A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well-founded apprehension that the malignant disease with which the city of New York, is at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us unless the usual intercourse be interdicted.

I have therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this PROCLAMATION—hereby prohibiting the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as of all baggage or other goods, which have come from the said city of New York until they shall have been at least fifteen days therefrom excepting only the public mail and such persons or things as the commissioners of health may admit by a special license in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them whereby the health of the city is endangered. And in addition to the prohibitions contained in a Proclamation issued by me, on the sixth day of September instant, interdicting the usual intercourse with the city of Philadelphia—the inhabitants of this city and the precincts thereof are hereby expressly enjoined not to entertain, receive, or admit any person or persons into their houses who may have arrived here from either the city of Philadelphia or New York, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a special license as aforesaid.

This PROCLAMATION to remain in force until publicly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of Three Hundred Dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.

French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

For Sale,

A TRACT OF LAND in Baltimore county, containing about six hundred acres, 4 hundred of which are supposed to be in wood. On this there is a handsome piece of meadow, and a young thriving apple orchard. This land is about 25 miles from the city of Baltimore, and not far from Colonel O'Donnell's country residence, purchased of Mr. William Buchanan.

ALSO,

A TRACT OF LAND containing about 300 acres, about 14 miles from the city of Baltimore, west of Randall's town. On this last mentioned tract there is a stone dwelling HOUSE, just finished, with convenient cellars, two rooms and a passage on the first floor, three rooms and a passage on the second floor, and a garret, a new stone stable, corn house, and coach house; an overseer's house with two rooms, lately repaired at the expence of two hundred dollars; kitchen and other out houses, an excellent young apple orchard, with other good fruit trees, and good garden.

On both places there is water, not exceeded in the county; and good clover lots. Neither can exceed them in respect of health. There is a proportionate part of woodland on the last place.

I will permit the purchasers to see the ensuing fall, or I would send for them. The dwelling house on the last mentioned farm might be immediately taken possession of by the purchaser. Presuming that no person will purchase without viewing the premises, I do not go into detail.

Both of the above places are convenient to mills; there is a mill not more than a quarter of a mile from the last mentioned place; a good neighbourhood, and the Episcopal and Presbyterian churches within five miles. An indisputable title will be given on the payment of the purchase money.

1000 Dollars Reward.

ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villian who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault: all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indorsements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction, and should one of the accomplices, engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.

HIGH-WAY ROBBERY

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

1 [illegible] of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dols.
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 400
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bank, and by W. B. endorsed to blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. [illegible], cashier, in favor of Gretham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature, good countenance, and has a genteel appearance. He had on a blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

Cashier of the Bank of Columbia.

AND

MYER'S CITY TAVERN

THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders, being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store.——These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.
