Now is the Time to Subscribe for Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine—As the January number, just issued, commences the seventh volume of this deservedly popular periodical. It is a brilliant Holiday Number, and the contents furnish a rich literary banquet. Noteworthy among the more solid articles are The Persecution of the Huguenots, by Alfred H. Guernsey; Antioch in Syria, by Godfrey A. Hudson; Caves and Cave-dwellers, by Arthur Grahame, etc. Those who enjoy lighter reading will be delighted with Chrysalis and Butterfly, The Governor's Dinner by Edward Everett Hale, Bebe, the Nailmaker's Daughter, by the author of Gideon's Rock, Miss Olive's Boys, by Mrs. Robert O'Reilly, etc., etc. Christmas Day, and From Thanksgiving to Christmas, and Mrs. Phryne's Santa Claus, are excellent and timely. Young people have not been overlooked, and will find pleasant reading in Freddie Taunton's Trust, Hide and Seek, Lost, etc., etc. There are poems by Bishop Ken, Gertrude Greenwood, and other writers of celebrity. Rev. Dr. Deems, who has retired from the editorial chair, will continue a contributor, and has an admirable article, entitled Pessimism and Sociability. Two new features, we see, have been introduced, Obituary Notices and Recreations for Sunday Afternoon, giving increased interest to the magazine. The 128 quarto pages abound with articles of great merit, and the illustrations which number about 100 are admirably executed. The price of a single copy is 25 cents; the annual subscription $3, or for six months $1.50; four months, $1. Address, Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

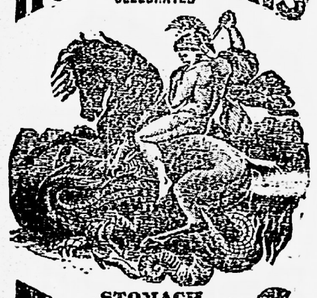
CELEBRATED



STOMACH
BITTERS

A stout backbone is as essential to physical health as to political consistency. For weakness of the back and disorders of the liver and kidneys, the tonic and moderate dietetic action of the Bitters is the one thing needful. Remember that the stomach is the main stay of every other organ, and that by invigorating the digestion with this preparation, the spinal column and all its dependencies are strengthened.

For Hostetter's ALMANAC for 1880 apply to Druggists and dealers generally.

Miscellaneous.

The World for 1880.

Democrats everywhere should inform themselves carefully alike of the action of the party throughout the country and of the movements of their Republican opponents. The failure to do this in 1876 contributed greatly to the loss by the Democracy of the fruits of the victory fairly won at the polls.

The year 1880 promises to be one of the most interesting and important years of the crowded and eventful century. It will witness a Presidential election which may result in establishing the Government of this country on the principles of its constitutional founders, or in permanently changing the relations of the States to the Federal power. No intelligent man can regard such an election with indifference. The World, as the only daily English newspaper published in the city of New York which upholds the doctrines of Constitutional Democracy, will steadily represent the Democratic party in this great canvass. It will do this in no spirit of servile partisanship, but temperately and firmly. As a newspaper The World, being the organ of no man or clique and no interest, will present the full and the fairest picture it can make of each day's passing history in the city, the State, the country and the world. It will aim hereafter as heretofore at accuracy first of all things; all that it publishes. No man, however humble, shall even be permitted truly to complain that he has been unjustly dealt with in the columns of The World. No interest, however powerful, shall be permitted truly to boast that it can bribe the fair criticism of The World.

During the past year The World has seen its daily circulation doubled and its weekly circulation pushed far beyond that of any other weekly newspaper in the country. This great increase has been won, as The World believes, by truthfulness, enterprise, ceaseless activity in collecting news and unfaltering loyalty to itself and to its readers in dealing with the questions of the day. It is our business, and it will be our endeavor that The World's record for 1880 may be written in the approbation and the support of many thousands more of new readers in all parts of this Indissoluble Union of Indestructible States.
