Continentals host at colorful holiday fete

"Absolutely charming" is the term for the Continental Christmas party, held in the Famous Ballroom, Monday evening.

Added to their personal charm were a flock of enhancing frocks, posed against a Christmas decor. They have tiny decorated trees, bearing each hostess' name, on the tables over which individuals presided.

They had Johnny Sparrow's orchestra for dancing, and the member of their Washington club (and husbands) to cater to as special guests.

The latter included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Sylvester Harris, Charles Jackson, Robert Ellis, Roy Lamar, Junius Galbert.

Mesdames Margaret Spriggs, Minnie Blair, Ellen Green, Mildred Avery, Thelma Berry and Louise D. Shaw.

Also, from Washington, Norman Kelly, Stanley Kelly, Curtis Mitchell and Harry Millenderg, and from Philadelphia, John Nicholson.

The dance was followed by a number of parties, including those given by Mrs. Helen Quarles for out-of-towners: Mrs. Helen Gattis and Dr. and Mrs. George Woodland.
