"THE SECRETS OF THE GREAT CITY; A WORK DESCRIPTIVE OF THE VIRTUES AND THE VICES, THE MYSTERIES, MISERIES AND CRIMES OF NEW YORK CITY," is the title of a handsome volume, just issued by Jones Brothers & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

It tells how fortunes are made and lost in a day—how shrewd men are ruined in Wall street—how Countrymen are swindled by sharpers—how Ministers and Merchants are Black-mailed—how Dance Halls and Concert Saloons are Managed—how Gambling Houses and Lotteries are conducted—how Stock and Oil Companies originate, and how the Bubbles burst—and treats of New York, its people, its society, its rich, its poor, their life, their habits, their haunts and their peculiarities; of Churches, Theatres, Palaces, Hovels, Tenement Houses and Public Buildings; Editors, Judges, Lawyers, Brokers, Merchants, Mechanics and Sewing Girles; of Policemen, Detectives, Sailors, Firemen, News-Boys, Beggars, Thieves, Dead Beats, Swindlers, Gamblers and the Demi-Monde; of Hotels, Boarding Houses, Saloons, Beer Gardens, Club and Dance Houses; of Fifth Avenue, Broadway, the Bowery, Wall Street, the Five Points and Central Park; of Pawnbrokers, Roughs, Fortune Tellers, Quacks, Gift Enterprise and Humbugs; of all that is great, noble, generous, vicious, mysterious, brilliant, startling, genteel or shabby, and of all that is interesting and worthy of record in the great city.

As the Metropolitan Centre of the United States, New York city reflects all the good and evil of the land in their most intense forms. There is no man, however often he may have visited New York, who cannot learn from this work much regarding that great City and its many and mighty interests.

This book will be found especially valuable to those who expect to visit New York, and would shun its pitfalls, by studying it in their own homes, without cost or danger, and yet learn all.

This very interesting work is sold only by subscription, and the publishers want an agent in every county.

☞ The grading of the Md. & Del. Railroad between Hillsborough and Easton is progressing rapidly and the grading is expected to be completed to Easton by the middle of April. The employees on the road were paid off one day this week—much to their gratification. Owing to the great number of delays and disappointments on this road, since it was first commenced, some fears were entertained by the laborers that their pay would come up very short, but the promptness of their employers has gone very far towards restoring confidence and they entered upon their duties with renewed vigor. We hope the work will be pushed on with earnestness until it reaches Easton.

☞ We see that the Easton National Bank is undergoing painting and other repairs. The old door that leads into the President's room is intended to be shut up and a new one is cut, leading from the lobby. A new counter of a more modern style is also to be erected. When the whole work is done, the building will make a very neat appearance.—Mr. Wm. S. Collison is doing the wood work, and Messrs. Farris & Hall are doing the painting.

☞ MRS. VAN LEW, has been nominated by President Grant, for Postmistress of Richmond. It is quite a lucrative office and one of such weighty importance as that is not often bestowed on one of the gentler sex. It is said that Mrs. Van Lew rendered Gen. Grant valuable service during the war, and was outspoken on the side of the Union. It is thought the appointment will be confirmed by the Senate.

The New Windsor Bank Robbery.

TROUBLE ABOUT THE REWARD AMONG NEW YORK POLICEMEN.

On the night of the 23d of January last the New Windsor Bank of New Windsor, Carroll County, Maryland, was entered by burglars, and robbed of $125,000 worth of United States bonds, Southern States and railroad securities, and Maryland county and State funds. Information of the affair was telegraphed to this and other cities, and the fact that a reward of twenty-five per cent, was offered for the recovery of certain of the negotiable bonds. Of course all the detectives were on the qui vive, and a search was made for the thieves and the plunder. Nothing was learned of the robbers until about three weeks ago, when Captain John S. Young, commanding the detective force of this city, received information through a private source that two men, who had a short time before hired a room in the vicinity of Exchange place and Broad street, were offering United States bonds at private sale at a price below their market value.—There could be no question but that the bonds had been obtained in some dishonest manner.—How to get the bonds, however, was the question. The man who was endeavoring to sell them was only intrusted with one or two at a time, and should he be taken into custody, as a matter of course his confederate would make off with the remainder. Finally, Captain Young hit upon the following plan. He hired an office in the vicinity of the one occupied by the thieves, placed in it some furniture, and in the desk a quantity of counterfeit money. A trustworthy man was placed in charge, and negotiations were commenced. So well conducted were they that in a comparatively short space of time, the bargain was concluded, and on a certain day the bonds were to be delivered to the man, (whose name is withheld as he is not a member of the detective force.) At an hour named, Captain Young, who, in the meantime, had told Detective James Irving that it was more than probable that he might need his services, accompanied by that officer, proceeded down town to the locality named. On the way down Isaac Edesall, an acquaintance of Captain Young, who has been on many occasions employed by the latter, was met, and invited to accompany them, which he consented to do. The thieves were completely surprised, Detective Irving leaped through a window and seizing the arm of one of the men, who had drawn a pistol. The door was at the same moment dashed in by Captain Young and Edsall, and, after a brief struggle, the men were secured. The plan had succeeded to perfection. In the possession of the men were found $99 500 worth of negotiable bonds.

The thieves were taken to Police Headquarters, locked up, and in a day or two afterwards sent on to Carroll county, the bonds were restored to the bank officers, and as a reward Captain Young received the sum of $16,000. A portion of this was given by Captain Young to persons who had aided him in working up the case. Captain Young says he had promised Irving $100, without knowing really what the case would prove to be, but on ascertaining the extent of the reward, offered him $500. This the latter refused, declaring that he was entitled to more of the reward. Captain Young replied that as Irving had not had anything to do with working up the case, $500 was certainly a fair price for about two hours work. Irving still declined to receive the amount, and the matter was referred to the Board of Police Commissioners. Captain Young declared positively that he would not give up any more of the reward; that he had individually worked up the case, and had merely called on Irving to aid him in securing the men after the plot was ripe for execution.—He argued that he could easily have called to his assistance two or three officers from the neighboring police-station, who would have answered his purpose full as well.

On Saturday the Police Commissioners reached their final decision, which was that Captain Young should turn over to them all moneys received by him since January 1. This Captain Young refuses to do, and has accordingly made out his resignation, and will to-day hand it in to the Police Commissioners.

JACOB SCHEETZ—Dear Sir: It has given me pleasure to bear testimony of the efficacy of "Scheetz's Celebrated Bitter Cordial." My daughter, who has been afflicted for the last two years with Indigestion and Dyspepsia, for which she had the services of medical skill, and also tried various remedies without avail, was at last induced to try your "Celebrated Bitter Cordial," and I am happy to say her health has been entirely restored by its use. I would therefore recommend it to others suffering from the same cause, as I believe it to be an invaluable remedy in such cases.

Very respectfully,

BITTERS.—In the medical world, now-a-days, Bitters are all the rage. In one form or another, under one name or another, they and their staring advertisements are everywhere to be found, professing to cure all the ills flesh is heir to, from a bump on the head to the small pox. Of their efficacy in general we know nothing, but there is one variety concerning which we hear praise from all. We refer to Hoofland's German Bitters. This is not a mere preparation of some sort of liquor and bitter herbs and barks, but a Medicine designed for Diseases of the Stomach and Bowels, and of great power and usefulness. We have not made these assertions without consulting those who know, and are competent to judge, and they all fully endorse what we say.

The above remarks are copied from the Editorial columns of the "EAGLE," Poughkeepsie, N.Y. You will recollect that HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is entirely free from any alcoholic ingredients.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with pure Santa Cruz Rum, orange, anise, &c. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters; in cases where some Alcoholic Stimulant is necessary, and makes a preparation delightfully pleasant and agreeable.
