Miss Stephanie Fraser Betrothed to Dr. Fain

With Lula Jones Garrett

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Fraser announced, this week the engagement of their daughter, Stephanie, to Dr. Nelson A. Fain.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fain of Rogersville, Tenn. He received his D.D.S. degree in 1954 at the College of Dentistry, Howard University, having graduated from Johnson C. Smith University. He is a Kappa Alpha Psi man.

Maintains offices on North Avenue, here.

Miss Fraser, whose father is head of the department of science education at Morgan State College and director of the Morgan State National Science Foundation Summer Institute, is an honor graduate of that college.

She received a master's degree in 1954 from the Simmons College School of Library Science. She is a children's librarian in the Enoch Pratt Library, here. Her sorority affiliation is Alpha Kappa Alpha.

The engagement was announced on Saturday evening at a small gathering of friends at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fraser.

THE NATHANIEL HIGHTOWERS pin pointed the tenth anniversary of their marriage with a party in their Bateman Avenue home, Saturday night.

Guests gathered early, played cards. Stopped for an interval when the Rev. Robert Newbold Jr. gave his blessings to the couple. Went back to the games . . . until early a.m., when they turned to Evelyn's special Creole dish, chicken gumbo sile . . . tossed salad . . . more of the beverages which had flowed through the evening.

About for the celebration were:

Miss Ruth Russell, Mrs. Alice Kea, Jr., and Mrs. Ernest Lee, Dr. and Mrs. Purvis Williams of Washington, Dr. and Mrs. McKinley Reesby, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Frisby, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howard;

Daniel Spaulding, Mrs. Howard Hucles, Henry Wesley of Washington, who had been the Hightowers' best man at the wedding; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Payne;

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Crosby, Dr. and Mrs. George Spaulding, Miss Edna Brown, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newbold Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Mark Patterson;

Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Branson, Mr. and Mrs. David Cannon of Washington;

Rufus Cannon and Miss Mildred Southern, both of Washington, Mrs. Lillian Parrott and Mrs. Mildred Seaborne.

KAPPA CHAPTER, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority held its monthly meeting at the home of Soror Marie Lewis on Auchtentorly Terrace.

A most impressive installation service was conducted by Soror Florence Madison Hill of Philadelphia, Pa., who is national first vice president of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority.

The following officers were installed for the year 1958:

President, Mable C. Waters; first vice president, Mary Crump; second vice president, Mary Brittain; recording secretary, Emma H. Brown; Corresponding secretary, Thelma B. Jiggetts; financial secretary, Marion Ransome; treasurer, Margaret Johnson; journalist, Josephine E. Walker; and dean of pledgees, Marie Lewis.

Plans were discussed for a spring Cabaret party to be held for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund.

Hostesses for this meeting included Sorors Thelma B. Jiggetts, Marie Lewis, Gladys Palmer, and Josephine E. Wallace.

Members present were: Elaine W. Young, Marion Ransome, Mary Ames, Naomi Lee, Hazel Hyman, Odessa Howard, Jessie Nicholson, Mable C. Waters, Mary Crump, Gladys Ball, Emma H. Brown, Fannie Poulson, Margaret Johnson, Sarah Diggs, Wilhelmina Duvall, Evelyn D. Wilkey, Margaret Robinson, Ruth Robinson, Claudine Franks, and Pauline Brooks.

FROM RICHWOOD AVENUE, in Govans, comes item about a delightful surprise birthday party given by Regina and Johnnie Simmons in honor of Joan S. Stevenson, town schoolmarm.

The party lived up to that fast-growing reputation of Mr. Simmons (he's on the faculty of City College) for excellent party giving.

Miss Stevenson was completely surprised. She arrived at the party accompanied by her tall and handsome husband, George. They had dined out, and were returning to pick up baby, Donnie.

When they stepped inside, guests gave out with "happy birthday" while she smiled — and cried.

Pretty, she was in a chemise of black crepe.

Those in attendance were: Mrs. Mary Carter; Messrs. and Mesdames Thomas Barland, Charles Martin, William Wooden, David Thorne, Oscar Melvin, Bernard Maker, Robert Bynum, Ernest Jones;

Messrs. and Mesdames John Gaskins, Oliver Stern, Donald Dedson, Gilbert Stevenson, Bernard Wilmore, Russell Newby, James Owings, J. Phillip Simmons Sr.

Misses Vernice Greaves, Geraldine Newby, Reva Bryan, Sallie Coleman, Mae Leonard, Michele Holland.

Joseph Hall, Lloyd Russell, Edward Nesbitt, Cleveland Gillis, Joseph Hall, Robert Wilmore, Samuel Barnes, William Powers.

The guests showered her with gifts galore, among them lingerie, gloves and jewelry.

ON FRIDAY night, Joe and Leone Felton had a Cha Cha Cha party at their lovely Gwynn Falls Parkway home.

The funny thing about this dance, once you get in the swing, you just want to cha-cha cha all night — and that's exactly what happened.

What with Joe being busy with his movie camera, you'll be seeing the group, that is should you want to Joe and Leone's any time, soon.

About were Dr. and Mrs. Edward McDaniel, Mildred and Nathaniel McDaniels, Mary and Billy Bevans, Paleatine and Earl Anderson, Marian and William Dixon (they were here from Connecticut, are aunt and uncle to Leone);

Also, S. Leon Young, Joyce (Union) Lowman Smith, who service was conducted by Zenobia Hawkins, who gave out with solos of the dance (and what a dancer she is), Charles Hawkins, Kitty Peck, Russell Tarter and Daniel Dixon.

THOSE GOREN GALS held forth at an afternoon of bridge in the beautifully decorated club room of Antoinette Hill, a day or so ago.

And you should have seen (to say nothing of tasted) the elaborard hors d'oeuvres of lobster, shrimp, caviar, turkey, anchovies, etc.

Guests were Grace Hall, Daisy Josey and Charlotte Perry. Each received a purse size manicure set encased in red leather.

Taking first prize was Inez Bowyer, and second, Ethel Hall. Others playing were Ruth Blacke, Antoinette Hill, Vivian Owings, Gertrude Norris, Thelma Greene, Magdalene Rice and Alice Kager.

ADD TO pretty parties that supper given by the James Addisons in honor of their week-end house guests, Mrs. Marie Thacker and Mrs. Mae Saunders of Trenton, N.J.

Incidentally, it was James' birthday, and he was showered with novel gifts.

Guests included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Clifton Overton, George Pollard, William Ross, Albert Jacobs, Randolph Nelson.

Messrs. and Mesdames William Addison, James Hickman, Laurence White, Christo Waller, Julius McRae, William Turks;

Messrs. and Mesdames Edward Nottingham, Wesley McNeil, John Pinkett, Joseph Duvall, Vernon Johnson;

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith, Miss Debbie McDuffie, Roland Rogers and Horace Derricks.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY DAVIS were hosts at a gay party of friends at their Duvall Street home.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gaskin, Teaneck, N.J., and their son, Travor, and Miss Barbara German.

Also, Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Wright, Sammie Quinn, Theodore Gwaltney, Celestine Briscoe, James Alexander, Harry Davis, Clever Pogue, William Bailey, and Furman Templeton.

THE ALUMNI and Collegians of the Baltimore Chapter of Jack and Jill met and held election of officers before the various members returned to their various colleges.

New officers of the Alumni group are:

Shirley Lottier Hughes, president; Marcia Chapman, vice-president; Carole Troy, secretary.

New officers of the Collegians are: Bobby Young, president; Mahlon Oswell, vice-president; Merle Rawlings, secretary.

Blanche Hughes and Doris Oswell were hostesses for the two groups which met at the Hughes' Arunnah Ave. home.

OLD FRIENDS donned their choicest togs for that get-together that had a dual purpose, including the announcement of the engagement of Alice Ruthe Dodson and Phillip Purviance, Friday night.

The announcement was made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo D. Dodson of Ruxton Ave.

The bride-elect is a popular city school marm. Mr. Purviance is employed at Western Electric. Date for the wedding has not been set.

At the party were:

Betty and Wilfred Shelton, Sadie and Armstead Jenkins, Ellen and Glendi Johns, Althea and Bill Hines, Lillian and Joe Jones and Doris Gibson and George White.

MRS. J. ROEZNA RIDGLEY entertained a few friends at an egg-nog sip, Sunday night.

Actually, she asked them in to say thank you for their kindnesses during her recent bereavement (death of her husband, Cal Ridgely).

About were Mary Stokes, Julie Thomas, Lillian Manns, Gladys Holt, Lucy Smith, Molly Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyal Randolph;

Also, Mr. and Mrs. James McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Rad Hill of Oklahoma, Jay McKoy, Blanche McKay, Ada Smith, Fanny Garnette of New Jersey and Genesta Lane.

JOHN H. MURPHY Jr. gathered his office gang in his spacious club room for an evening of rollicking, Saturday night. Of course with the special brand of hostessing by Mrs. Murphy.

And did they have fun! About were Alice Carroll, James Williams, Bettye Phillips, Ora Culson;

Also Rebecca McMaster, Esther Yancey, Pauline Blackwell, Katherine Peck, Ottesa Dyson, Edna Rawlings, Susie Clark.

Missing guest: Me. I was over in East Baltimore having the redoubtable pleasure of garnering a traffic ticket and cussing mad!

THE CLOTHES LINE: A full, floor-length divided skirt of heavy black silk owned by Dr. Regina Goff intrigues me no end.

She wore it with an allover embroidery white blouse; Saturday evening, when she had a "conversation group" in . . . to share her friendship with Dr. Reza Ardesteh, who represents the Persian Government here in its human relations program and its supervision of its 2,500 students in this country; and Dr. and Mrs. Indu Di Boshi of India. He is on the staff of Mercy Hospital here.

Dr. Goff entertained the group in her "Iran" room (the furnishings of which she brought back from that country at the end of her U.S. mission there). . . . guests kicked off their shoes, settled comfortably on her divans or low, low hassocks . . . sipped her drinks and later supped on shrimp and rice concoction, etc.

Also there were Mr. and Mrs. Messrs. and Mesdames John Neally, Alvin Cooper;

Drs. and Mesdames William Garner, Simon Carter, Bernard Harris Jr., Ted Phifer, George Pendleton;

Drs. and Mesdames Percival Smith, Henry Welcome, George Woodland, Albert Burrell, Robert MacMillian;

Judge and Mrs. Robert Watts, Senator and Mrs. Harry Cole;

Mesdames Ti a Parker, Tillie Fair, Jean Maultsby, Nannie Bivens; Miss Dottie Miller;

Drs. Garland Hissell, Albert LaForest, John Chissell, W. Emerson Brown Jr., attorney; John Jenkins;

William Harris, Harold Jenifer, Richard Perkins, Walter Gant.

MR. AND MRS. WARREN HAYMON were married in Baltimore, recently. The bride is the former Miss Jacqueline Jean Campbell, of the faculty of School No. 163, and daughter of Mrs. Mary P. Campbell and the late Howard Campbell. Mr. Haymon, recently out of the Armed Forces, is the son of Mrs. Julia Thompson and the late Warren Haymoh.

PAUL KIRKPATRICK JR. turned quite a trick for a kid his age. At nine-days, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kirkpatrick, Sr., lost two honest-to-goodness teeth right in the front of his mouth! The Kirkpatricks live at 1626 N. Caroline St. This is their first child. Sorry you can't see the teeth but Honest they are there.

Deltas observe Founder's Day

Epsilon Sigma Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority celebrated Founder's Day in special ceremonies held at the Morgan Christian Center, with Soror Lelia Terry presiding.

Honored guest was Soror Vashi Murphy, Delta founder who spoke on the early ideals in the original 16 founders at Howard University. Mrs. Murphy stated that at the end of the Civil War there was not a single national organization among colored people to provide us with leadership. She stated that today we have national organizations fighting for our freedoms and we need to actively support them.

MRS. MURPHY urged Delta women to exercise their voting rights and wield influence in this critical fight for human rights and freedom. Mrs. Murphy further stated, "Wherever one Delta chapter exists, graduate or undergraduate, wherever one Delta family is established, there should grow an atmosphere of freedom, firm, unyielding, accepting no compromise."

A short business meeting was held and Soror Mary Pitts reported on the chapter's May Fashion Show held at the Armory, the Catonsville Armory, during May Week.

SPECIAL guests at the meeting were neophytes of the Alpha Gamma Chapter of Morgan State College. There were presented gifts from Epsilon Sigma.

Reports were also heard from Soror Frances Lucas and the committee who presented the Barrett School for Girls with 4 card tables and a variety of 10 games during December.

Council of the Knights of Pythian met with Mrs. Mary Anthony, Mrs. Ernestine Carter and Mrs. Geraldine Jones as hostesses.

Plans were made for a baby contest on Sunday, at Orchard Street Methodist Church.

Mrs. Anna Murry is chairman and Mrs. Anna W. Taylor, president.

Medical Auxiliary schedules five-point program for 1958

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Monumental City Medical Society gathered in the home of Mrs. Charles R. Davidson this month.

In keeping with the National Five-Point Program emphasizing Health, Education, Legislation, Community Needs, and Human Relations, and the National President's theme "To Foster Ideals of Better Living" th group listened to Mrs. Lena King Lee their guest speaker.

Well qualified to speak on any of the five points of the national program, she is a school principal, lawyer, civic leader, and the only woman member of the Mayor's Urban Renewal and Redevelopment Commission. Chatting informally, Mrs. Lee presented the purpose and tremendous scope of the Commission's activities.

Although its business is chiefly policy-making, the work of the Commission is closely interwoven with many of the city's departments and agencies. Members were urged to use all possible means available to them in helping to solve some of the problems which abound in the Slum Clearance and Redevelopment Areas.

MOVING pictures of their holiday party for their husbands were shown by the president, Mrs. Emerson C. Walden. The beautiful setting and striking Locks of the ladies were enhanced by the radiant colors in the film.

Plans were made for a raffle of a Webcor "Holiday" Portable Hi Fi and a $50 U.S. Savings Bond for the benefit of Provident Hospital and the Auxiliary's National Scholarship Fund. Members are looking forward to the next meeting when they will bring a guest to enjoy their hospitality and games.

New members welcomed by the group were Mrs. Bruce Benjamin, Mrs. J. Edwin Fassett, and Mrs. Elroy Younge.

HOSTESSES for the meeting were Mrs. Charles Davidson; Mrs. Bernard Harris Jr., Mrs. Bernard Harris Sr., Mrs. N. Alan Harris, Mrs. John H. Holmes, and Mrs. Lucius W. Leeper.

Other members attending were Mrs. George Page, Mrs. Audrey Butler, Mrs. Glendora P. Muxsenden, Mrs. Mansell Lawrence, Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Simon Carter, Mrs. Percival Smith, Mrs. John Braxton, and Mrs. H. Garland Chissell back from a tour of duty in the army with her husband.

If you are wondering what brought that marvelous gown worn by Miss Marian Anderson for her concert here, Monday night, up to $8,000 (other than being an exclusive design) was that it was of imported Belgian lace, each blossom hand embroidered with a seed pearl.

The gown, princess lined, was cut to all straight at the front and it flowed into a very slight flare at the bottom, but fitted from a torso point into a train at the back.

Built over heavy deep beige satin, the satin underlined and bordered the panel of the back.

But if the price tag of the dress floored you, you should check that double string of pearls and the only jewelry except the rings she wore.

If I go into the frocks that the WNM's and their guests wore at their cocktail dance Saturday night, I'm in for trouble . . . what with that slick disguise.

I'd have to talk about the chic black hip-bow perked frock donned by Ruth Jennifer, the oyster shaded affair elaborately embroidered in gold selected by Tillie Fair, the high-necked white wool sheath that sheathed Helen Glover, Ivy Harris' form-fitting green Merida Stokes' black with its bouffant skirt; Frances Wood's "Charleston" gown with its shivering rows of fringe . . . Oh, gosh!

What I (as I seldom do) should talk about is the food and drink . . . loaded to the hilt like a Roman banquet.

Having the figure, and having acquired the walk, cute Dorothy Booze tripped into the meeting of AKA's, Saturday night, in a high necked, red jersey sack. Pinely stopped the sorority session. Basileus Flesie Dedmond gave up. Stopped presiding to comment.

The chapter placed another $100 on its NAACP life membership; $600 on its national projects fund . . . brought the chapter to second place in national standing on the latter gift.

POT POURRI: The Rev. E. F. Jackson and his handsome schoolmarm bride, if not by the time you read this will prepare, if recently acquired $20,000 home on Sequoia Avenue. Young Dr. and Mrs. H. Garland Chissell will be next-door neighbors of Dr. and Mrs. J. Bradshaw Higgins on Powhatan Ave.

Dr. James S. Davidson has acquired a magnificent domicile on Cedric Avenue . . . and what goes girls, the personable young dentist has fetched his parents up to keep house for him! (The swank residences were all Barnhill Realty Company listings. Saw'em in the AFRO).

And speaking of new owners . . . Former priest Leonard Anderson transferred his interest in the St. George St. properties to Rev. Leon Leak, this week. Dr. and Mrs. William Garner will be Morgan Park area residents.

No one was more surprised than Dr. Sidney Zurne: and his Vivienne, Saturday, when twins arrived for them at Provident Hospital.

Brother and sister were so chagrined that physicians had discovered but one heartbeat. The young lady, weighing in at five pounds, eight and a half ounces, outdistanced her twin by 15 ounces.

They have been named Sharon and Aaron, respectively . . . brings the household to six members. Big Brother already being parents of two daughters.

St. James Episcopal Church's Flower Guild, presided over by Sadie Douglass, held forth at a fun night in the elegant club room of Dr. and Mrs. George McDonald, Tuesday evening.

Xaverian (Mrs. McD.). Mildred Murphy and Lula Patterson shared the hostessing. Inducted two new members: Rosebud Chisholm and Minerva Murphy.

Dr. Eugene Owens, who wed pretty Louise Harris, D.C. teacher, in the Capital, Saturday, gave her a '58 olds as a wedding gift.

But listen, yet. Her mother gifted her with their entire silver needs, including flat-ware and coffee-tea service and her, that provided electric equipment, from washing drying machine on. It took four rooms to hold friends' gifts.

He's the young physician who is doing such a magnificent job in the Green Street Health Center in South Baltimore.

When Dr. and Mrs. Carl Murphy's car conked out mid-Monday street en route to the Marian Anderson concert Monday night, holding up traffic . . . famed Mrs. Murphy to investigating police: "Just give him a ticket. This man, president of the AFRO-AMERICAN, and here without a drop of gas in his tank!"

They just re-routed traffic while he tramped for a can of the stuff that made the Cadillac go.

Incidentally, Dr. Murphy works a birthday today (Friday).

DATE DATA: Lillian Parrott is piloting the program of the soiree which will feature one of the affairs marking the golden anniversary of AKA by Epsilon Omega chapter, here.

The soiree, Career Vocational High School on the 26th at five in the afternoon, has the Debbie London Dancers, Marion Knox Lofton, contralto; and Dr. Bina Nelson of Biddle.

Iota chapter of Lambda Kappa Mu, observing Founder's Day, will have as speaker, Miss Edith Walker, director of elementary education in city schools. The Harmony Four, under direction of Mrs. Margaret McRae, and the Ladies Ensemble, directed by Mrs. Gloria Stokes, will provide the music.

Mt. Ararat Baptist Church is the place, 3:30 p.m. the time.

Alpha Zeta chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority's Founders' Day celebration is also on Sunday . . . 3 p.m. in the Madison Avenue branch YWCA.

The Baltimore Urban League's annual dinner has been scheduled for March 9 . . . with Dr. John Hope Franklin of Brooklyn College as speaker.

And the League's Auxiliary has set its annual Beaux Art Ball for March 28 . . . in Morgan College Refectory.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Gladys N. Eison to Pvt. Raymond Dozier, Jr., has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Eison of Baltimore. Miss Eison and Pvt. Dozier are both graduates of Hampton Institute. Date for the wedding has not been set.

THE WEDDING of Miss Lois Haley, music instructor, and Alfred Blackston, Morgan State College senior, was a social event in Annapolis, Md., recently.

Sharp Street Church's new Youth Fellowship will meet on Sunday afternoons at two.

PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK: Vernon Johnson, a mid-junior at Baltimore City College, and a right popular guy about town is this week's personality.

His popularity doesn't interfere with his grades, however. He still manages a B-plus average, with last term, a "95" in algebra, his favorite subject.

He's a good athlete, too, excelling in football, swimming and track . . . has a yen "to play in the Rose Bowl."

He is a member of Iota Kappa Kappy, Jack and Jill and Tots and Teens. Cruises about town in a yellow Plymouth.

He plans to study medicine, become a brain specialist.

His creed: "If you try hard enough you can accomplish
