State of Maryland, City of Baltimore, By THOROWGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well-founded apprehension that the malignant disease with which the city of New York, is at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us unless the usual intercourse be interdicted.

I have therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this PROCLAMATION—hereby prohibiting the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as of all baggage or other goods, which have come from the said city of New York until they shall have been at least fifteen days therefrom excepting only the public mail and such persons or things as the commissioners of health may admit by a special license in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them whereby the health of the city is endangered. And in addition to the prohibitions contained in a Proclamation issued by me, on the sixth day of September instant, interdicting the usual intercourse with the city of Philadelphia---the inhabitants of this city and the precincts thereof, are hereby expressly enjoined not to entertain, receive, or admit any person or persons into their houses who may have arrived here from either the city of Philadelphia or New York, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a special license as aforesaid.

This PROCLAMATION to remain in force until publicly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of Three Hundred Dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.

Given under my hand and the corporate seal of the city of Balti-

Ten Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person for apprehending John Brown, who has deserted from the United States brig Hornet, after shipping on board said brig: he is about 23 or 24 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, stout made, smooth face, and speaks broad Irish, had when he went off, a black eye, an old hat, blue jacket and trowsers.

Also, the above reward will be given for apprehending John Fullerton, also a deserter from said brig; he is about 35 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, stout made, lame in the right arms, marked with the small pox, and has got a black eye; he had on a blue jacket and trowsers, a white ruffled shirt. By birth an Irish man, and speaks broad. The above deserters came in the schooner Philip, from New York, and it is highly probable they have made for that place.

The public and captains of vessels are requested not to harbour or carry off said Runaways, as the law will be strictly enforced. It is very likely they will change their names.

1000 Dollars Reward.

ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villians who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault: all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indorsements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.

To Merchants and Shipbuilders.

I would sell as much

White Oak Timber,

OF the first quality, as will build from 1000 to 10,000 tons of vessels, either standing convenient to good building and shipping landings, or deliverable at such landings, in such a state, and in such quantities as may be agreed on.

Matthews county is situated within a few hours sail of Norfolk, or a day's sail of Baltimore, and abounds with shipbuilders and ship carpenters of the first reputation for building good and fast sailing vessels of all sizes usually built in this country.

If desired, the purchaser may be accommodated with from one to two thousand acres, or a larger quantity of rich land, partly cleared, and now in cultivation, and partly containing the above mentioned timber.

For terms and further particulars, apply to Messrs. Hugh and Hugh Nelson, in Baltimore, or to the subscriber at North End, in Matthews county.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translater of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in the half of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.

HIGH-WAY ROBBERY

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was accosted on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dols
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higinbothom, cashier, in favor of Greetham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

WILLIAM WILSON,
Cashier of the Bank of Columbia.
