2 HU engineering students honored

WASHINGTON

Two electrical engineering students at Howard University will be honored Saturday at the Washington section of the Institute of Radio Engineers annual banquet at the Statler Hotel.

VALENTINE COUPLE—Selected as the AFRO'S 1958 Valentine couple were James W. and Mrs. Mary E. Tolson Martin, 430 Oxford Ct. who celebrate their 31st wedding anniversary on Feb. 14. The Martins have three children and two grandchildren.

—Valentine romance

It all began in 1922.

Mrs. Martin was then Miss Mary E. Tolson, a pretty miss of 13, who was a bit young for dates.

However, she caught young Martin's eye and he worshipped her from afar for a full five years.

When she was 18 and employed as a waitress, he wooed her with "sweet nothings" and "large tips" he says, and she consented to marry him at last.

They both laughed heartily as they recalled: "We sneaked out and got married that Valentine night about 7 p.m."

TONIGHT they will be laughing together as they did on that Feb. 14, 1927 for they have been happy ever since.

For the gala occasion they plan a party. The details were uncertain on Tuesday.

But, a party it will be if only the two of them and their children are present.

They told the AFRO: "We don't know yet. Perhaps we will just have a nice dinner with baked ham and sweet potatoes, our favorite of foods.

"Or, maybe we'll just sit and watch television. That's our hobby.

"Or, if the kids are home, we may celebrate together with them. Then, again, we may invite some folks in."

Mr. Martin added: "In that case, we'll serve buffet style so everybody can help themselves."

THE MARTINS however accentuated the fact that they would "stay home."

They said: "Not just because it's our aniversary, but because we don't get around much anymore."

"It was then they reviewed the days when they were "always on the go" and attended the movies, went to dances, or, "down to Brown's Grove on the boat."

The Martin children are two sons and one daughter.

Still at home with "Mom", and "Pop" are James W. Jr., 21 and Mary Elizabeth, 20.

Harold is 19, and is with his wife, the former Miss Louise Knockett, at their home on the Dyess Airforce Base in Texas.

Urge Provident be replaced

Replacement of the 137-bed Provident Hospital at a cost of three million and a half dollars and an end to segregation in 22 other city hospitals was recommended Thursday in a 174 year later page report.

The survey was made by a citywide council of hospitals.

KOHN ELECTED

Martin B. Kohn has been elected president of the Provident Hospital Association of Commerce. Mr. Kohn succeeds Harrison Garrett, who was elected president in 1956, and re-elected a year later.

Married 31 years on Valentine Day

"I don't know why but we just happened to pick that day," said Mrs. Elmer Mills, 1815 Arunah Ave.

"The day," she referred to was her wedding day — February 14, 1927 — Valentine's Day.

Historically, the association of lovers with Saint Valentine, for whom the day was named, was also "purely accidental."

It was named for him because the day of the lovers feast fell on the same day as Saint Valentine's canonization.

DURING the 31 years, Mr. and Mrs. Mills have been blessed with four children.

Mrs. Mills is the former Byrd ie Jenkins of S.C.

Mr. Mills is a chauffeur and a plumber.

The Mills children are: Wahsoola Jackson, a nurse in a convalescent home; Miss Regina Mills, who is to enroll in the University of Maryland School of Nursing; George, a soldier, stationed at Fort Riley, Kans., and Sherry, seven years old.

First run films of the week

'RIDE A VIOLENT MILE' PLAYING NOW AT REGENT

The bitter fight between the North and the South to win control of the southwestern supply routes during the Civil War serves as the background for a Regal Films' "Ride A Violent Mile," a Twentieth Century-Fox release now at the Regent Theatre.

Co-starring John Agar and Penny Edwards, the film will bring to the screen for the first time a little - known chapter in the battle between North and South — which hinged upon the vital supply routes leading up from Mexico throughout the Southwest, the rear door of the Confederacy.

EXCITEMENT HIGH AT HARLEM'S OFFERING

A drama off the beaten path is now playing at the Harlem Theatre with the showing of "The Living Idol," MGM picture in CinemaScope and color, starring Steve Forrest, Liliane Montevecchi and James Robertson-Justice.

This absorbing story of love and reincarnation was filmed in its entirety in Mexico against arresting settings, many of which where photographed by the CinemaScope cameras for the first time.

WALT DISNEY FILM ON THE MET'S SCREEN

A boy and a dog make an irresistable team, and never have their adventures been more winningly filmed than in Walt Disney's "Old Yeller," now playing at the Met Theatre.

For this color by Technicolor drama about a tough, lovable range dog who helps protect a frontier homestead in Texas during the 1860's, Disney gave the title role to Spike, a 115-pound dog of mixed ancestry.

NEW ALBERT PRESENTS TWO ADVENTURE FILMS

Something for every teenager and adult movie-goer is presented by American-International in its new fast-moving combination show, "Viking Women and the Sea Serpent" and "The Astounding She-Monster," now at the New Albert Theatre.

The screen explodes with action when the beautiful Viking Women go in search of their warriors who have never returned from a hunting expedition.

When time has flown... get it back by phone

It's only natural to forget. Even an important date, or an anniversary, can slip your mind until the very moment is here. Time was, when you forgot an event, there was no quick solution. Today it's no trouble at all to recapture time with a phone call. And that call gives the person you momentarily forgot a pleasant feeling of being remembered. It's such simple everyday things as this that make a telephone so important a part of our daily lives. The C & P Telephone Company of Maryland.
