MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE MURPHY

United House of Prayer scene of Murphy-Thompson ceremony

Several hundred guests gathered in the United House of Prayer for All People, Sunday afternoon, to witness the exchange of vows between Miss Elizabeth Thompson and Lawrence Murphy.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Susie Thompson Dennis of this city and Spurgeon Thomson of Newport News, Va.

The ceremony was performed by Elder Ward Mobley.

MISS THOMPSON, chose a ballerina - length gown of white lace, for her marriage. Her finger-tip length veil of illusion was attached to a coronet, and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Mrs. Vashti Robinson served as matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Catherine Grier, Mrs. Sarah Reed, Mrs. Thelma McBride of Newport News, Mrs. Laura Jones and Mrs. Arlie Robinson.

Their gowns of pasted hued taffeta were enhanced with matching accessories, and they carried bouquets of vari-colored flowers.

MR. MURPHY, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Murphy of Wilmington, N.C., had as best man, Lowell Thompson of Newport News, Va.

Ushers were Excell Grier, James Grier, William Wright, James Levis and Samuel Jennings. All wore formal attire in midnight blue.

Flower girl was Anna Trichett, cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Thompson was gowned in pink beige lace.

A reception followed the ceremony.

MRS. MARIAN BEASLEY

Poetess is talented composer and lyricist

A Maryland poetess is Mrs. Marian Beasley, 1938 McCulloh St., who has been jotting down verses for 28 years.

She has endeared herself to all who know her by reading her rhymes to friends and neighbors who always enjoy them.

However, the vivacious lady has yet other talents. She is an accomplished composer and writes the words to her music.

One of the compositions which seem to match her jolly, rollicking personality is called "The Ding-a-ling-a Man."

It is an ice cream song. Mrs. Beasley says, and was written to immortalize the ice cream man who rings his bell for the ones and ice cold treats.

According to Mrs. Beasley, the song is written in jazz time, and skips along happily to symbolize both the happiness of the pop-sickle man and the little tots.

MRS. BEASLEY'S piano playing does not stop with ragtime and jazz, it goes deeper than that.

She has been pianist at Mt. Oliver Christian Church since 1940, and was at one time the pianist at Bethel AME Church.

Possessed of many more talents, Mrs. Beasley names "poetings" follows:

"This beautiful world we all came,
Without any money and without any fame.
To me you all look just the same,
No matter what color or what be your name.
When you get sunshine, I get it too,
When it rains on me it rains on you.
Christ died for people in His name,
Were sent to earth to be the same.

The Benjamin Crowners of Galesville wed 50 years

By ELOISE RICHARDSON

GALESVILLE, Md. — Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Crowner Sr., repeated their marriage vows after 50 years of wedded life on Sunday at the newly-acquired Community Center.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Jos. S. Grant, the pastor of Mount Olive AME Church at Annapolis, The Rev. William Woodfield offered prayer.

Mrs. Helen Smothers, principal of the Ralph Bunche Elementary School, and "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony and Mrs. William H. Richardson sang Malotte's "Lord's Prayer" afterwards.

A poem was dedicated to the couple by Mrs. Jacob Pindell of Annapolis.

Those in the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Crowner were Mrs. Lelia McDaniel of Baltimore, a sister of Mrs. Crowner, and James Crowner, a son of the couple.

THE LONG table, which was beautifully decorated in lace and an especially arranged centerpiece, of golden-colored gladiolas, was festively laden with sliced turkey, country-cured ham, stuffed eggs, tiny rolls, a variety of sheet cake, punch and other delicacies, served buffet style.

Another table was centered by a two-tiered wedding cake denoting 50 years of marriage with two tall golden-tinted tapers on each side.

Mrs. Crowner was dressed in blue lace and wore two orchid corsages. One was presented to her by Mrs. William Woodfield.

The Crowners received loads of gifts and $200 in money. Fifty dollars of this was a gift from the Woodfields.

The more than 500 guests were received by Mesdames Harriet Hull and Hattie Foote and Messrs. Clifton and Alexander Crowner.

The guest book was kept by Misses Elizabeth and Olivia Hull while Mrs. Henrietta Crowner and Miss Mary Ida Sellman received the gifts.

Those who poured were Mrs. Martha Watkins and Miss Constance Crowner. The serving was done by Mesdames Edith and Nannie Crowner, Margaret Ann Watkins, Pauline White, Flora Andrews of Annapolis and Mary Sellman.

YWCA News

The members of the Madison Avenue Branch YWCA can look ahead with great enthusiasm to a varied winter activities program.

A number of highly skilled part - time instructors have been appointed to give you the maximum enjoyment of lessons received from your membership and small class fees.

Mrs. Marie Goembel will teach the newest methods of oil painting while Mrs. Croxton, creator of Ruth "J" Hats, will be on hand to show every lady how to use her leisure time effectively with salvage crafts making old sweaters look like millions.

If you want to go modern you'll have opportunity to own original chemise dresses and coats.

If you prefer not to use your hands then give your feet a chance and learn the latest in bowling, ballroom or modern dance from instructors Wednesday, Day, Williams and Coleman.

The new winter program is planned for the whole family every evening Monday through Thursday 7-11 p.m. Activities are offered for adults.

Teen-agers can enjoy club activities and recreational games daily from 3-6 p.m. and everyone knows that Saturday is children's day (ages 5-14 yrs.) ballet, tap, dramatics and bowling.

For further information call Miss Allen — MA 3-6443. The YWCA is a Red Feather service.

GOLDEN CROWN — The Crown Club met with Mrs. Alice Leselie, this week and elected the following officers:

REMOVE WASTE NOT GOOD FOOD

Here's a secret millions have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the wonderful different chewing-gum laxative.

FEEN-A-MINT is different because you chew it. It's different, too, because it removes mostly waste—not good food. FEEN-A-MINT does not work in the stomach, where food is being digested. That's why it does not take away a lot of the good food you need for energy.

Doctors know that FEEN-A-MINT works chiefly in the lower bowel, removes mostly waste, not good food! And it's non-irritating, too.

So to feel like a million, chew delicious FEEN-A-MINT at bedtime. 24-also small and economy sizes.

Kick-off dinner opens YM spring campaign

The spring membership drive of the Druid Hill YMCA with a goal this year of $11,500 will open Feb. 10 with a kick-off dinner to spark the campaign which continues through the month.

Final plans for the dinner were made at a meeting of the membership steering committee Tuesday night.

Claude (Buddy) Young, football notable and a member of the Baltimore Colts front office, and Henry G. Parks Jr., president of the Park Sausage Company, are co-chairmen of the campaign.

MR. YOUNG told steering committee members Tuesday that he has every reason to believe the drive this year will reach its quota.

Theme for the spring membership effort is centered with each conference headed by a commisioner.

The five conference commissioners and the conferences they head are:

Frank Ellis, the Big Ten; Augustus Knox, Independent; Bernard Harris Sr., Ivy League; Frank R. Veney, the Big Eight, and Roger Johnson, the Pacific Coast.

A number of prominent Baltimoreans have agreed to serve as honorary chairmen of campaign, according to James Person, Y membership secretary.

SOCIAL EIGHT — The club met in the home of Mrs. Fannie Jones, 2301 Arunah Ave., this week. The next session will be with Mrs. Mable Lawson of 1929 Mosher St. Mrs. Lawson is president of the club.

Lucky Pic money will help build new church

"Oh my, it's wonderful I never won anything in my life. I am delighted."

That was the way Mrs. Arnella Ennis, 2107 Whittier Ave., felt about winning the AFRO's Lucky Picture money.

An organist at Pentecost Baptist Church, Mrs. Ennis was among a group of persons whose picture was taken at groundbreaking ceremonies for a new church home at 1608 Poplar Grove St.

The church is moving from its old location at Madison Ave. and Biddle St. because of a redevelopment project.

When the picture of the ceremonies appeared in Friday's edition there was a circle about the head of Mrs. Ennis.

That meant that she had won $5 as the AFRO's latest Lucky Picture winner.

While Mrs. Ennis serves as an organist at the church, she is and has been a member of Ames Methodist Church since she was 15-years-old.

MRS. ENNIS commented, "I've already donated it (the money) to this (Pentecost) church because they are building."

Perhaps the name, "Ennis," strikes a familiar note. If it does, you are right.

Mrs. Ennis is "Mom" to the sultry singer, Ethel Ennis and Andrew Ennis, 19-year-old tenor-saxman with The "Tune Makers."

Although she has never been in the entertainment field, Mrs. Ennis says she is "delighted" with the choice of her children.

"I always felt that whatever they wanted to do was what I wanted to help them do," she says.

MRS. ENNIS is employed as a saleslady in a Gay St. department store where she has worked since April of 1957.

You can be the subject of the AFRO Lucky Pic.

All you have to do is be in the right place at the right time to be photographed.

If your picture is encircled when it appears in the paper, you are entitled to $5.

In order to claim the money, you must appear at the AFRO city desk before noon of the next publication date.

The Sarah O. Collins Guild of Mt. Winans Methodist Church presented the Youth Choir of Mt. Winans First Baptist Church, on Sunday evening. Mrs. James Williams was organist.

The sponsors of the affair were Mrs. Janet Williams, Mrs. Hattie Burley and the Rev. Albert Hammond Jr., pastor of the Mt. Winans Church.

Mt. Winans Methodist Church was the guest of St. John's Methodist Church Sunday, to help the Everyoody Choir celebrate the fifth anniversary.

The St. John's Church is in Palapsco Park.

Mrs. Shirley Harris was organist with the guest group.

TONY EVERETT Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carter, was Baptized Sunday at Mt. Winans Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker are the Godparents.

On the same Sunday afternoon, Kyra Deborah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellicott Ross, was baptized at St. Cecelia's Catholic Church.

William Ross and Mrs. Deborah Harris, are Godparents.

I have to leave out the thank the persons who wrote in congratulating the boys of 793 sub-station for their excellent service, mangers and conduct.

In years gone by James Murphy always said the AFRO teaches a boy how to make the approach, what to say and how to say it — make your sale and hurry to your next customer.

Our boys are not very old, but they are taking their training well.

James Hawkins, Tinningson Saunder, Joseph Bikitro, Mrs. Blanch Christian, Mrs. Sarah Bell and others are watching these boys climb steadily and honestly.

A NEW ROOF was raised over the Star of Bethlehem AME Church by the Trustees Sunday.

The new roof cost $400 and the 26 members of the Trustees Aide presented the Trustees with $100 to help with the payments.

ANNAPOLIS SPINGS

By ELOISE RICHARDSON

Members of the Anne Arundel County Teachers' Association used foresight when they took advantage of the opportunity to have E. Frederic Morrow to speak to them last Saturday at their annual luncheon in Carvel Hall.

Mr. Morrow was not just "another speaker," but a speaker who gave each teacher a keen sense of responsibility toward each child in the task of preparing him for living in an integrated world.

He tabooed, in a large measure, the old saying "it is because of our race or color" that we are not acceptable for many jobs or positions in certain fields.

He also pointed out the need for knowing what to do with an education after earning it, stating that having a diploma is not enough to qualify for a job.

HE STRESSED the importance of ridding the race of deep-rooted inferiority. We cannot help but agree with Mr. Morrow for we find inferiority prevalent even among the educated group.

We could use the term "miseducated" at times, for education should not be just a tool in our lives, but a refining a world view, education should serve to become a part of our very being.

As long as it is looked upon as a tool to gain entrance into a door only, we are never secure.

THE BEAUTIFUL voice of Joyce McMillan, accompanied by Alma Hilliard, lent a delightful atmosphere to the cultural setting of the occasion.

Both Misses Esther Hamilton, president; and Jean Queen, who introduced the speaker, were very charming in their presentations.

It was impressive seeing four veteran teachers receive awards for 25 or more years of service in the teaching field. They must have given much of themselves to have been in the fold so long.

They were Mesdames Mary Queen, Antoinette Davis, Matilda Harrison and Rachel Brown.

Mrs. Irene Mills very sweetly set up a keynote of appreciation when she presented a gift to Everett G. Pettigrew from the group.

John M. Weatherford presented the superintendent of schools, Dr. David S. Jenkins, who made awards to the honorees.

Among those at the speaker's table were Dr. and Mrs. David S. Jenkins, the Rev. and Mrs. William E. Brown, Dr. Richard Weigle and Dr. Aris T. Allen, members of the Anne Arundel County School Board, and Leon White, president of the Anne Arundel County PTA.

The delicious luncheon was planned by Mrs. Freda Magruder, chairman of the social committee.

Other officers are:

Miss Dorothy Taylor, recording secretary; Mrs. Omega Watkins, corresponding secretary; Philip Brown, treasurer.

Other officers are:

Mrs. Rose Wiseman, publicity; Mrs. Mary V. Wiseman, legislative; Joseph W. Taylor, resolutions; Mrs. Hannah Chambers, necrology; Mrs. Marvenise Poole, scholarship; Harry Martin, teacher welfare, and Miss Mary Isaac, auditing.

THE EXECUTIVE Board of the Anne Arundel County Branch NAACP met on Monday night to set up plans for its coming Voters' Registration Campaign.

Charles Michael, who serves as a worker with the Rev. John L. Tilley, head of the Voters' Registration Campaign in Baltimore, met with the body to discuss ways of setting up the local group.

When the campaign gets underway, the plan is to start working in the city of Annapolis, advancing outwardly to surrounding areas during the progress of the work.

When the branch held its monthly meeting at Glen Burnie at the John Wesley Methodist Church, of which the Rev. Silas Mack is pastor, the Rev. A. B. Powell, pastor of the Mount Moriah AME Church, was the main speaker.

Music was furnished by the Mount Moriah Choir, the church under the direction of Hamilton Hines. Mrs. Henrietta Johnson, vice president, presided. Mrs. Lulu Hardesty is president.

FOUNDERS' Day and Brotherhood Week will be observed at the Parole Elementary School PTA meeting on Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. George D. Leydic Jr. of Severna Park, president of the County Council of the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers, will discuss the theme of "Brotherhood, Founders' Dream."

Music will be furnished by the school chorus under the direction of Paul Neal. Among selections to be sung will be "Invocation," "Brotherhood," and "No Man Is An Island."

Former presidents, who have served the Parole PTA, will be honored on the same evening. They are Mesdames Catherine Larkins, Catherine Pindell, Adele Brooks and Rosie Blake and Messrs. John Larkins, Booker Gunn and Albert Makell.

The honorees will be introduced by Walter S. Mills, principal. The speaker will be presented by the Rev. John Chambers, president. Other presentations will be made by Mrs. William Dyson, chairman of the program committee.

THE VESPER Choir and Junior Ushers of the Mount Olive AME Church will present the Youth Choir of Bethel AME Church of Baltimore under the direction of Harrison J. Bryant Jr., in a concert at the church on Sunday evening at 5 o'clock.

Officers and members of the two groups are:

Also James Dartnell, James Dobson, Thomas Butler, Booker T. Gunn Jr., Lutitia Smith, Eleanor Chambers, Ulysses Brooks 3rd, Walter Queen, Elsie Johnson, Rosa Lee Walls, Janice Sydwick and Elois McFadden.

Refreshments will be served following the program. Mrs. Joseph W. Grant is sponsor of the two groups.

On Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service, the Rev. Mr. D. A. Wilson, presiding elder of the Capitol District of the Washington Conference, will be the speaker.

MESDAMES Birdie Cromwell, Anna Tongue and Standonia Reynolds will be hosts to a fashion revue and tea at the Asbury Methodist Church, Broadneck, on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock.

Misses Frances Johnson and Bessie Small, and Roland Colbert will be soloists. Callie Johnson and Joyce Tongue will play piano solos.

The revue will feature clothes and hair styling to be modeled by both adults and children.

MR. AND MRS. Purnell Hardesty of Jones are the proud parents of a fine baby boy, named Elliott Sellman, born on Sunday, January 26 at 9 a.m. Mother and son are doing fine and will be at home to friends from the Anne Arundel General Hospital by the time this is printed.

Mrs. Francis E. Noel was hostess in her home to friends at a benefit tea for Woman's Day of the Mount Moriah AME Church on last Sunday.

Hostesses were Mesdames Alfred Williams and George Phelps Jr. Mrs. Rachel Brown poured.

The Guess Who We Are Social Club held its first regular meeting of the year with Mrs. Naomi Randall at her residence on Forrest Drive.

Items on the agenda were the election of officers and plans for the New Year.

Officers elected were:

Mrs. Alverta Thomas, president; Mrs. Maude Phelps, vice president; Miss Martha Adams, financial secretary; Mrs. Mary D. Jones, recording secretary; Mrs. Hattie Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. Ella Burgess, chaplain;

Also Mrs. Edna Beathe, chairman of the ways and means committee; Mrs. Catherine Cooper, mistress of Social session.

At the end of the business session prayer was offered by Mrs. Dorothy Ireland.

During the social hour, gifts for the members were presented by Miss Evelyn Perry.

THE Guess Who We Are Social Club, which is one of the oldest functioning clubs in the city, was organized on January 1, 1927.

Charter members are Mesdames Ella Burgess, Anita Spriggs, Hattie Taylor, Maude Phelps, Annie Johnson, Nancy Carpenter and Catherine Cooper.

Other members are Mesdames Dorothy Ireland, Alethia Parker, Alice Pinkney, Edna Booth, Naomi Randall, Ophelia Barnett and Misses Evelyn Perry and Martha Adams.

WELL, HERE goes more of those belated holiday parties. This must be evidence of the community having had a brimming over holiday social season.

The Chums, a group of good old friends, had a delightful evening together with their friends on Friday evening at the Elks Home.

The table, which was set up buffet style, was beautifully decorated in a color scheme of pink and green.

Members of the club are:

Mesdames Alverta Thomas, Abbie Brown, Amelia Johnson, Mary Wynn, Flora Chambers, Beatrice Smith and Miss Florence Tongue.

The Orchid and Bloom Club entertained at its holiday party and celebration of its 22nd anniversary on Saturday night at the Elks Home.

The lace-covered table was centered by a small white Christmas tree, decorated with orchids. The tempting menu, which included turkey, ham, chicken and a variety of colorful hors d'oeuvres, was served buffet style. Cocktails were also served.

Mrs. Margaret Taylor, Daughter Elder of Pride of Annapolis Temple No. 76 was an honored guest.

Officers and members are:

Mrs. Edna Anderson, president; Mrs. Arnella Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Anna May Hutton, recording secretary; Mrs. Sarah Randall, financial secretary; Miss Louise Diggs, treasurer; Mrs. Pearl Whittington, chaplain;

Also Mrs. Jemima Kidd, chairman social sessions; Mesdames Alethia Parker, Edith Mitchell, Edith Gantt, Elizabeth Watkins, Lula Upchurch, Alverta Gross, Eliza Washington and Miss Barbara Diggs.

DOWN GALESVILLE WAY

What a day Sunday was at Galesville. It was a day when real history was made, for two of the most popular and finest citizens in the community celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Crowner Sr., who have spent their entire married life in Galesville, were the recipients of loads of gifts and money. Friends and relatives showed their esteem by coming from long distances and also in very large numbers to pay their respects to the happy couple.

It was a lovely sight to see most of the family in its entirety pose for a picture together.

The sight of every large families tend to remind one of so much warmth and love. It must be fun to belong to one, especially when the members live close by each other. There is a story on this affair elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

THE REV. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor of Washington were dinner guests of Mrs. Eliza Crowner on Sunday.

Class meeting was held on Thursday night with William Jackson and Howard Makell, class leaders in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. William Swann and son, Mrs. Shirley Burgess, Mrs. Mary Sellman and Mrs. Edith Crowner were guests of Mrs. Harriet Hull on Wednesday night.

The regular meeting of the Community Club will be held on Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Community Center.

Mrs. Annie Easton is confined at the Anne Arundel General Hospital. Mrs. Isabelle Crowner, who remains at the hospital, is much improved.

Turner Station now has polio, well-baby clinics

The Turner Station Health Committee has been successful in getting the Well Baby and Polio clinics back in the community at 101 Breckenridge Drive in the Sollers Homes.

The Well Baby Clinic is held on the second, third and fourth Fridays of each month from 1 to 3 p.m. while the Polio clinic is held on the fourth Tuesday in each month from 1 to 3 p.m.

On the staffs of the clinics are: Dr. Joseph H. Thomas, Dr. William C. Wade, Mrs. Agnes R. Williams, PHN and Mrs. Evelyn Moran, PHN.

The chest clinic is still being conducted from the Sparrows Point Health Center because there are no facilities in Turner Station.

Some volunteer help has been given, but the clinics are in need of a additional volunteer help.

Persons interested in serving are urged to apply to the public health nurses at the center.

The management of the Bay-Shore Operating Co., trading as Sollers Homes, has provided housing for the clinics without charge as its contribution to the Health Program of Turner Station.

The Health Committee will greatly appreciate it if other organizations who benefit from the Health Program will do their share to keep the program moving forward.

THE TURNER Health Committee has launched a drive to raise funds to build a health center in Turner Station.

A musical concert will be held at the Sollers Point High School Sunday, February 23, at 5 p. m. Tickets are fifty cents.
