Lambda Kappa Mus mark Founder's Day

Iota chapter of Lambda Kappa Mu celebrated the founding of the sorority, here, Sunday.

* * *

THE CELEBRATION was held in the Mt. Ararat Baptist Church, and had as speaker, Miss Edith V. Walker, director of elementary education of city schools.

"Too many people are content to let well enough alone," Miss Walker told the group. "A balance should be achieved between the old and new. We are responsible for going forward.

"The person who makes hay while the sun shines makes it from the grass that has grown under other people's feet," said the educator.

* * *

MISS WALKER was introduced by Mrs. Olivia D. Bates. Other participants on the program included Mrs. Katheleen Newsome, who gave a brief history of the sorority; the Rev. Samuel B. Redd, who gave the invocation; the Rev. Samuel Carter, the benediction and Mrs. Mary D. Trotter, who sang.

Other musical selections were by the Harmony Trio, directed by Mrs. Margaret McRae, with Mrs. Lucille Marcus as accompanist; and the Ladies' Ensemble.

Phi Beta Sigma plans session

Zeta Sigma Chapter of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity held it's monthly meeting on Thursday, at the home of D. G. Franklin Phillips, and heard plans for the regional conference of the Eastern District, which meets, here in May.

A large number of visitors are expected to attend the meeting. The delegates to the annual conclave, which met in Dallas, Texas, month of December, made their reports, in which all agreed that the Convention was one of the most important from the standpoint of constructive legislation passed, that the organization has held in a long time.

President George D. Flemmings of Fort Worth, Texas and an officer of the NAACP made it clear in his annual address, that the members of the organization must dedicate themselves to the task of working for an America free of prejudice and discrimination.

THE HIGHLIGHT of the convention was the public meeting held in the City Auditorium with the principal speaker being the Rev. Joseph H. Jackson of Chicago, pastor of Olivet Baptist Church there.

Citations were given to three Sigma men who, during the year, have made outstanding records in their different fields of operation: Harold A. Stevens, appointed a judge in the Appelate Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Dr. William H. Pipes, appointed a guest professor of English and speech at Wayne University in Detroit and later appointed a regular professor of English and Speech at Michigan State University, Lansing, Mich., and the Rev. Joseph H. Jackson, pastor and distinguished clergyman, who has conducted preaching missions in Europe. He is president of the National Baptist Convention.

BEWARE COUGHS THAT HANG ON

FOLLOWING COLDS

A stubborn cough following a common cold may develop into chronic bronchitis—a condition far worse than the cold itself. Before it is too late relieve that cough with Creomulsion. Cough Syrup right now. Creomulsion stops the tickle, comforts raw throat membranes, clears the breathing passages, fights the cause of irritation—quickly. It's safer, too, because it is free of narcotics or antihistamines. Don't let that cough hang you down. Begin taking Creomulsion at once.

A.K.A's, Chipperettes upweek-end festivity

With Lula Jones Garrett

You can take your pick of fun-on-the-rocks, high brow entertainment or a sentimental journey, this week end, what with AKA setting up a three-day program, and the Chipperettes fetching their out-of-town sisters here for two days of play.

Plus the Curate of St. James Episcopal Church taking a bride in a high noon wedding Saturday, and the Rev. Julius Carroll, organist extraordinaire, being presented in a recital, the next afternoon.

* * *

THE SORORS of Epsilon Omega chapter are very excited over their plans . . . which mark the golden anniversary of the organization.

Not only will they pay homage to the Founders, but they plan to lay a few posies at the feet of those sorors who, for the past quarter-century, have carried on the program of the chapter.

They will have with them sorors from several near-by cities on these occasions.

But first, they will have fun with their town friends at a dance in the Alcazar on Friday night will dine on Saturday night at a closed banquet, will open their program to the public on Sunday at a soiree in the auditorium of the Carver Vocational High School.

* * *

THE BROTHERHOOD of St. James had a stag party for Father Edwin E. Smith, in the home of the Sam Phillipses on Thursday night.

The curate's bride-elect, as you probably know, is Miss Alma Franze.

* * *

CHIPPERETTES, whose annual "Snow Birds" set for Saturday night, in Unity Hall, will begin their festivities early, Friday night, to be exact, with a closed party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lottier. This affair will honor the representatives of their Buffalo chapter. Saturday afternoon they will play bridge at the same place.

Coming from Buffalo will be Vera Johnson, Venett Patterson, Carolyn Doughtery, Juanita Melford, and Calilta Jones, . . . and Carlita's husband, Leland.

The latter will be house guests of Frankie and Biddy Wood, and the four other girls will be houseguests of Louise and Miles Robinson.

And I am sure that you are already aware of the fact, Ladies, that your gowns for the Snow Ball WILL be white!

* * *

OH! LA! LA! The buffet the Simon Parkers offered at their party, Saturday night! Centered by a suckling pig (apple in the mouth and all) . . . surrounded by a myriad of other dishes . . . drinks!

The affair was the annual first-of-the-year party given by Mr. and Mrs. Parker, and had among guests:

Messrs. and Mesdames Theodore Randolph, Robert Croston, Douglas Brown, James Fuller, Eugene Mayo;

Messrs. and Mesdames Harvey King of Wilmington, Del., Grayville Melbourne, Charles Jones, Julius McNeal, Medford Reynolds, Leslie Bell;

Drs. and Mesdames Thurman O'Daniel, Albert La Fontaine, Raymond Hunt; Dr. Regina Goff, Cliff Mackay (Mrs. MacKay having been called to Atlanta by the death of her grandmother); Mrs. Florence Scott, Mrs. Lydia Francis, Josiah F. Henry, attorney.

CHARLES AND Carlton Bailey got together recently with their wives and really sprung a surprise on their sister, Ruth.

The occasion was the honoree's birthday and the place was the Brandish Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Bailey.

Ruth, who is on the faculty of school 116, was completely surprised.

When she arrived, the guests were already assembled. Her pretty smile lasted long after the "Happy Birthday" song had ended. However, she stopped long enough to lead the dances, gowned in a chic black sheath decorated with a tiny pearl collar.

The guests lived it up and the entire evening's proceedings were played back on Carlton's new tape recorder.

Those who were wined and dined in the beautifully decorated club cellar were:

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Choates, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Green, Mr. and Mrs. William Blake, Miss Ruth Bailey, Miss Alice Fields, Mrs. Bessie Chester, Miss Evelyn Burton, James Thomas, James Pulley, Melvin Mincey, and William Edwards.

THE CHARLES (Dolly) Robinson's home on Division was turned over to the youngsters on Saturday last, from 3 until 6, when one of their 4 sons, Charles Jr., a student at School No. 130, 8A class, and his only little sister, Corheada, student at School No. 103, 2nd grade, had their parties together.

Records and games of every description were enjoyed and the youngsters did themselves proud as they took over for the afternoon.

Punch, candy, cakes and varied fruits were served.

Those who came to help Charles and Corheada celebrate their respective birthdays were:

Lillie Mae and Christine Jackson, Jean Colby, Michele Johnson, Joan Colbert, Bonnie and Lisa Randolph;

Pamela Sewell, Arkley Johnson, Randolph Fortune, Eugene Banks, Baron and Van Lenr Blackwell, Earl and Warren Williams, Dorothy and Elmer Johnson;

Oliver, Vaughn and Henry Robinson, brother of the honorees; Alfred Briton, cousin to the honorees, and Michael Valentine.

Mrs. Levi Sewell, Mrs. Gertrude Williams, Mrs. Ruth Fortune, Mrs. Charles Ridgely, Mrs. Charles Rutkowell, Mrs. Lloyal Randolph, and Mrs. Bowen Jackson, assisted the youngsters as hostesses and were kept busy during the afternoon supervising the records and games.

Elaborately gowned hostesses presided at the reception for Virgian Anderson held at Fellowship House immediately after her concert at the Lyric, last week.

Mrs. Emma Bright and Dr. Labov Keefer, co-chairmen of the event, headed the receiving line. The Rev. Marcus G. Wood and Mrs. Hazel Elberg, co-chairmen of the Fellowship, and Mrs. Flossie Delmonde, basileus of the AKA Sorority, of which Marian Anderson is a member, introduced the guests to Miss Anderson.

Also in the receiving line were Mrs. Jeanette Holmes, cousin of the honor guest; Mrs. Louis Kohn, Dr. R. Hayes Spinder, Reuben R. Kramer, director of the Art Center at Fellowship, Mrs. P. D. G. Pennington, Mrs. Theresa Waters, Mrs. Raymond Hunt, Miss Jessie Colson and Miss Edith Gordon, from "Friends of Fellowship group."

Others assisting included Miss Aurelia Parker, Miss Bettye Williams, Mrs. Clarence Blound, Miss Mayme Tilghman, Mrs. Mamie Butcher;

Mrs. Rosetta Tilghman, Mrs. Grace Terry, Mrs. Hattie Powell; Mrs. Daniel Epps, Mrs. Frances Bell, Mrs. Elaine Robbins, Mrs. Anne Beadenkopf, Mrs. Henry Bergens, Miss Ethel Wise, Mrs. Margaret Buddin, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. Clarepce Roberts, and Miss Sandra Williams.

The guests were ushered from the main lounge into the International Doll Exhibit Room, presided over by the chairman of the "Dolls for Democracy," a Fellowship project, Mrs. Georgia Boston, Mrs. Gertrude Nifzuerg and Mrs. Adah Jenkins.

Refreshments were served by candle light in the club room by Robert Hoffenden, with Miss Grace Morse presiding at the punch bowl. All of the rooms were decorated in an array of palms and plants.

Among the out-of-town guests were:

Miss Ruth Fagley, of the staff of Philadelphia Fellowship House and her party, including Mr. and Mrs. James Buster, Mrs. Marie Johnson, and Mrs. Harry Reuben; Miss Joan Ohrenstein, director of Washington Fellowship House, with Miss Clara Williams of Harrisburg, Mrs. Verda Cates, Miss Terry Danley and Charles Mason of the Capital.

The visitors were dinner guests at the home of Miss Edwardina Brown preceding the concert.

POT-POURRI: Dr. and Mrs. J. E. T. Camper were in New Haven, Conn., this week, to welcome their newest grandchild, Jonathan David Cohn. Baby arrived Monday. Weighed 8½ pounds. The parents, the Edgar (Jean) Cohns are both law students at Yale . . . and new Mom will resume her studies as soon as baby is leavable.

Having a pleasant visit on the local front is Janet Evans, daughter of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Carroll of Sharp Street Methodist Church. She will be in the States for a year and then return to her assignment in Lima, Peru.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY COOPER, married in Faith Baptist Church, Baltimore, recently, are shown with their best man, Husen Paige, left; and matron of honor, Mrs. Bertha Dailey, right. The bride is the former Miss Dorothy Johnson.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS PARKER were married in Baltimore, Sunday. The bride is the former Miss Victoria Griffin.

MRS. EMMA BRINKLEY, of Philadelphia, director of the Middle Atlantic Region of Kappa Alpha, will be speaker at the banquet celebrating the 50th anniversary of the sorority, in Baltimore tomorrow (Saturday) night. The banquet will be held in the Madison Avenue Branch YWCA.

Virginia Manning, who has been holding down a teaching post in Washington, will be teaching in this city as of the February semester.

Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Dillard has as house guest, Mrs. William MacNeil, who is home on leave from Monrovia, where he is a civil engineer. Mrs. Dillard entertained at cards for her on Friday evening.

That wealthy Bishop, suspected of having purchased the hundred-thousand-plus. Sequoia property, has, in reality, purchased a Forest Avenue place.

YOU CAN'T PRINT THAT: The town is sitting on edge waiting for the wife of one of its better known business (sports) men to take a jaunt into court. One of the city's prettiest young matrons and her "mystery" baby will be concerned.

Her veteran husband (being the gentleman he is) has wiped his hands, given her the heave-ho . . . without fanfare.

TO BREAK the tension during exams, Bill Stanford, math and science professor at Coppin State Teachers' College had his fifth year students (those college grads who cram four years into one) in for lunch at his Ruxton Ave. home Monday. With Mrs. Standford and his sister, they entertained on creamed chicken in patty shells and all the trimmings.

As the group relaxed in the club cellar ("Just something I put together in my spare time" says Mr. Standford) music from the Hi-Fi flowed throughout the house including the latest in Rock and Roll.
