In Council 2 July 1788

Catherine Stewart of Baltimore County sets forth by her Petition that early in the year 1786 she came a Widow into this County with four Small Children and took a House for the purpose of retailing Liquors but could not immediately obtain Licence - that soon after, she had occasion to go to Virginia to enquire after the effects of her husband who was killed in the year 1780 by a party of Refugees - that in her absence her family was
