THERE'S two-fold beauty in this Overland Light Six —beauty in appearance —beauty in performance.

The flow of power is smooth. The car handles with unusual ease. It is a car which experienced motorists invariably approve.

Its riding comfort is also unusual—thanks to long cantilever rear springs that absorb all road shocks.

Not least of its advantages is its price—much less than that of any other six of similar specifications.

Call and inspect this Overland Light Six.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Editors THE OBSERVER,
Centreville, Md.

Messrs. Editors—One of the surprising features of the current politics in both parties in Maryland this year is the fact that there are already in the field so many candidates for offices which will not be voted upon for more than two years. Candidates for the nomination for governor in both parties are not only being "mentioned and discussed," but in several instances men of prominence and ambition to succeed Governor Harrington, are openly in the field and are making preparations for the primary fights which will not culminate until 1919. This is notably the case of John M. Dennis, now state treasurer, on the democratic side, and Ovington E. Weller on the Republican side, not to mention other ambitious citizens whose names at present are before the people. Not a few republicans, however, express the opinion that the nominees of their party in 1919, will be either Ex-Governor Goldsborough or Gen. W. Bladen Lowndes and not Mr. Weller, who was defeated by Governor Harrington two years ago.

Eastern Shoremen who come to Baltimore, and they are many in number, are already discussing the probable democratic nominee for Congress in the First district, to succeed Mr. Price next year. The consensus of opinion seems to be that Mr. Price will not again be a candidate and the field therefore will be open for others. The man most prominently mentioned here in that connection is Col. Albert W. Sisk, of Caroline county. Col. Sisk has for many years been one of the most faithful and efficient public servants in Maryland. He has been a member of the house of delegates, where he made an excellent record and since that time has served on several important and laborious non paying boards, which have done yeoman service for the people. He is now a member of the State Agricultural Board and also of the Educational Survey Commission. He is a man of the highest personal character and is well known throughout the state as an untiring worker for the public benefit. Eastern Shoremen say he would make an acceptable and strong candidate.

Baltimore democrats are pleased to learn that General Joseph B. Seth probably will be returned to the State Senate from Talbot county. Gen. Seth has a long and distinguished record as a legislator, both as a member and speaker of the house of delegates and also as a member and president of the state senate. His record in the General Assembly extends back over forty years and his work is spread on the statute books of Maryland to an extent greater than that of any other man since the Civil War. The whole state regardless of party, ought to welcome his return to Annapolis, should he decide to serve the people once more in the scenes of his former triumphs.

PAUL WINCHESTER.
