THE late proprietor of the stage No. 71, thinks it a duty incumbent on him to inform the public that he has been in the habit of driveing the aforesaid stage, and that no such extortion ever was practised by him as alluded to in Saturday's American, nor was there any opportunity of so doing, unless on Wednesday the 11th inst. when it was drove by Benjamin Holland, who never drove it but the said day, and now drives No. 41.

R. STORRY.
December 16 d4t*

ADVERTISEMENT.

AS the present proprietor of stage No. 71, I deem it incumbent on me to state that the printer of the American has informed me that the author of Z. has declared that it was on Wednesday night last that the imposition was practiced, which he complained of—& as BENJAMIN HOLLAND drove the stage that night, it consequently follows, that he alone deserves all the disgrace and odium of the shameful transaction, and none can or ought to attach to either the stage No. 71, or to the late or present proprietor

And here, as a proprietor, I would join Z. in wishing, that as far as practicable, a due and proper rate of Stage fare were established by authority, to avoid villainous imposition on the one hand, and shameful undermining on the other.

Suman and Lamb,

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and the public, that they have commenced a Shoeing shop on a large scale, at their old stand, at the sign of the Golden Horse Shoe, between Pearce's and the lower bridge, opposite James Clark's large warehouse, where Horses will be Shod in the neatest and best manner. Also, they would undertake the Shoeing of a number of horses by the year. Also, at their store, No. 56, Cumberland Row, where the public may be supplied with all kinds of Edge Tools, of their own manufactory—Besides a general assortment of reday made hinges, of all descriptions, with every other article in the Black-smith line.

December 10 2aw8t

ELOPED

FROM the subscriber on the evening of the 18th July, a bright mulatto man, named PERRY BENTLY, aged about 30 years, but in appearance not more than two or three and twenty; he is a straight made handsome fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, and rather slender, his visage long and features small, with a direct and steady look when addressed.—He took with him a change of good summer and winter cloathing. Any person securing the above described man, so that the subscriber can obtain him, shall receive 20 dollars if taken in the state, if taken out of the state 40 dollars, together with all reasonable charges.

RESIN POOL,

BOOT-MAKER,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and customers that, having been so unfortunate as to be burnt out, at his former stand in South street, he has removed his shop to No. 6, same street, and next door but one below Doctor Aitkins', where he has on hand, a good assortment of Back Strap and Cossack Boots, which, owing to the exertion of his fellow citizens, he has been enabled, with some of his other effects, to preserve. Particular attention will be paid to measure work; also orders from the country or for exportation will be executed with dispatch.

He returns his sincere thanks to his former customers for the liberal share of patronage they have afforded him and hopes to continue to receive it, so long as his disposition to please may merit. To those in arrears, a bare hint, he thinks sufficient to convince them the propriety there would be in the immediate discharge of their accounts, as the loss he has sustained by the aforementioned calamity has been of considerable magnitude.

Hannah Wiebert,

AN INDENTED GERMAN SERVANT WOMAN, ran-away from the subscriber about the first of September last. She is between 18 and 20 years of age; and is about the common size—of somewhat clumsy form, with a little of a bend about the neck and shoulders. She has a down look—has litte hair, which is of a light color—her complexion fair, with rather a mixture of salowness. Her head and face flat, the latter of which, when she is at work, she is in the habit of twisting in a variety of ugly shapes.

She took with her, a dark calico gown, and several cotton striped dresses, and a Leghorn bonnet trim'd with black.

It is supposed she went off with a German, a butcher. She arrived in this country, with her father, from Wirtemburg about a year since—his name is Jacob Wiebert, and he is, by profession, a gardener. Since her flight he left the city, and, no doubt, he is now with her. She could speak some little English, but her father could not. A REWARD OF

TEN DOLLARS

Will be paid by the subscriber, if said run-away is secured so as he can get her again.

French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and schollars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

VENEREAL COMPLAINTS.

AS Dr. WARNER's practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time——As there are persons from various causes cannot personably apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be releived from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines so prepared, that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed to the corner Calvert and Bank streets.

Twenty Dollars

WILL be given for apprehending if out of this state, and ten dollars if within, JOHN COOKE, an apprentice to the shoemaking business, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. He ran away from the subscriber yesterday morning—he is about 19 years of age; 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high—has a smooth face; his hair of a dark brown, inclined to curl on his forehead—is rather round shouldered, and hangs his head when walking. His clothing were a blue sailors jacket; a sattin waistcoat; a pair of thickset pantaloons, a pair of bootees, and a new hat. His mother residing near Little York, it is highly probable that he has made for that place, or will endeavor to get on board some vessel as he has been a voyage to sea.
