Gadabouting in Baltimore

No fine times for townsfolk unless good works included

With Lula Jones Garrett

Love these town—gals, who may have nervous breakdowns clocking up fun for their own and themselves . . . but seldom at the expense of their community responsibility.

Deltas, holding their monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, decided to dance on May 16th . . . but to lay aside a part of their dance fax to add to the fund with which they are paying for a life membership in NAACP.

. . . For, as We Wives (parting tonight at Overlea Hall) pointed out "A Valentine Party is the theme that might. But Integration is an everyday fight." And for you who asked, the amount in those cute envelopes you have been asked by the Wives to leave for NAACP at the door will be your secret and your's alone.

AT THE home of Dolores Augustus, Wednesday, Kappa Silhouettes took care of business and then turned to cards, garering prizes and having a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

First on the agenda, however, was the report of Carolyn Boston, chairman of the scholarship committee, who had that business so well organized that members were able to meet and interview two candidates, Misses Mary Walker and Mae Means.

Miss Walker was selected as recipient of the Silhouettes' four-year scholarship, which will aid in defraying her expenses at Coppin State Teachers College.

Presentation of a first check to Miss Walker was made by Mrs. Lillian Parrott, principal, at the commencement exercises of Douglass High School, on Thursday evening.

Hostesses for the meeting were Phyllis Murphy, Shirley Roberts, Emily Roberts, Gwendolyn Lynch and Ruth Wilson.

FUDGE IN 5 MINUTES
. . . no beating, no failures!
CARNATION FUDGE RECIPE

1,500 see Carl Green named 'Mayor' Tuesday

Baltimore now has another "Mayor" in addition to the one we know so well.

Carl Green is his name and he lives at 2336 Anoka Ave.

He was "officially" named "Mayor of Baltimore Night Life" at an "inaugural ball" Tuesday night at a Charles St. ballroom.

For the gala affair and gala it was, 1,500 persons helped the "Mayor" celebrate his victory over ten other candidates.

An employee of Bethlehem Steel, Mr. Green was the candidate representing Club Paree, 2714 Pennsylvania Ave.

His gifts were a gold wrist watch, a gift certificate from Hendin's (for the lady) and a jazz album.

* * *

ANOTHER CANDIDATE was Harry Spencer, 3933 Duvall Ave., who won second place by a slim margin.

A self-employed painter, Mr. Spencer represented Club Casino. His gift was a portable radio.

Red Prysock and his orchestra, Frank Minion's Combo, The "Convoys" and the "Blenders" were the musical entertainers.

The candidates for "Mayor" were selected by popular vote in each night club that featured "Mayor's Night."

After their selection, they sold "ballots" which entitled any voter to be a guest at the "inaugural ball."

THAT SECOND annual weekend in New York will be a conversation piece for a long time among fun-loving Alpha Wives.

Events were moving so swiftly and their engagement schedule so tight, they were even unable to accept an invitation extended by the Brooklyn Alpha Wives, heralded by Mrs. Dorothy Arrington.

When Mrs. Arrington appeared at the Taft Hotel where the girls made their headquarters, everyone was out except one lone sleepy head, who declined in the name of the gallavanting A-Phi-A matrons.

The festivities began Friday night with a cocktail party in the Presidential Suite, occupied by the group's president, Catherine Adams.

This affair was to entertain guests from Washington, Connecticut and Baltimore, who shared their weekend merriment.

This was followed by a whirlwind of night clubs, theatres, shopping, ice skating, roller skating, horse-back riding, movies and Sunday church attendance.

Just to be hoity-toity, a group dressed and had dinner in the Taft's main dining room to the music of Vincent Lopez and his orchestra.

And Sunday morning was celebrated by another segment with luxurious breakfasts in bed.

Guests of the Wives included Marietta Gray and Jean Christian of Washington; Bertha Lattimer of New Haven; Audyln Higgins of Bennington College, Vt.; Edna Stanford, Miriam Winbourne, Blanche McRae, Virginia Gunn and Vera Shell, Mary Walker, Laurese Jones, Lucille Marcus and Florence Dennis of Baltimore.

Besides Mrs. Adams, Alpha Wives in the party were Mat Conner, Blanche Hughes, Mavene Higginbotham, Rubye Baker, Hilda Higgins, Josephine Kimbers, M. Francis Mackay, Mary Pitts, Hortense Windfer, Marguerite Brown, Ada Veney and Mae Campbell.

Accompanying his mother was the only gentleman in the party, Ivan Higgins.

THE SWANK HOME of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson made a beautiful setting for the Bridgeview Neighborhood Club party held Saturday January 18th. Mrs. Elsie Fault was in charge of the games, played awarded.

The guests then went to the dining room where the delicious food was served buffet style.

Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Curbean, Clifton Gattis, Leonard Herndon, Osborne Boykins, Charles Anderson, Oliver Miles;

Mesdames Anna Smith, Norma Johnson, Blanche Taylor, Ethel C. Johnson, Elsie Fant, Minnie Faison;

Misses Geraldine Allen, Florine Bowens, Texie Ann Goochland Plannigan, William Goodwin, Chauncey Jones, Alvin Baker and Lindsay Boykin.

PETIT AND still as pretty as a picture, Mrs. George B. Murphy Sr. celebrated her eighty - fourth birthday at a party given by her son and daughter - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy of Round Road.

The party was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Brooks of Wilmington, Del., Mr. and Mrs. James H. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Murphy and daughter, Catherine; George B. Murphy Jr., Miss Pauline Young, also of Wilmington; and William, Jr., Madaline, Arthur, Hualton and Laura Murphy, children of the hosts.

ON SUNDAY, the Westminster Fellowship of Grace Presbyterian Church gave its fourth annual Vanetine tea.

In spite of the cold weather, the lecture room of the church was filled to capacity. There were musical selections by several youngsters, but the audience was especially thrilled by a piano selection rendered by three - year - old Angela Canty.

Little Miss Canty also sang a solo.

Others participating on the program were:

Dale Parker, Paula Gardner, Carolyn Canty, Carolyn Mack, Kathleen Cain, Laurence Mills, Jacqueline Williams, Pamela Jones, Carol Jones, Ann Dashiell;

Stephanie Woolridge, Eugenie Andersho, Virginia Lemon,

Near blind matron, 65, fined for numbers

"In view of the defendant's age, her partial blindness, and the fact that her daughter is here to take her to New York City to live, I am suspending the sentence upon payment of a fine of $1,000 and costs."

Judge Anselm Sodaro gave this decision in Criminal Court Tuesday, after Mrs. Julia Williams, 45, 1000 block N. Dallas St., pleaded guilty to a numbers charge.

The suspended sentence was a three-month term in the State Reformatory for Women.

James Dashiell, Moses Hunter, Patricia Payne, The Grace Players, Jeanette Mebane, Mrs. Katrine White, Mrs. E. Canty, Monroe Cornish, Cynthia Barrett, Clinton Pettiford; Madeline Dammond, Marjory Jennings, Marion Thomas, Eleanor DeLeaver, and Joyce Ann Parker.

Mrs. Willa Bland was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Edna Canty is advisor of the group, and the Rev. Robert Newbold, Jr. is pastor of the church. The proceeds of this affair go to send the members to summer camps and senior high school conferences.

Mrs. Williams said cataracts on both eyes are impairing her sight.

Police charged they placed two 50-cent numbers bets in Mrs. Williams' home December 7, through her niece, Mrs. Mildred Summerville, 43, 1000 block E. Eager St.

The State dropped similar charges against Mrs. Summerville.
