By his Excellency

Robert Wright, Esquire,

Governor of Maryland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, some nefarious villain did on the eighteenth day of October instant, attempt to assassinate Judge James B. Robins, on his return from Caroline County Court, near Denton, and fired from an ambuscade a ball at him which entered his right shoulder, and passed out below his right breast, and another ball which passed through the cape of his coat, and struck his ear: And whereas, there is reason to believe the said assassin is a certain John Whirlow, alias John Rigging, formerly committed to Worcester county gaol, by said Judge Robins, to answer to a certain crime, and who by two letters to said Judge Robins, threatened to assassinate him, which said Whirlow alias Rigging, was on the day before the perpetration of said villainy supposed to be in Denton, enquiring when said judge would return home. And whereas, it is the duty of the executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavour to bring all malefactors to justice. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer five hundred dollars reward, to any person or persons, who shall apprehend and bring to justice, the perpetrator of said offence, in lieu of the reward offered by William Potter, esq. Given in council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the state of Maryland, this twenty first day of October, in the year of our lord one thousand eight hundred and seven; and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirty second.

ROBERT WRIGHT.

Clerk of the Council.

Ordered, that the foregoing Proclamation be published three times in each week, for the space of two weeks, successively, in the American and Federal Gazette at Baltimore, and the Star at Easton.

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

Ran away from the subscriber, on Saturday evening last, Thomas Gill and Daniel Bringman, apprentices to the cabinet making business. Gill is about 20 years of age, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, slender made, and much freckled. States at Fort M'Henry, beats the drum remarkably well, and had been permitted by the subscriber to serve in that capacity in the 5th regiment in this city, the emoluments from which he enjoyed, and the profits it afforded it is believed enabled him to abscond.

He took with him a number of cabinet-maker's tools; and has in his possession two suits of clothes, one of jean, the other blue. Bringman is about 19 years of age, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, rather stouter made than Gill, of a swarthy complexion, and dark hazle eyes.
