BOLGIANO'S
Perfect Seed Potatoes

The United States Agricultural Department places their Tag of Inspection and Approval on every sack of SEED POTATOES Purchased from J. BOLGIANO & SON.

CERTIFICATE OF QUALITY

This is to certify that I have had charge of all the Seed Potatoes grown for J. Bolgiano & Son during the growing season. I have been with them since April 15th, looked after the selecting of their seed and the treating of the same, have also had charge of the spraying during the growing season. There was nothing planted but the very best selected seed, and nothing has been left undone to have them right. The crop is now being harvested, and the results of my work are most satisfactory. We are harvesting one of the largest crops ever grown in Frederick County, Maine, and of the finest quality, free from any disease and true to name. I spent some time in Washington, D. C., with the Horticultural Board before coming here and their idea of producing FIRST CLASS SEED have been carried out to the letter for J. Bolgiano & Son.

A BIT OF ADVICE

First Don't Delay. Second Don't Experiment.

If you suffer from backache, headaches or dizzy spells, if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning, if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble; they are recommended by thousands. Can residents desire more convincing proof than the statement of a citizen of this locality?

C. K. Evans, Sixth St., Denton, Md., says: "For two years I have seldom been without Doan's Kidney Pills and I use them every once in awhile. Being on the feet constantly tends to weaken the kidneys, and as a result my back became lame and painful. Sometimes it is hard for me to stoop. During the two years I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills, they have kept my kidneys normal and have never failed to rid me of attacks of backache."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, get Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Evans had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Not What It Was For.

When Miss Julia Bryant, daughter of William Cullen Bryant, was a little child, an aged lady who was for a time a neighbor of the poet and his family, had been shown into the parlor of the house, where she was waiting for first call. She found the small Julia seated on the floor with an illustrated volume of Milton in her lap. Although she knew, of course, that it must be the artist, not the author, in whom at that early age the child was interested, she asked genially by way of beginning an acquaintance:

"Reading poetry already, little girl?"

Julia looked up and regarded her gravely. Then she explained, with an air of politely correcting inexcusable ignorance:

"People don't read poetry. Papas write poetry, and mammas sing poetry, and little girls learn to say poetry, but nobody reads poetry. That isn't what it's for."

Legal English.

The circumlocution of legal documents is the penalty of having a bilingual language and descends to us from those countries when the English and the Normans were slowly amalgamating into one people. So the two races, in the market place or in social converse, to make their meaning clearer, joined a French word to an English or vice versa. That is why in the prayer book words so often run in couples: "Humble and lowly," "acknowledge and confess," "assemble and meet together." The English was for the English, the Norman-French for the French. Chaucer is a great user of such bilingual phrases: "Hunting and venerye," "wright and carpenter," "care and heed." And that is whence lawyers get such talk as "aid and abet," "will and testament" and "use and wont." London Opinion.

Travel and Comfort.

Comfort is only another term for habit. The older we grow the more "set" we become until any break in the routine of existence spells discomfort. One's slippers must be beside the bed and one's clothing disposed in the same hooks and chairs day after day, the water for shaving must be of the right temperature, breakfast is wanted, and so through the twenty-four hours. Now travel disarranges this routine, therefore it is wise to travel as little as possible. To fish for suppers in the water of a lake is accidental, to shave with cold water to breakfast at a time one elects is inconvenience and in general to move along the line of most resistance. Even good habits need discipline, and then for the pursuit of comfort leads to sluggishness and indecisiveness as the path of glory is said to lead to the grave. Chicago Tribune.

Dandies.

[illegible] The proper wearing of proper clothes is but part of the whole duty of a dandy man. A complete dandy is a dandy in his modes of life. Have you ever thought what a contribution part the dandies and dandies have played in history? Mark Antony, one of them, as were Alcibiades, Duke Duval, Buckingham, Byron, the poet.
