National Republican Nominees.

FOR PRESIDENT,
Gen. Ulysses S. Grant.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
Hon. Schuyler Colfax.

ELECTORAL TICKET,
AT LARGE,
Hon. Henry H. Goldsborough,
Hon. John E. Smith.

DISTRICTS.
1st—David Bockson. 3d—Wm. I. Nicholls,
2d—Wm. M. Marine. 4th—H. Clay Naill,
5th—William J. Albert.

FOR CONGRESS
H. R. TORBERT,
OF CECIL COUNTY.

☞ Just as we were going to press last evening, about 8 o'clock, our attention was directed to a very singular black looking mark across the sky. It appeared to be about four feet wide—very regular in width—and spaning the heavens from the North-east to the South-west. It reminded one of a rain-bow, except in color.

☞ The advertisement of M. Emanuel will appear next week. It was unavoidably crowded out by those that were handed in previously. He has just returned from the cities with as large stock of goods as he ever before offered to this market. His variety of fall and winter goods, clothing, &c., is large.

☞ The advertisement of Mrs. E. A. Finch will appear next week. She has returned from the city with a large and well selected stock of millinery and fancy goods, and everything kept in her line of business, to which she invites the attention of the ladies.

☞ It will be seen this morning, that owing to a heavy press of advertising, we have been compelled to exclude nearly all reading matter from the inside of our paper. A numbes of advertisements have also been crowdeded out.

Snow Storm.—On Thursday last while Mr. Geo. W. Webb was traveling from Unionville to his home in New London, he was caught in a snow storm near Rev. J. D. Trostle's farm; snow falling to the depth of two inches in a few minutes.—Maryland Union, Sept. 24th.

We have inquired of a number of persons concerning the "snow storm" within a few miles of Liberty, but can find no one that knows anything at all about it, so we think the Union has been "sold."—Liberty Banner.

No, the Union has not been "sold," Mr. Banner. The storm which the Union's informant mistook for a "snow storm," was the cold breeze that lately blew from Maine and Vermont. It caused the cold chills to run over him, and he took it for granted that there was a "snow-storm" somewhere in the neighborhood. —Frederick Examiner.

Religious.—The Rev. D. Bush will preach in the Hall of the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow, (Sunday) morning and evening, at the usual hours.

Mr. Editor:—The reorganization of the Sons of Temperance in our midst revives the question as to whether the use of alcoholic stimulants, in a general sense, is a benefit or an injury. I would not for a moment impugn the motives of those who have originated this movement, for I believe them to be sincere and praiseworthy. But to show that arguments can be advanced in favor of the use of alcoholic liquors, I respectfully ask the publication of the following article which was taken from a Pennsylvania newspaper, published in the year 1817, with the remark that the reasons therein urged are as strong and applicable at the present day as when they were penned fifty years ago. Paul Read.

Apology for Drunkness.

"It appears from the public papers that the synod of Pittsburg has prohibited the use of ardent spirits and has thereby condemned drunkards to suffer everlasting thirst, for if they cannot get ardent spirits in this world, it is not probable they will obtain any in the world to come, however great their thirst may be. But with submission to the synod, we may venture to allege, that before it pronounced sentence calculated to place drunkards in purgatory before their time, it ought to have given them a fair trial. For whatever the merits or demerits of those may be, they are entitled by the constitution and the law to a trial by competent judges and a jury of their peers; and a drunkard has no peers is, above, or under the earth, except drunkards; therefore he cannot be condemned on constitutional and legal principles but by the verdict of a jury composed of twelve drunkards, they only being his peers. Yet in the case in question drunkards have been condemned without trial by a jury of their peers, and by judges incompetent to the task, being destitute of that experimental knowledge of the subject which would have led them, when deciding on drunkenness, to make a liberal allowance for the thirst of the drunkard—an important point in the case. And that a generous allowance ought to be made for the thirst of the drunkard will appear evident when the infinitely and operation of that thirst are taken into view. Now it is well known that there are men who have drank their horses, cows, sheep, hogs, houses and family, to quench their thirst, and still they are dry, extremely dry; and if they could have distilled their wives and children as easy as they can shall they by unkindness they would have drank them too. Surely the thirst of such men is entitled to serious attention. On these principles we move an arrest of judgment; and with the most profound respect, submit to the consideration of the venerable synod the following statement of the situation of drunkards, supported by facts within the knowledge of the Court. Drunkness has a legal and patriotic tendency. [illegible] employment, [illegible] stable, and [illegible] of the country they support the government [illegible] by paying more excise than any other class of citizens. Drunkenness promotes liberty and equality—because disposes the subject of it to spend all regards the laws and discipline, and brings down the proudest gentleman to a perfect level with the greatest ruffian, and renders their company equally agreeable and entertaining, as they are alike disposed to nonsense, idolatry and blasphemy. Drunkenness promotes legal science—because drunkards obtain and interesting knowledge of criminal jurisprudence, and a number of them study the penal statutes in their legal seminaries called jails and penitentiaries. Drunkenness promotes domestic government; for if you follow a drunkard home you will generally find him storming at his innocent, industrious and miserable wife and children, who stand before him with fear and trembling, who regard his will as the law and who are astonishing at the slightest inclination to the ear. Drunkenness is subservient to orthodoxy and virtue; because drunkards demonstrate the doctrine of human depravity and degradation by arguments the most convincing and unanswerable; and they display vice in an attitude and dress the most odious and disgusting. Drunkenness promotes religion in general and humility in particular—because some men have no religion until they obtain a stiff grog, and their religion increases in proportion to the quantity of spirits they imbibe, until they at length become so exceedingly devout and humble as to prostrate themselves on the ground, with such intensity of feeling, as for a long time to be unable to rise without friendly a sistance. Drunkenness circumscribes the agency of the prince of darkness—because his infernal majesty, from long experience, has so much confidence in drunkards, that they will directly or indirectly, ruin themselves and their families and cast a blighting influence on all around them, that he seldom interfers in the business; and whenever a drunkard appears in any company, the demon on duty pats on his hat and leaves the room as his presence is no longer necessary. Drunkenness prevents testimentary litigation and funeral mourning—because drunkards generally live their own lives and die their own executors and leave the world with the consent of their friends and neighbors. All which is respectfully submitted, in behalf of the thirsty, by their attorney in fact, Thorny Day.

☞ A large Volume would not contain the mass of testimony which has accumulated in favor of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry as a safe, efficient, and reliable remedy in curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease. Many of the cures are truly wonderful.

BOILS.

Like the volcano, Boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. To remove the cause of such suffering it is only necessary to vitalize the Blood by supplying it with its Life Element, Iron.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP,

(a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron) will do this effectually, and give strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

Extract of a Letter from Rev. Richard S. Eddy, of Bolton, Mass.

"For years I was a sufferer from Boils, so that my life became wearisome through their frequent and persistent recurrence: finally a carbuncle formed in the small of my back. During its progress large pieces of decomposed flesh were every day or two cut away, and the protstation and general disturbance of the system were great. Before I had recovered from this attack two smaller carbuncles broke out higher up, and I was again threatened with a recurrence of the sufferings to which I had so long been subjected. It was at this time that I commenced taking the PERUVIAN SYRUP. I continued taking it until I had used five bottles; since then I have had nothing of the kind. For years I was one of the greatest sufferers. Other medicines gave me partial and temporary relief, but this remarkable remedy, with a kind and intuitive sense, went directly to the root of the evil, and did its work with a thoroughness worthy of its established character."

☞ WOMAN.—Females, owing to the peculiar and important relations which they sustain, their peculiar organization, and the offices they perform, are subject to many sufferings. Freedom from these contribute in no small degree to their happiness and welfare, for none can be happy who are ill. Not only so, but no one of these various female complaints can long be suffered to run on without involving the general health of the individual, and ere long producing permanent sickness and premature decline.—Nor is it pleasant to consult a physician for the relief of these various delicate affections, and only upon the most urgent necessity will a true woman so far sacrifice her greatest charm as to do this. The sex will then thank us for placing in their hands simple specifics which will be found efficacious in relieving and curing almost every one of those troublesome complaints peculiar to the sex.

Helmbold's Extract of Buchu.—Hundreds suffer on in silence, and hundreds of others apply vainly to druggists and doctors, who either merely tantalize them with the hope of a cure or apply remedies which make them worse. I would not wish to assert anything that would do injustice to the afflicted, but I am obliged to say that although it may be produced from excessive exhaustion of the powers of life, by laborious employment, unwholesome air and food, profuse menstruation, the use of tea and coffee, and frequent childbirth, it is far oftener caused by direct irritation, applied to the mucous membrane of the vagina itself.

When reviewing the causes of these distressing complaints, it is most painful to contemplate the attendant evils consequent upon them. It is but simple justice to the subject to enumerate a few of the many additional causes which so largely affect the life, health, and happiness of women in all classes of society, and which, consequently, affect more or less directly, the welfare of the entire human family. The mania that exists for precocious education and marriage, causes the years that nature designed for corporeal development to be wasted and perverted in the restraints of dress, the early confinement of school, and especially in the unhealthy excitement of the ball-room. Thus with the body half-clothed, and the mind unduly excited by pleasure, perverting in midnight revel the hours designed by nature for sleep and rest, the work of destruction is half accomplished.

In consequence of this early strain upon her system, unnecessary effort is required by the delicate votary to retain her situation in school at a larger day, thus agravating the evil. When one excitement is over, another in prospective keeps the mind morbidly sensitive in impression, while the now constant restraint of fashionable dress, absolutely forbidding the exercise indispensable to the attainment and return of organic health and strength; the exposure to night air; the sudden change of temperature; the complete prostration produced by excessive dancing, must of necessity, produce their legitimate effect. At last, an early marriage caps the climax of misery, and the unfortunate one, hitherto so utterly regardless of the plain dictates and remonstrances of her delicate nature, becomes an unwilling subject of medical treatment. This is but a truthful picture of the experience of thousands of our young women.

Long before the ability to exercise the functions of the generative organs, they require an education of their peculiar nervous system, composed of what is called the tissue, which is, in common with the female breast and lips, evidently under the control of mental emotions and associations at an early period of life; and, as we shall subsequently see, these emotions, when excessive, lead, long before puberty, to habits which sap the very life of their victims ere nature has self-completed their development.

For Female Weakness and Debility, Whites or Leucorrhœa, Too Profuse Menstruation, Exhaustion, Too Long Continued Periods, for Prolapsus and Bearing Down, or Prolapsus Uteri, we offer the most perfect specific known: Helmbold's Compound Extract of Buchu. Directions for use, diet, and advice, accompany.

Females in every period of life, from infancy to extreme old age, will find it a remedy to aid nature in the discharge of its functions. Strength is the glory of manhood and womanhood. Helmbold's Extract of Buchu is more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron, infinitely safer, and more pleasant. Helmbold's extract Buchu, having received the indorsement of the most prominent physicians in the United States, is now offered to afflicted humanity as a certain cure for the following diseases and symptoms, from whatever cause originating: General Debility, Mental and Physical Depression, Irritability, Determination of Blood to the Head, Confused Ideas, Hysteria, General Irritability, Restlessness and Sleeplessness at Night, Absence of Muscular efficiency, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Low Spirits, Disorganization of Procreative Organs, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Sight, Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the recipe and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing, in perfect confidence, JOHN B. OGDEN,

POSTPONED.

FOR SALE,

A Superior Farm in Talbot County, Maryland,

Situated on Miles River, nearly opposite the beautiful town of St. Michaels, known as late the property of Richard S. Merryman, Esq., containing two hundred and seventy-five

MARINGO,

(275) Acres of Land.

It is nearly surrounded by Water, and for health, fulness, beauty of location, and fertility of soil, cannot be surpassed. The waters of Miles River abound in OYSTERS, TERRAPIN, and WILD FOWL. Indeed all the advantages and luxuries of a first class salt water situation can be had here in an eminent degree. Schools and churches are convenient, and the society of the neighborhood, for culture and refinement is unsurpassed. The farm contains a number of fine shore sites and from its proximity and easy access to the city of Baltimore, a considerable advance might be realized by dividing it into villa residences. If not sold on or before

Tuesday, 6th of October next, it will be offered at public sale in front of the Court House, in Easton, Maryland, on that day, between the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock, P. M. For further particulars apply to Thomas J. Clark, Esq., Easton, Md., or to the subscriber at the Pension Bureau, at Washington, D. C.

NOTICE

To Hotel keepers and all others who deal in Liquors.

For the information of all persons concerned, the following Act of the Legislature, passed March 24th, 1866, is published:

CHAPTER 191.

AN ACT prohibiting the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors in the several counties of the State on the day of election:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment, or any other place where liquors are sold, or for any person or persons directly or indirectly, to sell, barter, give or dispose of any spirituous or fermented liquors, ale or beer or intoxicating drinks of any kind, on the day of election hereafter to be held in the several counties of this State.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be liable to indictment by the Grand Jury of the county where the offence is committed, and shall upon conviction before any Judge of any of the Circuit Courts of this State, be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offence—one-half the fine shall be paid the informer, the other half to the County Commissioners for the use of public roads.

We should be happy to have you call and examine our stock, and if you wish to heighten our happiness, order the full suit, Over-coat included.

CARPETS, CARPETS, CARPETS.

THOMPSON & KERSEY'S Carpet Ware Room has just been stored again with a beautiful variety and style of English Brussels Carpets, Tapestry Ingrain Carpets, Extra Superfine Ingrain Carpets, Common Ingrain Carpets, Patent Venetian Carpets, Portland Venetian Carpets, Vienna Carpets, (entirely new goods) Cottage Carpets, Rag Carpets, Rugs, Drugets and Mats, 3-4, 4-4, 5-4, 6-4, 8-4 Oil Cloths, beautiful patterns for Halls and Passages.

We have, in a further advancement, (though that we would sell Carpets for a little less money than they should be bought for in the city at retail), the respectful attention, and hold ourselves ready to show our goods.

Our old customers and friends and other patrons will think we cannot fail to please.
