Rites today for Mrs. Ora Shorts

Funeral services for Mrs. Ora Shorts, 49, 1632 E. Madison St., were scheduled to be held today (Friday), 1 p.m. at an Orleans St. funeral home.

Mrs. Shorts died Monday a result of a blood clot that worked its way to her heart.

The source of the clot was a fractured leg sustained in a fall before Christmas.

• • •

A NATIVE OF Sparrows Point, Mrs. Shorts was the daughter of James and Josephine Shorts.

She was employed as a diet aide at Johns Hopkins Hospital for 30 years.

She was also a member of Faith Baptist Church for 30 years.

• • •

MRS. SHORTS IS survived by her husband, Adrian Shorts, to whom she had been married for three years; one sister, Mrs. Annie Mae McCormick; and three brothers, Clavin, Henry and Waverly Alston, all of Baltimore.

She also leaves seven nieces and seven nephews.

The Rev. George A. Crawley Jr., will officiate at the services.

Mrs. Virginia Parker

Mrs. Virginia Parker, 47, 1622 Mosher St., died Tuesday at her home after a two months' illness.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at Emmanuel Christian Community Church, where she was a member for 12 years.

Burial will be in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

Mrs. Parker was a member of the senior choir of the church.

• • •

BORN IN Nottaway County, Va., she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ford.

She is survived by her husband, John A. Parker; two daughters, Miss Elizabeth Ford and Mrs. Jenny L. Taylor; four brothers, Clarence Ford of Denver, Wilkes, Lyn and Jasper Ford of Baltimore.

Also two sisters, Mrs. Sallie Wright of Roanoke, Va., and Mrs. Ellen Overton of Richmond.

MR. MITCHELL said he feels colored Baltimoreans are entitled to have a member of their race become the next U.S. Congressman from the Third, Fourth or Seventh District.

He laid bare the voting records of Maryland Congressmen in Washington, praising some and lambasting others.

Elected officials attending the meeting, which drew an estimated 400 persons, included Councilmen C. Lyman Schueler (D., 2nd Dist.) and Leon Rubenstein, (D., 5th Dist.) and State Senator Anthony DiDomenico.

• • •

COUNCILMAN DIXON made a fiery talk bidding for support of his civil rights measure, Ordinance 1653, which comes up for a hearing in the Council on March 10.

"I am serving notice on those who have designs on this, one that it is not going to be tabled," Mr. Dixon said.

"I want action now. Somebody's going to take a stand."

Mr. Dixon urged citizens of the Second District to be present for the March 10 hearing.

"I'm going to ask you to let your councilmen know just where you stand. . . I believe you know just what to do . . . you have the ballot in your hands."

Mr. Dixon also said that on Monday he was going to ask a lot of questions about the fair employment practice law about which he said nothing is being done.

"I sent in a case to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, that I thought was pretty good," he said, but did not elaborate on the case.

• • •

WHEN MR. MITCHELL urged the election of a colored Congressman from Baltimore he did not say that any of those now serving the Third Fourth or Seventh Districts, Representatives Friedel, Garmatz and Fallon, should be removed.

"The day will come when one of them will retire or move on to greater pastures. When the n-t vcaancy comes," he stated, "I think we are entitled to have a colored man as a Congressman from the State of Maryland."

Observing that "there will come a day when soon" a colored congressmen will come up from the Southland, he urged:

"Don't let Mississippi get there ahead of us."

• • •

MR. MITCHELL said "all of us were happy" when the North Carolina Indians made a group of Klu Klux-Klansmen run like a pack of rabbits.

But he cautioned that "the way of the NAACP and other leaders is the better one:

"Here is the difference," he explained. "They fought with bullets; we fight with the ballot. When you have the ballot you don't need the bullets."

ON THE MATTER of how Maryland legislators voted on the civil rights bill passed by the last Congress, Mr. Mitchell said:

"I want to pay a tribute to Senator Beall who was always there when we needed him.

"Also to Congressman Garmatz who voted all the way. Congressman Fallon, and Congressman Friedel who did not miss a single roll call."
