MISAPPREHENSION CORRECTED.

THE success which has attended the special treatment of affections of the Throat and Lungs, introduced by DR. ROBERT HUNTER, of New York, whose practical writings on the Respiratory Organs and the rational system of Inhalation, have been recently published, leads many persons to apply for "Agencies," as if "Inhalation" consisted of some "particular nostrum."

Such a misapprehension is calculated grossly to mislead the public, and Dr. Hunter therefore feels it to be due to himself and to the practice of Inhalation with which his name and reputation are identified to state, again, that "Inhalation," as advocated by him, is a system of treatment based on a correct knowledge of the condition of the patient, and cannot therefore be a subject for Agencies.

All persons desiring to consult or come under treatment, must apply personally or by letter to Dr. or his associate, Dr. H. MELVILLE, who will give full information regarding the treatment will be given, either to patients themselves or to physicians consulting on their cases without charge.

Those who are desirous of consulting may address either R. HUNTER M. D., or Mr. HUNTER & MELVILLE, 828 Broadway, New York. [may22-1t
