Twenty Dollars Reward,

WHEREAS on Wednesday morning the 21st inst. a mulatto man, who called himself CHARLES PROUD, hired of the subscriber a HORSE for that day, to perform a journey to Ellridge, which he stated to be the service of his father—and as the said person has not returned the horse; it is apprehended he has disposed of him in an improper manner—I will therefore give the above reward to any person who will deliver the said horse to me in Baltimore, or one half the same for either the one or the other of them. The said Charles appeared to be about 5 feet 10 inches high, stout and well made and about 20 years of age; the only part of his dress which is at present recollected was a pair of check trowsers and a check shirt—he is a ship carpenter by trade, and is well known in Baltimore. The horse is a pale black, with a short switch tail, has a white star in his forehead, he is about 15 hands and a half high, about 7 years old, and was shod all round when taken. The saddle has a pistol holster, the stirrups are plated and the leathers of the stirrups are nearly new. The bridle has a flat snaffle bit, leathers bound round the head of a yellow colour.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.

DR. WARNER's success has been very extensive both in foreign and domestic practice, daily experience proves the superiority of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine yet known in Baltimore. He has restored the most desperate cases to health and happiness, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility induced, from various causes, and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Cumberland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover street, opposite the Rev. Mr. Otterbein's, near the Dutch church.

PHILIP MOORE, Clk. D. C. Md.

TO THE PUBLIC.

No book could be offered, which stands in less need of encomium and recommendation—The want of such a book as "The New American Clerk's Magazine, and Complete Practical Conveyancer" has been long and generally complained of, and is in numerable instances severely felt, by the people of the State of Maryland in particular.

With a view of facilitating the communication of information, necessary to the interest and happiness of the people, the above work was undertaken, and it is believed, has been executed in a manner that must be extensively useful; it is inconsiderable forwardness, & will be published in the course of this summer.

CONDITIONS.

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.

HIGH-WAY ROBBERY

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dols.
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Hirinbothom, cashier, in favor of Greetham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, the assassin was hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be so accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature fair countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his cloaths.

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber, and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

WILLIAM WHANN,

Cashier of the Bank of Columbia.

Pennsylvania House

AND

MYER'S CITY TAVERN

THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's bookstore.——These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.

Twenty-five Dollars Reward

RAN AWAY from me 28th July, JAMES MORGAN a handsome, well built, portly, black lad. He is not quite of a jet black; is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and aged about 20 years. He has a pleasant and sensible, smile, a fine set of teeth and a large scar on his left temple. He rocks a little in his walk. He is respectful and complaisant. James is an excellent house-waiter, and a pretty good cook; his attention has latterly been devoted to the work of a farm. He can read and write; he is, indeed, fond of reading, and ambitious to improve his mind.

He was seen in Baltimore 2d August, inst. His mother (whose letters have seduced him) lives in Easton, on Eastern shore;—he will probably make thither, though he may perhaps take a circuitous route.

James is bound by indenture till 28 years of age, under the laws of Pennsylvania.

The above reward will be given if he be confined in the jail of Baltimore, so that I may get him again.

A fresh supply of

DOCTOR COOLEY'S Vegetable Elixir, is just received and for sale by GEORGE MARIS, Druggist, No. 140, Market-street.

A Remedy, far exceeding every other yet used, for consumptions, asthmas, spitting of blood, coughs, shortness of breath, and every other species of disease to which that organ of life, the lungs, is perpetually exposed.

Complaints of the lungs have always been considered the opprobria medicine (or reproach to the art of physic) and it has long been a desideratum in medical science, that a remedy might be devised which should check this outlet of human life. The many thousands which yearly fall a sacrifice to this insidious disease, phthisis pulmonalis, or consumption of the lungs, has, ever since my acquaintance with diseases, which is almost thirty years) so excited my commiseration, that a large share of my time has been employed in investigating the cause and cure of it; and, from my most unremitted attention and constant research, I have the happiness to proclaim to the world, that, in my Vegetable Elixir, a speedy, safe, and effectual remedy is generally to be had. It is needless for me to dwell too long on the praises of this medicine; those who use it will be immediately convinced of its superior virtues in dispelling every distressing sympton in the complaints above enumerated; those hectical heats will in a few days be allayed, the night sweats will disappear, the cough diminishes rapidly, and the patients who, previous to the use of this medicine, were panting for breath, and fast approaching to dissolution, will find themselves resussitated in the most unexpected manner. So wonderful has been the relief, that, to express their gratitude, frequent solicitations have been made to have their testimonials made public of the unrivalled virtues of this medicine; those who experience its benign and salutary effects by a short trial, will need no other recommendation.

It is not pretended that this medicine will cure every disease to which suffering humanity is liable, as is the case with most patent medicines; diseases which are as completly opposite as an acid and an alkali, they will assert, are all to be cured by one simple remedy. Such weak impositions have with much propriety brought most patent drugs into disrepute.—But the Vegetable Elixir is calculated for one class of diseases only, viz. those to which the lungs are exposed, and I need not observe that they terminate in consumptions. The precursors or harbingers of this hitherto intractable malady, (until the discovery of the Vegetable Elixir) are spitting of blood, pains in the breast and sides, coughs, difficulty in breathing, and a great number of complaints, which slender and delicate constitutions are so frequently laboring under, which if attended to immediately on their commencement, will easily be obviated, and those in the last stages will be much alleviated, and many of them effectually cured.—Price 75 cents per bottle.

Also, for sale as above,

Doctor Cooley's Genuine

ANTI-PESTILENTIAL ATTENUATING AND RESTORATIVE

PILLS,

Greatly esteemed in Rheumatic and Bilious complaints—50 cents a box.
