; has a large flat nose, thick and prominent lips, and has some freckles on his forehead; is marked with the small pox, particularly on his nose; his hair has been lately cut; his legs and thighs are larger than usual for the size of his body and shoulders. He carried with him a variety of clothing. He is a good waiter and understands driving a carriage. He was met on the road on Wednesday, the 10th instant, about 8 miles from Baltimore, at which place there is a woman, the property of Mr John Gill, whom he has claimed as a wife and who no doubt, will endeavor to secret him.—I will give the above reward if he is secured in any jail, so that I get him again; and if delivered here, I will pay all reasonable charges.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.

AS DR. WARREN's practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Cumberland Row, No. 64, below the Marsh-market.
