BUSINESS NOTICES.

Merchants and others advertising by the year will be charged extra for advertisements out of their regular line of business.

☞ ARNOLD, indicted for the murder of Jas. A. Tarr, removed from Caroline county, has been lodged in Easton jail to await his trial, which commences on Monday next.

☞ A "sleeping beauty" is on exhibition in Nashville. Her name is Susan C. Gobso, her natal place is in Obion county, Tennessee, and her nap has now lasted eighteen years.

☞ An elderly gentleman inquired of us the other day—"What is worse than a scolding wife and a pair o squeaky boots?" After thinking some time we told him we didn't know unless it was "cheating the printer." He paid his subscription a year in advance!

☞ THE New York Observer, one of the best religious and secular papers in the country, makes splendid offers to subscribers. We have been receiving it for two years and can heartily recommend it as a family paper. The letters of Dr. Pine alone are worth the subscription price.

☞ A Democratic paper having asserted that "General Sherman is the coming man," the La Grange (Ga.) Reporter replies: "We shall be sorry if he comes this way again; we don't want to see him."

CONGRESS.—The adjourned meeting of the first session of the Fortieth Congress commenced on Thursday last and will end on the 30th of November. On Monday, the 2d day of December, the regular session will commence, when, it is understood, the President's message will be sent in, that being the commencing of the regular session.

☞ It is estimated, by competent judges, that the number of new buildings erected in Chicago during the present year will reach over 7,000, at a cost of from $8,000,000 to $9,000,000. The number would have been much larger but for the "eight hour strike" last spring, by which many contemplated contracts were deferred, owing to the uncertainties of labor.

☞ THE National Republican Executive Committee will meet in Washington on 11th of December, to decide upon the place of holding the next Presidential Nominating Convention. It is generally conceded that the West will be chosen, and a lively competition has sprung up between Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis. Next to the question of fixing a place, the most important subject before the committee will be the time for holding the convention.

THE LINCOLN ESTATE.—Mon. David Davis, administrator of the late Abraham Lincoln, made a final settlement of the estate at Springfield, Ill., on Friday of last week. After paying all the debts, there remained $110.294.62, which, divided among the widow and heirs, gives $36,765.30 to Mrs. Lincoln, and the same amount to each son. Robt. T. Lincoln has received his share, and also that of the minor heir, Thomas—"Tad." The amount due Mrs. Lincoln, less about $4,000 heretofore drawn, is subject to her order.

☞ An informal meeting of Democratic politicians was held at Wasnington on Monday, at which the Presidential question was discussed At the caucus it was stated that Gen. Grant had been sounded, and refused to accept any nomination from the Democratic party. The caucus then nominated Gen. Steedman for the position, and John Q. Adams, of Massachusetts for Vice President. General Sherman was considered too much under Republican influence, and Messrs Pendleton and Seymour not available.

FIRE.—On Thursday morning last the slaughter house and stabling, belonging to Mr. John W. Jump, and occupied by Messrs. W. Townsend and Jos. J. S. Nicolson, took fire, it is supposed, from a tallow candle being stuck up against the side of the slaughter house and left burning. The house is a loss to Mr. Jump and Mr. Nicolson lost a horse, a sleigh, a carriage, lot of provender and harness. Mr. Townsend's loss is said to be about one hundred dollars.—We think it high time that tallow candles were done away with, especially in out-buildings, when lanters are so easily obtained.

☞ An affectionate but playful wife in Springfield, Mass., sent a note to her husband recently, written in a disguised hand signed with a fictitious name, stating that she had often seen and admired him, and if he would inform her of a place of meeting she would go over to the rooms and they would become better acquainted.—Husband answered note at once, appointed time and place of meeting. Both parties met at the appointed time, and place, the lady heavily veiled, and proceeded to the rooms, where veil was removed, and a grand tableau not down in the bills ensued. Assurance made on the part of the husband that it was nothing but a joke, and that he knew it was her all the time: wife is having a stylish bonnet, new cloak, and elegant silk dress made.

We think her bougat off very cheap.

Have you a Cough, Cold, pain in the Chest, or Bronchitis? in fact, have you the premonitory symptoms of the "insatiate archer," Consumption? If so, know that relief is within your reach in the shape of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which in many cases where hope had fled, has snatched the victim from the yawning grave.

Fame and admiration weigh not a feather in the scale against friendship and love, for the heart languishes all the same.

Judge Goldsborough said were he to consult his own personal feelings he should adjourn the Court, but as it was the desire of the people to continue it he would wave personal feeling in the matter for the interest of the people, to which those present generally assented.

A PROGRESSIVE CHURCH.—The late meeting of the Bishops, Missionary delegates, &c., in New York, of the M. E. Church has revealed surprising statistics of the churches' progress The Centenary returns foot up seven millions—the gratest voluntary contribution ever made to religion in one year in the history of Christendom. The modest sum of one million was asked for. The Centenary year yielded an increase of members which surprised all—102,925; but the present ecclesiastical year shows a gain of 112,579—215,501 in two years, or over twenty per cent. on the membership of 1865. The increase of Church edifices for the year has been 676; of parsonages 256; of the regular ministerial force, 413 preachers; the local ministry by 333.

The New York Methodist advocates a Union Convention of Methodists, embracing all the different branches of the denomination, like that of the Presbyterian Union Convention, held recently in Philadelphia, to adjust all differences and remove all the barriers to connectional unity; but this, however much desired, can hardly be looked for until the present generation of embittered Southern spirits step out.

BASE INGRATITUDE.—An editor who occupied a room in a hotel, not a thousand miles distant, absented himself from town for a night. The house being crowded with guests, the obliging landlord put a stranger in the editor's bed.—This kindness the ungrateful fellow requited by scrawling upon a piece of paper, which he left on the table, the following rhyme:

"I slept in an editor's bed last night,
And others may say what they please:
I say there's one editor in the world
Who certainly takes his ease.
When I thought of my humble cot away,
I could not suppress a sigh,
But, thought I, as I rolled in that feather nest
How easy editor's lie."

PROCEEDINGS OF TALBOT COUNTY TEACHERS ASSOCIATION.—This Association met in the Public School room at Easton on Saturday (19th inst.), at half past one o'clock P. M, Dr. S. A Harrison, President pro tem., and J. T. Small, Secretary pro tem.

An election was then held for the office of Secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of H. M. Nichols, and resulted in the election of H. L. Atkinson.

The following order of Literary exercises was reported by the Committee appointed for the preparation of the same and adopted for the next meeting:

WISTRA'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quincy, and the numerous as well a dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs prevail in our changeable climate at all seasons of the year: few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints. Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsom to an extent not found in any other remedy: however severe the suffering: the application of this soothing, healing and wondering Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

Mr. John Bunto, of Baldwin, Chemung County, N. Y.—writes:

"I was urged by a neighbor to get one bottle of the Balsam for my wife, being assured by him that in case it did not produce good effects, he would pay for the bottle himself. On the strength of such practical evidence of its merits I procured a bottle. My wife at this time was so low with what the physicians termed Seated Consumption as to be unable to raise herself from the bed, coughing constantly and raising more or less blood. I commenced giving the Balsam as directed: and was so much pleased with its operation that I obtained another bottle, and continued giving it. Before this bottle was entirely used, she ceased coughing and was strong enough to sit up.—The fifth bottle entirely restored her to health, doing that which several Physicians had tried to do but had failed."

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP.

This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the Proprietor of Pulmonary Consumption, where it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the large cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. Price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Letters for advice should always be directed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office No. 15 North 6th Street Philadelphia, Pa.

"A REPOSITORY OF FASHION, PLEASURE, AND INSTRUCTION."

HARPER'S BAZAR.

The Publishers will commence, on November 1st, the issue of Harper's Bazar, a Weekly Illustrated Family Journal, devoted to Fashion and Home Literature. Their aim is twofold: to supply the existing need of a Weekly Fashion Newspaper, and to combine therewith a first-class literary journal, which will be indispensable to every household.

Arrangements have been made, at an immense cost, with the most celebrated of the Fashion Papers of Europe, especially with the famous Bazar of Berlin, which supplies the fashions to the leading journals of Paris, to furnish the same to them in advance, so that henceforth the fashions will appear in Harper's Bazar simultaneously with their publication in Paris and Berlin—an advantage enjoyed by no other journal in the country.

The patrons of Harper's Bazar will receive every fortnight large pattern plates, containing from forty to fifty full-sized patterns of ladies', misses', and children's bonnets, cloaks, dresses, under-clothing, and other articles, accompanied with the necessary descriptions and directions, and occasionally an elegant Colored Fashion Plate of the size of Harper's Weekly.

Harper's Bazar will contain 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superbne calendered paper, and will be published weekly.

"UNQUESTIONABLY THE BEST SUSTAINED WORK OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD."

HARPER'S
NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press.

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited.—Each Number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature—Trubner's Guide to American Literature, London.

We cannot account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

A New Era in Literature.

MR. FRANK LESLIE, one of the United States Commissioners to the Universal Exposition in Paris, has availed himself of his visit abroad to introduce some new and very interesting features in his popular publications. He has arranged with a number of the leading authors and artists of Europe to furnish Novels, Narratives and Engravings, which will appear originally in his publications, instead of at second hand, or through the stale expedient of what are called Advance Sheets, thus practically settling the copy right question by purchasing his literary material at first hand. This is a bold movement, and will prove to be a remunerative one, since "Honesty is the best policy." The first of these novelties is

ADVENTURES AMONG THE BRIGANDS
BY PIERCE EGAN, Esq.,

a narrative of Adventure in Italy, by that popular novelist and fascinating writer, which will commence in No. 129 of Frank Leslie's Chimney Corner

With No. 129 will also be given away a Magnificent Original Engraving.

STOP THIEF; OR,
THE MONKEY'S GRIP!

from the famous and popular painting of that name in the Paris Exposition, now the property of Paran Stevens, Esq., of New York.

$100 FOR TEN CENTS.

Only a few more subscribers are required to insure the speedy issue of the Great Illustrated Paper—

THE WEEKLY PRESS,

which in size and appearance will resemble

HARPER'S WEEKLY,

but in value will far transcend that publication.

The PRESS will be an embodiment of the spirit of the age.

Each department will sparkle with the genius of the most eminent writers of the day.

An original

SERIAL STORY

of the most brilliant character will be commenced in the first number.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS

will be entirely original and of the most attractive style and nature.

The great expense and labor involved in this enterprise render it necessary that we should start with an ENORMOUS CIRCULATION.

In order to do this we shall do as follows:—$10,000 in sums of $100, will be distributed through the first edition. To every given number of the papers $100 will be allotted. Every copy of the Press will be enclosed in a sealed wrapper so that the papers containing the greenbacks will not be known by their external appearance, and all purchasers will have an equal chance for the money and gifts.

Besides the $100 BILLS, orders will be enclosed in certain copies of the edition for the following
