Judith Murray, Raymond Kitz exchange vows in Washington

With Lula Jones Garrett

Judith Ann Murray and Raymond Earl Kitz, white, both senior music majors at Morgan State College, were married in Washington, Monday.

The wedding took place in the home of family friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, of the Capital, instead of the home of her parents, here, what with Maryland having its ungodly regulations against issuing licenses to interracial couples.

The bride is the daughter of Edward Murray, principal of School No. 137, and Mrs. Murray. A debutante of 1954 she made her bow at the Me-De-So Cotillion of that year.

She is a promising young pianist and her husband, who specializes in the clarinet and saxophone is equally talented. The past summer he toured with Woody Herman's orchestra.

The marriage received the blessing of both families, with the bride receiving a beautiful letter from her mother-in-law-to be expressing her regret at not being able to attend the ceremony. She had just undergone surgery.

"He's a very fine boy. They have been friends for more than two years and seem certain of what they want and very happy," said the bride's mother.

For her marriage Miss Murray wore a champagne lace dress with satin panel at the back, matching hat and shoes.

She was given in marriage by her father and attended by Carolyn Newton. Thomas Williams was best man. The Rev. George Taylor of Washington officiated.

Miss Newton wore a sheath of green wool, with contrasting accessories.

MR. AND MRS. Monnie Milbourne of Sanford Place, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Delores Yvonne Hicks, to Leslie Stokes, this week.

Mr. Stokes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stokes, is a math major at Morgan State College. The bride-elect, a graduate of Coppin State Teachers College, is on the faculty of School No. 105.

A June wedding is planned.

MAY PINKETT held forth on Thursday at a perfectly delightful afternoon party in her Wabash Avenue home.

Her guests included:

Velva Ingram, Wynona Collins, Margaret McRae, Verda Welcome, Eunice Matthews; Celonia Walden, Beulah Westcott, Laura Waller, Dorothy Atkins, Veta Greig, Aray Laws, Olga Rodney, Alma Stubbs, Ada Veney, Zelda Orange and Ernestine Ashby.

* * *

ON MONDAY afternoon, Mrs. Elizabeth Jenkins charmingly entertained at luncheon in honor of Mrs. Irene Wisner, who with her husband, Elbert Wisner, are in this country from Morocco, North Africa, visiting their mother, Mrs. Genevieve Wisner.

A holiday motif was carried out in table setting and menu.

Guests were Mesdames Viola McCormick, Dottie Lee Ford, Clarice Tillman, Ella Pierce, Pearl Harris, Zola White, Genevieve Wisner and the honor guests.

The Wisners returned to Morocco on Thursday. He is an engineer consultant for the United States Air Force.

* * *

"THE WOMEN" played hostesses to their "Males" at a Sunday brunch in the home of the William Griggses.

Had so much fun with sippables and Hi Fi in the clubroom that the brunch drifted well into the evening.

The Women, you may know, are Beulah Darkins, president; Iona Collins, Bea Buaford, Bea Wright, Lydia Mussenden, Dot Proctor, Senora Reckling, Hurmione Hardin, Ann Pinkney, Doris Harris and Becky Griggs.

The men in their lives are, of course, Mal Darkins, John Collins, David Wright, Dr. Glenford Mussenden, Wiliam Proctor, Dr. Ralph Reckling, Luther Hardin, Preston Harris and Mr. Griggs.

* * *

AND THEN there was that cute party given on Saturday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Shoemaker for their son, Allen.

'Twas the younger set that made up the guests, who included:

Michael Jaggesar, Laurel Ali, Jon Love, Dudley Lee, Vernon Locklear, Melvin Carroll, Kenneth Strickner, Ernest Pumb, John Osborne, Walter Gill, Christopher Mitchell.

Cathy Murpoy, Merla Morris, Betty Brown, Alfreda Hughes, Sandra Reynolds, Sonoro Reckling.

Roberta Quarles, Ann Williams, Joyce Jones, Pat Coates, Ernestine Lewis, Pat Randolph, Audlyn Higgins and Joyce Gelatin.

THE SECOND ANNUAL New Year's Eve party of the Khayyamites, a young men's social club, was held Tuesday night at a private hall on Fulton Ave.

The party began around 11 p.m. and the gayety continued until late in the morning, featuring music, dancing, noise-making with horns, voice and feet.

The traditional "black eyed peas and hog jowls" were also on the menu.

Most of the club's 20 members and their wives were present, some with out-of-town guests, and the joint really jumped with everyone giving a joyous welcome to the New Year.

The members of the Khayyamites includes William Alexander, William Contee, John Crew, Robert Croxton, Glen DeBeal, Stuart Douglass, Frank Ellis; Christopher Foreman, William Gant, Linton George, Velvert Goldston, Francis Green, Robert Matthews, James Norris, Delacey Peters, John Saunders, Arthur Scribner, Dellavan Smith and Orville Swafford.

* * *

BUT WHO really whooped it up and fetched in the baby year in style were members of the Yacht Club.

'Twas their sixth successive hosting on New Year's Eve when they held forth at Biddle Hall this time.

Each member (Archie Jones, John C. Edwards, James Dinkins, Herman Midgett, George Brown, of this town, and Henry Williams of Washington) presided at a table . . . the latter filled to the hilt with food and beverages including the peas and herring.

They toasted the New Year with champagne, and each hour on the hour for the next four offered another toast in the bubbly.

About a hundred guests shared their supper, their champagne and their dancing to the music of the Dukes.

MEMBERS OF the recently inaugurated Pi chapter of Tau Gamma Delta Sorority, dined together as their holiday activity.

Dinner was in the home of Norma Scott, with Lucille Anderson, Christine Blanc, Gabrella McNair, Juanita Mills and Nannie Wimple attending.

Absent sorors were Ann Gregory and Emma Poe. Two-year-old Rhonda Wimple was their guest.

THE MATERS NO. 2 saw the New Year in at a gala affair in the club room of Ellen and Oscar Melvin's home.

There was food galore, including the good luck herring and black-eyed peas . . . along with the proper beverages.

And there were the proper togs to grace the affair, too. Bette Wooden, dancing with Bill Wooden in a blue embossed cotton cut very very low; Etheline and Tom Barland swinging . . . she in a white wool with full skirt and matching jacket.

Regina Simmons wearing black chiffon, cha-cha-ing with husband Johnnie.

Maxine Gaskins (Mrs. John) in an elegant velvet suit. Jessie Jones (with husband Ernest) chic in club crepe; and Juanita (Mrs. Robert) Harris, who wore a white embossed cotton imposed with yellow flowers.

Esther Hudson, in a chemise frock, entertained the group with a "birdland" along with her husband, Ralph. Mildred and William Parrott were about . . . she wearing a blue full-skirted party dress.

Joan Stevenson, in a cowl back sack frock, black hosiery with her pointed-toe shoes, solved, what with the job claiming her husband, George.

The hostess was pretty in brown trimmed with an orange cummerbund. Due to illness, Mandy and Robert Bynum and Margarete and Madison Walker were absent.

BY SATURDAY, the Maters had recuperated sufficiently to give a holiday party for their toddlers.

The party was in the club room of the Mondawmin Avenue home of the Robert Bynums.

After an afternoon of games, movies and goodies the small fry exchanged gifts.

Having fun at the party were: Robert Harris Jr., Mandy Bynum, Vicki Lou Jones, William H. Wooden, Joyce Harland, Angela Parrott;

Carol Melvin, John and Malcolm Gaskins and Donald P. Stevensons.

Tucked in with colds were Craig Simmons, Sharon Hudson and Cherise Walker.

KIDDIES PARTY— Members of the Kappa Silhouettes are shown here with some of the small tots who attended their annual Kiddie Christmas Party at the Douglas Memorial Community Church on Dec. 28. Mrs. Betty Knight was chairman of the Kappa Silhouettes, wives of members of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity. Mrs. Gwendolyn Brooks is president of the group.

HOLIDAY FUN of the Unique Club members included thoughtfulness of others. Here they make a cash donation to the Maryland Baptist Home. Presenting the check to Mrs. Bessie Lewis, matron, is Mrs. Nancy Repass, club president. From left to right are Mrs. Ruby Stanton, Mrs. Nannie Bradford, Mrs. Marita Brown and Mrs. Eva Wynn.

MR. AND MRS. KITZ

McDowell-Davis ceremony held

GLEN BURNIE — Miss Beverly Ann Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McDowell of Furnace Branch Road, became the bride of Robert Roe, Saturday afternoon.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Roe of Raleigh Road, Cedar Hill.

THE CEREMONY— which took place in the home of the bride's parents at four in the afternoon, was performed by Bishop A. Z. Lanares.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess gown of white Chantilly lace, styled with a slim bodice and full skirt.

The rounded neckline was edged with seed pearls. Her fingertip length veil of illusion was attached to a small crown of lace. She carried a white Bible edged in lace.

* * *

MRS. PHYLISS ANDERSON was her only attendant. Her gown of embroidered Egyptian material was fashioned with tiers of ruffles. She carried a white prayer book. Walter Coates was best man.

A reception followed the wedding.

Mrs. McDowell chose a gown of beige, embroidered in pearls and sequins, worn with a stole and matching accessories for her daughter's wedding.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in blue crepe with matching accessories.

Grant Gaither, Joe Armstead, Dick Gaither, Wilfred Matthews, Langston Hanis, Lawrence Wells.

IRANIAN TO SPEAK

Mohammed Zarmegar, Iranian journalist, will speak Wednesday evening at the Islamic Center.

Dynamic new program pledged by Alpha prexy, Frank Ellis

Pledging a dynamic new program "geared to the changing times" Frank J. Ellis was installed Monday night for his third term as president of Delta Lambda chapter, Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

The installation rites were held at the Alpha Oasis, 1206 Eutaw Pl., during the January meeting of the chapter.

"Our immediate concern must be the perpetual development of the human intellect and the loosening of the yoke oppression which holds a death grip and sabotages all efforts aimed at human dignity," Mr. Ellis said in his inaugural remarks.

"In these times we cannot crawl into an elite fraternal shell, hide our faces from reality, and satisfy ourselves with a social extravaganza. The shag and dance is not enough," he asserted.

INSTALLED AS the 1958 officers, in addition to Mr. Ellis were: Joseph B. Bracey, vice president; Arthur Spencer, secretary;

Also Frank Veney, treasurer; Frederic A. Jackson, financial secretary; Cliff Mackay, associate editor of Sphinx; the Rev. Edgar Ward, chaplain; Charles Anderson, sergeant-at-arms; Drs. Luna Mischoe and J. Douglas Shepperd; lay members on executive committee.

James Murphy conducted the installation.

As if underscoring Mr. Ellis' pledge of greater community service, the chapter admitted an impressive $1,600 scholarship program proposed by John F. Richardson III, chairman of the scholarship committee.

CHAIRMAN Wilbert Walker of the Reclamation Committee, revealed plans to publish a complete directory of Alpha men in the Baltimore area and the expansion of Delta Lambda membership to an all-time high of 150 members.

Appointment of a special housing committee, headed by Dr. Clifton Jones, spotlighted renewed interest in acquiring a Alpha House during 1958. Also on the committee are Frank Veney and Henry Parks.

The Alpha entry into the impending interfraternal basketball tournament was announced. Daniel "Pinky" Clark named as coach, will begin whipping his charges in shape next week.

* * *

ON THE squad will be Linton George, Orville Swafford, William Tradwell, Ellis Herbert, John Richardson, Joseph Yates, Mervin McCoy, Clifton Jones and R. Clarke Davis.

William Taylor will be the manager while Dr. Charles R. Campbell has consented to standby with the necessary arnica, bandages, digitalis and crutches.

The tournament is to be held at the Druid Hill Y with the Y membership drive as the beneficiary. Other Greek letter entries expressing interest include Kappa Alpha Psi, Omega Psi Phi and Phi Beta Sigma.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN GARY WILLIAMS
"It takes lots of patience"

Happy in love for 58 years

"When you're happy in love the time flies."

So say Mr. and Mrs. John Gary Williams, 2531 Calverton Heights, who have been married 58 years and make the above statement to explain why the years seem to have gone by so swiftly.

To be specific, Mrs. Williams says:

"It was way back there in 1899 on Dec. 27 when we were married and it seems just like yesterday."

Mrs. Williams was the former Miss Maggie Crawley.

* * *

BOTH SHE and Mr. Williams are natives of South Boston, Va., and the story of their romance reads like one in beautiful old story book.

It was told to the AFRO by the Williamses' only daughter, Mrs. Gladys Williams Roberts, who makes her home with the couple.

She says: "Mother was 15 and Dad was 18.

"He was a Spanish American War soldier when they met.

"He went away to Newport News, Va., to go in service there but before that mother promised to marry him.

Continuing the story, Mrs. Roberts said:

"Dad came back two years later and she was waiting for him."

* * *

AS ROMANCE goes, the young couple was married according to tradition at the home of the bride.

"He is retired now," his daughter revealed, "but he was in his barber shop at 1539 Pennsylvania Ave. for 40 years."

In 1946 Mr. Williams sold the shop and went home to take life easy with his wife and family.

Besides Mrs. Roberts there were two other children, now deceased, Weldon and Hugh Williams.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAMS have been members of Douglas Memorial Church for 70 years.

To conclude the story of an ideal romance, Mrs. Roberts, the daughter, has this to say:

"Mother and Dad are still in love but Mom often says it took a lot of patience."

Chi Eta Phi Sorority honors Mrs. Veney, nurse supervisor

MRS. ANN ARNOLD HEDGEMAN, assistant to the mayor of New York City, will be guest speaker at the 14th annual Ribbon Tea of the Eastside Community Center on March 2. The affair will be held at Dunbar High School.

Wearing a navy blue Cecil Chapman dress and a magnificent corsage of red roses sent by her husband, Mrs. Ada C. Veney was a glowing honoree as Chi Eta Phi sorors honored her, Sunday.

Mrs. Veney, recently promoted to assistant supervisor of secondary school nurses, was the guest of Gamma chapter at the annual Fellowship Tea held in the Douglas Memorial Church Parlors, at four in the afternoon.

Invocation and benediction were by the Rev. George Crawley Jr., pastor of St. Paul Baptist Church.

Mrs. Lucy Holt Jones played incidental classics. Mrs. Mary Robinson was the guest soloist.

* * *

GUEST SPEAKER for the occasion was Mrs. Lillian Parrott, principal of Douglass High School. Mrs. Veney previously held position there as secondary school nurse for 12 years. Mrs. Parrott stated: "Douglass High School Faculty hated to lose a good friend and a good helper. Mrs. Veney was always understanding when children came to her."

Mrs. Hazel Bailey was mistress of ceremonies and introduced the speakers.

Dr. Bernard Harris M. shrd members of the Board of School Commissioners, brought greetings. He gave a remarkable tribute to her life and character in the field of nursing.

Mrs. Mable Hawkins, national executive secretary of Chi Eta Phi Sorority, extended greetings. She is the sister of the honoree.

Presentations were made by Mrs. Dorothy W. Mills, basileus of Gamma Chapter. A beautiful desk set was presented by Mrs. D. Mills on behalf of the chapter for the outstanding achievements made in the field of professional nursing. Numerous telegrams and other gifts were received.

Mrs. Jessica Taylor, president of Provident Hospital Alumnae presented a gift certificate from the members of that organization.

Miss Phyllis Shamwell, chapter member, presented Mrs. L. Parrott with a white bound. Mrs. Parrott responded by saying "Gamma Chapter Chi Eta Phi Sorority Inc. should be commended for its beautiful tea for a worthy cause.

* * *

MRS. VENEY responded graciously and stated her achievement could not have been made without the help and thoughtfulness of others. She glowed behind her smile and mentioned the honor bestowed was appreciated highly.

Mrs. Bailey introduced the family, which included Mrs. Finetta Vessell, mother of honoree; Frank Veney, her husband; Mr. and Mrs. R. Harrison Vessells, Mrs. Lawson Vessells and Mrs. Ruth Vessells of Washington.

Mingled with the silver serving ice were the sorority colors, lemon yellow and pea green offering a beautiful setting for the tea.

The future nurses from Douglass High School acted as junior hostesses. They were Misses Clorie Byrd, Vivian Craig and Patrioia James. Senior hostesses were members of Gamma Chapter.

They included:

Sorors Annie Bass, Phyllis Shamwell, M. Fanida Friend, Hazel Bailey, Beatrice Beuford, Maezell Dickerson, national basileus of the sorority.

Sors Mary Fitchett, Mildred Gambrill, Mamie Green, Mabel Hawkins, Mildred Hughlett, Juanita Greene, Eddie Scott, Rose Lewis.

Sors M. Louise Lockerman, Lillian Slater, Agnes Williams, Vivian Pendleton, Constance Alston, Lucy Walker, Gloria Webb, Dorothie Mills and Earline Ford.

* * *

MRS. VENEY attended elementary and high school in Baltimore, graduated from Provident Hospital, obtained B.S. degree from Morgan College, matriculated with Loyola and NYU at which time she received her M.A. in education.

She has been ward supervisor at Provident Hospital and instructor in Nursing Arts. She then became secondary school nurse at Douglass High, where she remained until her present position.

Girl Scouts mark holiday

The Walbrook Neighborhood Liberty District Troop of Girl Scouts ushered in the holiday season with a program of carols and choral speaking held at Carven High under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Mapp.

The scouts sang most of the well known and favorite carols.

Participating in the program were:

Klain Thomas, Stephanie Brown, Pamela Sewell, Marjeta Taylor, Tama Meyers, Doris Pettie, Saundra Dow.

Yvonne Wiley, Roberta Truitt, Leona Burrello, Cynthia Brown, Montier Smothers.

LEADERS OF the troop are Mrs. Dorothy Mapp and Mrs. Mary Lee Felton. Each Girl Scout of that troop made a contribution to the baskets that were given to the needy.

All troops of the Walbrook Neighborhood contributed something for the Christmas baskets that were distributed by Christmas Eve.

* * *

BROWNIE Jr. High and Intermediate Scouts gathered at the Beth Tfiloh Hebrew Temple for a folk dance session. The session was in two parts, one for the Brownies and one in the late afternoon for the Jr. High and Intermediate Scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Leeland, who conducted the sessions are experts on folk dances around the world. Scouts from the entire Liberty District were asked to participate in the Listen, Watch, Now Dance affair.

This proved quite effective, for the girls were entertained while they also learned new dances from across the ocean. The couple, dressed in native Swiss clothing, made the dances so simple to do that had there been room the leaders would have gladly joined in the fun.

Walbrook troops that were present are: No. 1081, Mrs. Loretta Cumbo; No. 545, Mrs. Alice Ross; No. 1171, Mrs. Ozell Tyson; and No. 101, Mrs. Julia Martin.

Some of the girls present were:

Maria Clark, Veronica Clark, Carole Martin, Patricia Rideout, Marcia Smothers, Jaqueline Burke.

Andrea Ross, Fannie Pearson, Jean Williams, Mimi Frazier, Lynda Williams, Carolyn James, Cynthia Grooms, Beth Cryor.

* * *

BESIDES LEARNING about the great out-of-doors, and the care of the sick, teenage Scouts are also learning about good grooming.

In order to receive a "Good grooming" badge, Scouts of Troop No. 1011 made a field trip to Shirlee's Beauty Mart for first hand information on hair and skin care, nails, and make-up for the teenager.

Shirley Quarles, proprietor and hair stylist of the West North Avenue Salon stressed the fact that they were still young and heavy make-up was not at all necessary. However, a little makeup and a hairdo becoming the face did far more for a girl than the extreme hair styles and makeup shades.

Cleaning hair, face, and hands was discussed and shades of lipstick and polish were chosen for each girl according to her complexion.

GIRLS IN the troop are: Sandra Banfield, Treva Brown, Jackie Burke, Carole Martin, Maria Clark, Veronica Clark, Jackie Finney, Pat Rideout:

Fredine Sifford, Harradine Williams, Carole Shervington, Pat Miller, Marcia Smothers, Jill Collins and April Henson.

Mrs. Crawley dinner hostess

Mrs. Fannie L. Crawley of 1300 B. Eager St. entertained at a dinner party, Sunday.

Her guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames J. W. Reese, Dallas Garland.

Mesdames Bernice Bates, Cora Schumate, Agnes Williams, Mary Jones, Doris Bell, Beatrice Silva, Naomi Jenkin, Grace Beverley, Clara Little, Mary Coleman.

Robert Small, Jesse Moore, Clarence Gibbs, Jimmie Harris.
