there was no hope for chang and until the said George C Patterson failed to provide her with such things & means as were necessary for her support & comfort. Your respondent then left and went to her mothers house where she might be provided with the necessities of life. Your oratrix further charges that after she had been resideing with her mother for ~~about one month~~ sometime the said George C. Patterson induced her to return to him again under pretenses of reformation and a change of conduct towards her whereupon your oratrix freely forgave the past conduct of the said George C. Patterson and [illegible] your respondent had been with him, but a few weeks when he insisted upon her selling a small lot of land which your oratrix had inherited from her father, upon the refusal of your oratrix to agree to a sale of said land, the said George C. Patterson became enraged and after useing the most harsh, indecent and abusive language to your oratrix ~~deserted~~ abandoned her sometime in the winter of the year eighteen hundred and ~~fifty eight~~ sixty. Your respondent charges that the cruel conduct of the said George C Patterson was such that she could not consent to risk herself in his keeping & care again and your oratrix charges that his abandonment of her has been continual & uninterrupted for more than three years and is deliberate and final and the seperation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation. To the end therefore that the said George C. Patterson may answer the several matters & things hereinbefore stated as fully & particularly as if they were herein again repeated, and he was thereunto specially interrogated, and that a decree for a divorce a vinculo matrimonii may be passed in favor of the complainant, and for such other or further relief as her case may require —

May it please the court to grant unto your [illegible] a subpoena against the said George C Patterson of said County commanding him to appear in this court at some certain day to be therein named, to answer the premises and to abide by and perform such decree as be passed therein; and as in duty &c
